ROSE TO THE OCCASION.
It Was the Chance of a Lifetime, and She Made the Most of It.
The burglar hesitated. Back of him was a shiver of twenty-five feet to the ground. In front of him was a determined woman, grasping in her hand a huge revolver. She covered him steadily.
"I won't shoot," she said. "If you will remain still."
She advanced upon him and, poking the muzzle of the gun in his face, reached into his pocket and pulled out his revolver.
"Come in."
The burglar obediently stepped inside the room. All his courage was gone.
"Sit down," said the woman.
He sat down.
She got a huge ball of heavy cord from her bureau and spent the next twenty minutes in tying him up.
Then she pointed out of the window.
"Is that your wagon out there behind the barn?"
"Yes, ma'am."
"Thought you would carry away my silver in it?"
"Yes, ma'am."
The woman called her husband, who had been hiding behind the baby's crib in the next room.
"Here, John," she said, "take some of this furniture out."
John came in and got to work. The burglar watched with curious eyes. Suddenly his face blanched. He looked out of the window and saw in the light of the moon what John was carrying.
"What are you doing to me?" he asked.
The woman began cutting his cords.
"I'm going to load you up with all of the old eyecoses that we have had in the house for these many years," she said merrily—"all the furniture presented to us at Christmas by kind hearted relatives, all the prizes we have taken at card parties, all the family portraits—everything that we have been simply dying to get rid of."—Life.

CURE FOR LOSS OF MEMORY.
Case of an American Woman Married Abroad and an Accent.
"Nothing disgusts me more," said a woman who goes abroad every summer, "than to meet in Europe Americans who seem to be ashamed of their own language. I have often come across them, but a woman I met in Carlsbad last year took the palm.
"She was introduced to me as the Countess Komoffsky or some name that sounded like that. She married a Russian or a Pole about three years before, and so far as I can gather she had hardly been any nearer Europe than a New York table d'hote before that time. She looked American, but her English was all broken into bits. She did not even say 'that' but pronounced it 'ta.' She had great difficulty in recollecting phrases, and the result at times was a lot of French.
"Next morning I was breakfasting in the Kaiserpark with a party of shawly wrapped Americans who had drunk the requisite number of glasses from the Sprudel or the Marktrunnen and had walked out according to prescription. One of those at the table was a New York physician who is none the less popular because he is frank in speech almost to brutality and will not stand for affectation. The countess came along and was invited to join the party. The doctor, it turned out, had known her since she was a child.
"Somebody asked her a question, and she started to reply with that accent of hers. I saw the doctor flinch. Then she made another remark in half French. The doctor said something that sounded like a swear. Then he blurted out:
"For heaven's sake, Maria Smith, you don't mean to say that three years in Europe have made you forget your native tongue?"
"There was a hush, and then some of the women in the party smiled, but when the countess next spoke it was in purest United States.—New York Sun.

Hard to Check.
It was the young hubby's first tour through the big department store.
"What room is that?" he asked in noisily when they reached the second floor.
"Why, that is where they check babies," elucidated his wife.
And then young hubby looked at the struggling infant in his arms and the buttons and pins it had dislocated and said simply:
"I wish they'd try to check this one."—Chicago News.

A Scientific Classification.
"Now, children," says the dear teacher, "I have explained to you how yeast grows until it is full of cells. Which little boy or girl will tell me the kingdom to which yeast belongs?"
The little wife boy lifted his hand.
"You may tell, Johnny."
"The criminal kingdom, teacher."—Chicago Tribune.

What Gattered Him.
"My son, never be afraid to tell the truth."
"I ain't, pa. What bothers me is how to tell a lie without being afraid."—Cleveland Leader.

On Being a Hero.
Any man with $5 in his pocket can be a hero to the fellow who wants to borrow that much.—Chicago News.

Delay Has Been Dangerous in New Bern.
Do the right thing at the right time.
Act quickly in times of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Cure all distressing, dangerous kidney ills.
Plenty of evidence to prove this. Mrs. C. Pennington, 27 E. Front St. New Bern, N. C., says: "I suffered intensely from backache and sharp, shooting pains across my loins. Often I was so lame that I could hardly straighten after stooping. I knew that my kidneys were disordered for their secretions looked very unnatural. I used just one box of Doan's Kidney Pills that I got from the Bradham Drug Co., and this was sufficient to dispose of my aches and pains. Doan's Kidney Pills have been of greater benefit to me than any other kidney medicine I have ever taken." (Statement given January 24, 1908.)

Re-endorsement.
Mrs. Pennington was interviewed on November 28, 1910 and she said: "I can still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills, for they gave me permanent relief. You may continue to publish my former endorsement of this remedy."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name — Doan's — and take no other.

Foley's Kidney Remedy Acted Quickly.
M. N. George, Irondale, Ala., was bothered with kidney trouble for thirty years. "I was persuaded to try Foley's Kidney Remedy and before taking it three days, I could feel the benumbing aches from the pain left my back. My kidney action cleared up, and I am now as well as I can be."—Foley's Kidney Remedy.

THE ROYAL ROAD TO WEALTH.
Like the tide, will bear you to its summit if grasped at the golden moment. Financial plungers usually die poor. Its regular steady and systematic habit of saving that produces results. The saying of our fathers "take care of the pennies and the dollars will take care of themselves" is as old as the hills, but true as gospel.
Twenty three years ago the NEW BERN BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION was organized. Its founders builded better than they knew, little dreaming of the wonderful success it would attain. Its influence encircles the community and its praises are sung on every side. As a safe, sound and truly meritorious investment it stands at the top. The April Series now on sale by the undersigned. Take a few shares and "watch 'em grow."

WONDERFUL EFFECT.
New Bern, N. C., Nov. 2, 1910.
For some years I have been subject to severe attacks of neuralgia and in the meantime have tried many remedies without receiving much benefit. I now use SAVONINE up my nose every night just before retiring and sometimes take it internally. I have been cured I believe. Its effect upon me has been wonderful. My wife sprained her ankle and could not walk. A applied SAVONINE three times according to directions and she was relieved. I think that it is a most excellent remedy and I cheerfully recommend it.

MORTGAGE SALE.
By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed made and executed by Edward Simpkins and his wife, L. A. Simpkins, of the county of Craven to W. C. White of the county of Craven on the 7th day of February 1910, and recorded in book 176 page 440 of the records of Craven county. Said mortgage was transferred by W. C. White to the Virginia Carolina Chemical Company and on account of default having been made in the payment of the said mortgage I will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash at the Court House door in New Bern, Craven County at 12 o'clock on Monday the 12th day of June, 1911, the following described tract of land conveyed in said mortgage, to-wit:
Lying and being in Craven County No. 1 township on the north side of Neuse River and east side of Swift Creek joining the land of Nathan Whitefield, Warren brother's land and A. M. Williams, beginning at a black gum on the run of Bear Branch in the dividing line formerly between Allen Gaskins and Fernisole Jacksons and run the said line north 50 east 100 poles to a pine in said land, thence south 17 east 100 poles to the Simon road, thence south 83 west 170 poles to a black gum on the run of Bear Branch; thence up said branch to the beginning, turning 66 curves more or less being the same tract of land deeded by Allen Gaskins and others to his daughter L. A. Simpkins by deed dated December 1st, 1887, and registered in the office of the Registrar of Deeds of Craven County in book 135, page 445.
There is excepted from this description 6 acres sold to Joseph Simpkins. This sale is subject to a mortgage of $300 made to William E. Brown, and now held by Mrs. Sallie L. Joyner, May 1st, 1911.
