WOMEN SUFFRAGE IS FA-VOR OF WOMAN SUFFRAGE

suffrage, he found to be as groundless as those that once forced the widow in eastern India to ascend the funeral pyre or as those that now exclude Mohammedan women from the social benefits and responsibilities which the women of the Christian world share?

And are not the second and third objections above stated refuted, to some extent at least, by the fact that in the states which have adopted woman's suffrage (and in the other nations that have adopted it) there is no agitation for a return to the system under which man has a monopoly of the right to vote? Is it not fair to assume that an effort would be made to correct the mistake if woman's suffrage had really failed to give satisfaction to the people where it has been tried?

If one were in doubt as to which side of the controversy to take, he would be justified in giving weight to the fact that organization and enthusiasm are on the side of those who favor woman's suffrage. Organization is an evidence of earnestness, as well as of a comprehension of a subject. People do not associate themselves together to secure a given end until they have reached a definite conclusion in regard to its desirability and feel that its accomplishment is worth the effort for which it calls. It is quite evident that those who disinterestedly desire woman's suffrage are willing to make greater sacrifices to secure it than those who disinterestedly oppose women's suffrage are willing to make to prevent it.

As for myself, I am not in doubt as to my duty. It is not my purpose to discuss the subject with elaboration at this time, but I desire to present the argument to which I give the greatest weight. Without minimizing other arguments advanced in support of the extending to suffrage to woman, I place the emphasis upon the mother's right to a voice in moulding the environment which shall surround her children—an environment which operates powerfully in determining whether her offspring will crown her latter years with joy or bring down her gray hairs in sorrow to the grave.

The Creator has placed upon the mother burden which she could not shift if she so desired and He has given her the disposition to bear it.
 Her life trembles in the balance at the child's birth; her active years are given to the care and nurture of her children; her nerve force and vital energy are expended in their behalf; her exhaustless love is poured out upon them. Because the wealth of her existence is bestowed upon them, they are a part of her very being—"where your treasure is, there will your heart be also." When one considers the cost of parents, especially to the mother, of raising a child, it seems impossible that any one would attempt to lead a child astray or rob its parents of the priceless regard to which they are entitled; and yet there are in every generation—aye, in every community—those who are inhuman enough to deliberately lie in wait to make a wreckage of the lives of young men and young women. They lay snares for them; they set traps for them; and the men who ply this ghastly trade for gain are allowed to use the ballot to advance their pecuniary interests. I am not willing to stay the mother's hand if she thinks that by the use of suffrage she can safeguard the welfare of those who are dearer to her than her own life.

The mother can justly claim the right to employ every weapon which can be made effective for the protection of those whose interests she guards, and the ballot will put within her reach all the instrumentalities of government, including the police power. If she is a widow, there is no one who is in a position to speak for her in this matter of supreme importance; if her husband is living, she can supplement his influence if they agree as to what is best for those under their joint care; if they do not agree, who will say that only the father should be consulted?

For a time I was impressed by the suggestion that the question should be left to the women to decide—a majority to determine whether the franchise should be extended to woman; but I find myself less and less disposed to endorse this test. Samuel Johnson coined an epigram which is in point here, namely, that "no man's conscience can tell him the right of another man." Responsibility for the child's welfare rests primarily upon the parent; the parent receives in largest measure the benedictions that flow from the child's life, if that life is nobly employed, and upon the parent falls the blow with severest force if the child's life is mispent. Why should any mother, therefore, be denied the use of the franchise to safeguard the welfare of her child merely because another mother may not view her duty in the same light?

Politics will not suffer by woman's entrance into it. If the political world has grown more pure in spite of the evil influences that have operated to debase it, it will not be polluted by the presence and participation of woman. Neither should we doubt that woman can be trusted with the ballot. She has proven herself equal to every responsibility imposed upon her; she will not fail society in this emergency. Let her vote! And may that discernment she has throughout the ages, ever enable her to quickly grasp great truths—make her "the last at the cross and the first at the sepulchre" —so direct her in the discharge of her political duties as to add new glories to her and through her still further bless society.

 IF BILL PASSES

Some Tacoma Citizens Want to Pro-or "Movie" Screen.

(By United Press.)
 Tacoma, July 17.—If the city council passes an ordinance pending before it, prohibiting the depiction of crime on the stage or the "movie" screen, Shakespearean actors among other people will do well to give Tacoma a wide berth in future.

Thirty days in jail, $100 fine or both will be the penalty for disregarding the ordinance and legal authorities who have examined the measure expressed the opinion that Brutus would be just as guilty, when he stabs Caesar, as Mary Pickford, when she takes a pot shot at the man who spurns her.

CARRANZA'S PLAN FOR TAKING OVER THE GOVERNMENT

to compromise, on a single point, the principles upon which the movement was founded," declared Carranza.
 "If the government machinery through which those ends may be obtained is not surrendered voluntarily by the party of Huerta, they will be obtained by force."

Because of the effort to make the installation of the constitutionalist government a peaceful one Carranza, he said, would probably be a month before he entered Mexico City. He stated that he did not believe that Carbajal was strong enough to handle effectively the reins of power passed over to him by Huerta, if the latter had left the republic for the Island of Culebra, as was reported here yesterday from the United States.

Carranza said he thought Carba-jal or any man in civil life would find the situation most difficult, and he expected the new president would open negotiations with him at once.
 Telegraph service with Mexico City would be resumed at once.

In view of the situation facing Carbajal, Carranza declared it might be necessary to send constitutionalist troops to Mexico City to preserve order, and that such a situation was being prepared for.

NEW REVOLTS IN MEXICO PLANNED

Hernandez and Felix Diaz May Lead Armies Against Carranza.

Vera Cruz, July 17.—When Mexico's new provisional government serving its first day in office, reports of two new revolts were received here yesterday. One of these is to have the backing of General Huerta.

Octavio Campero, Constitutionalist agent here, announced that Florencio Hernandez, ex-President of the Mexican Congress had organized Indians in the State of Oaxaca in behalf of Felix Diaz and that Huerta had turned over to Hernandez all the arms landed from the liner Ypiranga.
 He declared that Huerta had ordered several battalions of the regular army to co-operate with Hernandez.
 Campero expects the Mexican troops before Vera Cruz to join this revolt.

The Federal garrison at Tlacotalpan has declared for Felix Diaz.
 These rebels are led by Jefe Polifio Aguirre and declare they will cooperate with Emiliano Zapata.
