

HUERTA BIDS ALL FAREWELL EXCEPT THE UNITED STATES

Sends Messages to Representatives of The Nations At Mexico City.

SPENT THE NIGHT AT PUERTO ABOARD TRAIN

Puerto Mexico, Mexico, July 18.—Gen. Victoriano Huerta, who recently resigned as provisional president of Mexico, arrived here shortly after 8 o'clock last night, accompanied by General Blanquet, his minister of war. General Huerta remained aboard his train last night. All arrangements were made early in the day for the reception of Huerta and Blanquet and the stage was so set that they could board the Dresden or Bristol and put out to sea so quickly and quietly as to rob their flight of all dramatic elements. Tracks were laid so that the special train could be pulled along the wharf. None of the messages sent Huerta's wife or to General Camerna, commanding the special guard here, indicated Huerta's plans. Not even the captain of the German and British vessels had definite instructions. They were to leave the decision to Huerta himself. It was generally believed, however, that Huerta would go aboard the Dresden and the other refugees aboard the Bristol and that the vessels would proceed for Jamaica or Havana. It was a day of sharp anxiety, especially for the wives of the two leaders who were passing through a country where many revolutionaries are known to be operating. When Gen. Huerta came to leave his country and leave his exile of Gen. Porfirio Diaz, whom he escorted to the coast three years ago, is unknown except perhaps to himself. Capt. Kohler, of the German cruiser Dresden, offered him his ship "for any use he cared to make of her," but Gen. Huerta merely thanked him, adding that he would return his call today. The trip to this port was without incident or unpleasantness other than that occasionally the terrible heat of the tropical lowlands. With Huerta and Blanquet were the general staff. The party occupied a train of nine sleeping cars, four of which were given over to troops. Two other trains loaded with troops preceded Gen. Huerta's train. Behind him came another troop train. Captain Kohler and staff, in formal dress uniform, were at the station and were officially presented to Gen. Huerta. Answering inquiries as to his health, Gen. Huerta assured the officers he felt very well, although somewhat tired from the heat. British Vice Consul Gemmill also officially called on Huerta and presented him a message, presumably an offer of refuge on the British cruiser Bristol. Huerta read it and expressed pleasure at the consideration being shown him. Local officials calling on General Huerta last night were few in number, the only one of importance being Gen. Rincon, commander of the local garrison. Commander Gabriel A. Carvallo, of the Mexican gunboat Zaragoza with his staff, also called, but Huerta asked to be excused for the night. Paris, July 18.—The retirement of Huerta is commented upon sympathetically in the French press yesterday. The papers declare Huerta's departure from the Mexican capital is in keeping with the remarkable justice he has been shown throughout. He leaves soon enough, so that he does not seem to fly before the Constitutionalists, they assert, and at just the right moment to obtain credit for "the elegant conduct" in handing over his power to a successor whose impartiality places above all parties the hope that peace may be established. Mexico City, July 18.—Every representative of a foreign power received two telegrams from Gen. Huerta—one for the diplomat personally bidding him farewell and asking that he repose confidence in President Carbaljal. The other was for the government represented, requesting support for the new Mexican government. The single exception was in the case of the United States.

Contest Between Hood and Thomas Slated for Two Weeks from Today.

RUMORED MR. THOMAS NOT TO ENTER PRIMARY

Warsaw, N. C., July 18. New Bern Sun: Yours received. Thomas wired unless rules were changed he would not run. W. L. HILL. This is the last day that the two candidates in the Congressional primary one week from today, today may two weeks from today have to put up their thousand-dollar entrance fees. It is generally believed in New Bern that Mr. Charles R. Thomas will not put up his thousand dollars, leaving the field open to the Hon. George E. Hood of Goldsboro. It is rumored that Mr. Thomas has already sent a telegram to W. L. Hill of Warsaw, Duplin county, chairman of the district executive committee, declaring that he would not participate in the primary unless the rules were changed. This primary, it will be remembered, was ordered between Mr. Hood and Mr. Thomas by the State Democratic executive committee, acting on an appeal by Mr. Thomas. Mr. Thomas when interviewed by a reporter for The Sun yesterday afternoon refused either to affirm or deny the rumors that he would not participate in the primary.

HOME RULE IS NOW NEAR SETTLEMENT

Leaders Confer in Effort to Prevent Serious Situation—The King Makes Threats. (By United Press.) London, July 18.—With leaders of both sides determined to grant no further concessions, the gravity of the Home Rule situation was brought home to England by the King's threat to postpone the great naval review at Spithead to enable him to confer with Premier Asquith. The minority in the cabinet is leaning toward the Unionist demands that all Ulster be excluded from Home Rule. The end of the present government is freely predicted. The resignation of any one of the four ministers in favor of giving in to Ulster would cause no surprise. London, July 18.—As result of conferences between leaders, it is reported settlement of the Home Rule question is near.

FOUR INJURED IN BATTLE BETWEEN MINERS - GUARDS

Over Hundred Shots Fired in Battle in Arkansas—No Requests for Militia.

LACK OF AMMUNITION STOPS THE FIGHTING

(By United Press.) Fort Smith, Ark., July 18.—Lack of ammunition forces a cessation of hostilities between the striking union miners and the mine guards for the Mammoth Vein Coal Company at Prairie Creek. The authorities think it remarkable that only four persons were wounded, as a hundred shots were fired in the battle which preceded the dynamiting and burning of the surface work of three mines. The union miners declared the trouble started by the shooting up of the union miners camp by nine guards. No requests have been made for militia.

MRS. CARMAN IS INDICTED FOR MRS. BAILEY'S DEATH

Manslaughter in the First Degree Finding of the Grand Jury. She Pleads Not Guilty; Released on Big Bond. Freeport, N. Y., July 18.—Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, indicted yesterday, on the charge of first degree manslaughter in connection with the killing on the night of June 30, in her doctor-husband's office of Mrs. Louise Bailey, came back to her home and her family here last night, temporarily a free woman. She was released for trial under $20,000 bail fifteen minutes after the grand jury made known its finding. When Mrs. Carman was led into the court room late yesterday for arraignment she plainly showed the strain she had been under since her arrest. When the clerk of the court asked her how she would plead, her lips opened to answer, but Mr. Levy, her counsel, interrupted her. Upon the understanding that his client would have the right to withdraw her plea within two weeks and file a demurrer and a motion to quash the indictment on the ground of insufficient evidence, Levy entered a plea of not guilty. After the bail bond had been arranged, Mrs. Carman was led to an ante-room and there she collapsed. "I can't talk," she said later to reporters. "I am too overcome. I still fail to understand why the grand jury declined to heed my plea to tell my story." While she was on her way home, District Attorney Smith reiterated that he had new evidence which might later lead to the finding of a superseding indictment charging Mrs. Carman with a higher degree of homicide. He sent detectives to a marsh about a mile from the Carman home to dig in a place an informant said he had seen a man bury a revolver the day after the murder. No revolver was found there, however. The district attorney also asserted that if certain clues were developed a member of the Carman household would be placed under arrest as an accessory after the fact.

NEGRO BISHOP GOES TO ASHEVILLE TO ANSWER CHARGES

Bishop C. R. Harris and Eight Other Churchmen Charged With Arson. Voluntarily Returns From Another State. Asheville, July 18.—For the first time in the history of Buncombe county a prisoner wanted here and located in another State yesterday was allowed to return to Asheville without being accompanied by an officer. Bishop C. R. Harris, of the A. M. E. Zion church, one of the nine negroes against whom true bills charging arson were returned by the grand jury of the present criminal term of the Superior Court, was the defendant who was allowed to come to this city without being humiliated by being placed under arrest, the chief of police of Johnson City, Tenn., to whom the bishop surrendered, extending to him the privilege of returning to Asheville accompanied by a minister of his church. He was not required to make bond at Johnson City nor was he placed under arrest there, the officer who was asked to hold him at that city expressing his confidence in the aged minister by telling him he could come to Asheville without being watched by a man with the power to make an arrest. Bishop Harris appeared at the office of Sheriff Chas. F. Williams yesterday and furnished bail in the sum of $500 to guarantee his appearance at the September term of the Superior Court. He was accompanied to this city by Rev. W. C. Adams, colored, pastor of the A. M. E. Zion church at Johnson City. He presented a letter to Sheriff Williams from Chief of Police George F. Campbell, of Johnson City, in which the latter stated that he had decided to allow the negro minister to return to Asheville voluntarily. W. J. Trent, former secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. and now connected with the colored Y. M. C. A. at Atlanta, another of the defendants, has advised local officers that he is ready to return to answer to the charge against him. Sheriff Williams has wired the Atlanta authorities to release Trent when he furnishes bail in the sum of $500.

Charleston, S. C., July 18.—Miss Mamie Brown, of Macon, Ga., was drowned in surf off Sullivan's Island and Miss Lena Rankin of Macon, was resuscitated only after strenuous work yesterday. This is the first drowning of the season here. Rath was almost exhausted by his struggles in the water.

CARBAJAL WILL NOT STAND IN WAY OF PEACE FOR MEXICO

Tells Diplomats He Plans To Hold The Position Only Temporarily.

SAN LUIS POTOSI MAY HAVE FALLEN TO REBELS

(By United Press.) Washington, D. C., July 18.—Provisional president Carbaljal will not stand in the way of pacification of Mexico, he told the Mexico diplomats at a formal reception yesterday, according to a report sent to the State Department by the Brazilian minister. Carbaljal said he planned to stay in his present position only temporarily. Interruptions of communication to San Luis Potosi are thought to indicate that the city has been captured by Constitutionalists, according to a report from Consul Silliman.

MADAME CAILLAUX ON TRIAL MONDAY

Prominent French Woman To Be Tried For Her Life—Has a Novel Plea. (By United Press.) Paris, July 18.—Madame Joseph Caillaux, wife of the former premier and minister of finance, will go on trial for her life here Monday in the Court of Assizes, charged with the murder of Gaston Calmette, editor of "Le Figaro." Mme. Caillaux's defense, it is said, will amount practically to a plea of "brain storm," that she "acted in a moment of folly." This plea, it is understood, will be reinforced by a denial that Mme. Caillaux was directly responsible for Calmette's death, the charge being made that the surgeons attending Calmette after the shooting might have saved his life easily had they operated in time. A third string to the defense's bow will be in the nature of a justification plea, editor Calmette's attacks being of an alleged personal nature and exceedingly violent in tone, calculated to destroy what to the Caillaux couple was more precious than life; the good standing of the wife. Scores of witnesses have been subpoenaed, including former Prime Ministers, Cabinet officials, Senators, Deputies, Judges, lawyers, Princesses and Social leaders, while the President of the Republic, Raymond Poincare, will testify through a deposition. The public practically will be barred, since the room is small and a small army of lawyers, officials, newspaper correspondents, and the like have asked admission.

Plans to Go From There To Paris to Make His Future Home.

HIS GOING IS KEEPING HIS WORD, HE SAYS

(By United Press.) Puerto Mexico, July 18.—General Huerta will sail for Jamaica at noon on the British cruiser Bristol. Huerta looks old, his face being drawn. It is evident that the strain of the past few months has told on him. His family and staff will sail with him. According to present plans he will sail for Paris from Jamaica, where he intends to make his future home. The plans for departure provide for a little ceremony as possible. Huerta declared today: "When I took the presidential chair I said I would bring about peace, cost what it may. It is necessary for me to go to bring peace. In this way I keep my word." Huerta wired Carbaljal today: "I desire your government to continue. If you still require my service, I assure you I am at your disposal."

STILL NO TRACE OF MISSING WOMEN

Court Orders Telegrams of Innes to Mrs. Dennis Turned Over to Mother. Atlanta, Ga., July 18.—Court action was taken here yesterday in connection with mysterious disappearance of Mrs. Eloise Nelms Dennis and Miss Beatrice Nelms, for whom a nation-wide search is being made. Judge George L. Bell, of the Superior Court, signed an order directing the Western Union Telegraph Company, the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company and the Southern Bell Telephone Company to turn over to Mrs. John W. Nelms, of this city, mother of the missing women, all telegrams which may have passed during the last three years between Mrs. Dennis and Victor E. Innes, former assistant United States district attorney of Nevada. The order in addition included any other telegrams which might aid in solving the mystery. The court also appointed Mrs. Nelms temporary receiver of the estate of Miss Beatrice Nelms. The latter has large property holdings and it was asserted in the receivership petition that her interests would be placed in jeopardy unless a receiver was named. Innes was Mrs. Dennis' attorney in Reno, Nev., in 1912, when she obtained a divorce. It was reported he had been commissioned by Mrs. Dennis to make investments for her in Mexico, but in a statement made in Portland, Oregon, the attorney denied the report and said he had no business relations with the woman other than as her counsel in her divorce proceedings. No trace has been found of either Mrs. Dennis or Miss Nelms, who left here early in June on a business trip to Texas. An investigation was started when a letter, mailed in San Francisco on July 3, to Mrs. Nelms and signed with Mrs. Dennis' name, indicated that she had killed her sister.

DR. EARL SLOAN IS ELECTED DIRECTOR OF PEOPLES BANK

Has Bought All The Available Stock in This Thriving Institution.

BOSTON MILLIONAIRE TO MOVE HERE SOON

Dr. Earl Sloan, now of Boston but soon to be of Craven county, has been elected a director in the Peoples Bank and has accepted the honor. Upon coming to this part of the South, Dr. Sloan was struck very forcibly by the marvelously rapid and yet absolutely solid growth of the Peoples Bank. He made further investigations, and then, exhibiting the same acute business sense that has made him a millionaire, he promptly arranged an interview with Mr. A. A. Uzzell, cashier, and inquired how he could obtain stock. Dr. Sloan has bought up all the Peoples Bank stock available, and if there are any holders of this stock who are thinking of parting with it—which it seems there are not—the probability is the far-seeing doctor would welcome the chance to increase his holdings. The bank officials are proud of Dr. Sloan's quick recognition of the merits of their bank, whose deposits when the recent statements were called for showed an increase, despite the almost universal decline of bank deposits owing to a general wave of slight business depression, now fast passing. Dr. Sloan's adoption of Craven county as the site of his magnificent country estate and his decision to become a citizen and work for the building of the town and surrounding territory is regarded everywhere as a wonderful piece of good fortune for New Bern.
