

FIGURE THIS OUT

When you trade at home, you keep the money at home. The dollar at work will do many things. When you send your dollar to a mail order house you simply send away that much force; that much labor; that much strength. It may never come back.

"But," says the man who hasn't thought, "I can get so many things cheaper." But you can't. You get what is sent you. There are seconds which mail order houses buy. Things imperfect, and they put them off on the customer who lives at some distance. They know he will not protest. He will take it and keep it.

When you trade at home you are trading with your neighbor and he isn't going to put anything over you.

But apart from that. When you build up a big store in your home town you have helped increase the taxable property in that town. You have made old field prices turn into city lot prices. You enrich your State. You enrich your county. You enrich yourself because your property is worth more. You do more than that. You build up a city or a town where your sons may start in business. Where your daughter may teach or find employment if she be a stenographer or a teacher or a saleslady.

When we patronize home institutions we are helping one another. Do not send outside of New Bern for any article that New Bern can supply, for in the long run you get every article cheaper than if you send the money away.

The farmer, the laboring man, the citizen should undertake to inform himself about this mail order business. He should remember that the local merchant is the man who always contributes to help things go—who gives here and gives there—the real motive force of the town. He should be helped by liberal patronage—all the dollars that are going to be spent should go to him. He makes less than the mail order house which pays no taxes and which contributes in no way to your upbuilding.

PLANS TO MOVE FARM PRODUCE

Lake Charles, La., Business Men Organize To Help Farmers Place Crops on Market.

(By United Press.)
Lake Charles, La., July 26.—To strengthen the farmer and truck grower in the weakest point in his organization, the selling end, the Lake Charles Businessmen's Association has been organized on original lines. The merchants of the city have incorporated a mutual company, hired a manager and have announced that in the future they will accept and pay cash down at the best New Orleans prices for all truck and produce brought to the association's warehouse.
"The trouble with our farmers," declared John Marshall, publisher of the Lake Charles Times and a leader in the movement, "was that they had no selling end to their business. They had good land, were well trained farmers and raised good stuff but from the minute they took it off their place and put it in their wagons they were helpless. There were hundreds of consumers who wanted their stuff and were willing to pay for it and there were hundreds of farmers about here who wanted to sell. But they couldn't get together. Our organization will see to this. We pay the farmer cash for his stuff. That's what he needs worse than anything else. Then our agents in New Orleans get it on the big southern and eastern markets for us and we get our money back. We can afford to wait for our returns but lots of times the farmer cannot and as a result takes any old price or dumps his stuff on the local market at a big loss. So far the work of the association has been remarkably successful."

MAINTAIN CANAL TO PROTECT CANAL

Will Shoot Sixteen Miles With Accuracy—To Have 16-Inch Bore.

BY BURTON K. STANDESH.
(Written for the United Press.)
Washington, July 26.—A cannon which will shoot 16 miles. That is what the army will use to defend the Panama Canal. This giant gun will be the most powerful in the world. It will also fire the heaviest projectiles. Within its 16-mile range, it will be able to shoot with greatest accuracy any approaching foe.

There is still a year's work to be done to complete the mammoth cannon, which is to have a 16-inch bore. The Waterville and Watertown arsenals will give it the finishing touches. An elevating groove will be cut in its breech at Waterville. It will then be sent to Watertown, to be installed in the immense gun carriage, which is nearing completion. It will be given a "shock" test at Watertown and will be shipped afterward to Sandy Hook for a final test. Progress in building the disappearing carriage for the great gun is being watched with the greatest interest by American and foreign army officers. Many nations will have representatives at the Sandy Hook for a final proving ground firing tests. Final tests at Sandy Hook of the 14-inch guns for the Canal fortifications are nearly completed. Ordnance officers are pleased with the remarkable record of accuracy made by the guns in long range firing.

Some centaurs are being developed this summer in high official circles. The spectacle of a prominent cabinet official, Senator or Representative flitting through Rock Creek or Potomac Parks on horseback is more frequent this year than ever before. Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, although one of the oldest Senators, is an equestrian devotee. Every Sunday morning he rides the same route through the heavily wooded paths of Rock Creek Park. Lodge has a bay steed and English saddle, with regular "jockey's" stirrups. He is not a "speed merchant" however, being content to let his horse amble.

Secretary of State Bryan does his galloping in the mornings, often before breakfast, and is home at 8 o'clock or shortly afterward. His bay steed often shows signs of having had a hard trip. On his horseback excursions Bryan wears his old solid black campaign hat and a "Prince Albert" coat. Senator Borah of Idaho likes to ride fast and far. His charger is a big white horse; it has to be, for Borah is a considerable load and is a picturesque figure.

Work on the elaborate building to be used in connection with the Public Service hygienic laboratory is soon to begin. The building which is to house the animals to be used by the health service for hygienic experiments. Out of the $25,000 appropriated for this work, $20,852 is to be used in connection with the erection of the building, the remainder to be expended for equipment.

In addition to twenty first class Resus monkeys purchased by a New York animal fancier at only $3 each, dogs, guinea pigs, cats, mice, rabbits, rats, horses and chickens have been added to the miniature zoo. Occasionally a calf pays a visit to this collection of animals, all of which are to be used in the investigation to ascertain the causes and characteristics of contagious diseases. Little surgery and nothing in the nature of vivisection takes place in the experiments. To determine the nature of the diseases which afflict humane beings and the methods of their cure, the animals are put through various forms of germ infection and serum injection.

"Hew to the line and let the chips fall where they may" seems to be the motto of Senator Vardaman of Mississippi. He has given the staid, decorous Senate many shocks to its dignity, but one of the best—of worst—was when he hauled out his jackknife and whittled a stick of wood in the "sacred" chamber. The shavings piled upon the rich new carpet while awe-struck—and envious—pages clustered about in admiration of Vardaman's nerve and whittling ability.

One thousand boys and girls cool off on the municipal bathing beach here daily. This is the average, but the attendance has run over 3,000 on extremely torrid days lately. Uncle Sam has elaborate free bathing facilities. He puts up the money for life guards and all attendants. Suits are rented for 15 and 25 cents each, but most everybody brings his own suit and towels.
