DELIGHTFUL BOX PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lovick gave a most delightful box party last evening at the Athens in honor of Miss Mary Jarvis Stith, the occasion being her birthday.

After enjoying an absorbing program of moving pictures, the company repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lovick, which had been profusely decorated with Japanese lanterns and Southern smilax. Many interesting games were played and the fortunes of those precent were amusingly told Before the close of the evening delicious refrechments were served.

Trouble Started When Rural Guards Attempted to Arrest a Constitutionalist.

Mexico City, Aug. 28.-Rural guards were attempting to arrest a Constitutionalist last night when comrades came to his rescue and shots were exchanged. The trouble became more serious when the rural guards withdrew to the fifth ward po lice station. The shooting was re-newed and continued for half an hour during which it is reported seven persons were killed. The city is now quiet save for scattering shots in the neighborhood of the police station. The infantry and cavalry are patrolling the streets.

Washington, Aug. 28.—An upris-ing in Mexico City against circulation of bank notes and currency of the new Carranza government has been put down by troops. Confiden-tial advices to the State Department late yesterday announced that there had been a "misunderstanding" between the populace and the govern ment but that order had been re stored. No time was mentioned but the trouble is supposed to have occurred yesterday.

Vera Cruz, Aug. 28,—That the break between the police and the Constitutionalists in the capital had reached the point of open conflict in which a few persons were killed was the information reaching here today. It was reported that after the re-opening of the saloons the worst eleopening of the saloons the worst elements of the new forces in the capital became unruly and abusive. The police who had been retained from the old regime, fired into a crowd of Constitutionalists. The latter, however, gained the upperhand, all the police were disarmed and quiet was restored.

of very poor parents, and was put to work early in life in a small country store. He afterwards secured a place as assistant to a map-maker. After learning the business, he made a map of Delaware Co., and Albany, and disposed of them for $5,000, which enabled him to start in the tanning business.

In 1860, he started in the leather business in New York City. This proved successful. He made money fast and began to invest in raliroads. His knowledge of conditions, and keen judgment made him so successful that in 1880, he controlled 10,000 miles of railroad.

He was the founder of the Famous Gould Fortune that today controls 18,000 miles of railroad and owns more than a billion dollars in stocks and bonds.

The rule of his early life, to which he attributed his success was that of saving at least one half of his earnings no matter how great the sacrifice.
