[For the Republican.] in es to Miss - of Lenoir Co.

Go! give thy love to all, And sigh on on every breast, Thy roving heart I'd not recall Although 'twould make me blest. . Go! gaze in others eyes, And smile on all you've won,

My heart forever sighs, I cannot love but one,-Go seek another's kiss, That seems so sweet to thee. I'd not deprive thee of one bliss

Although 'twere death to me. WALTER EXTRACT FROM AN ADDRESS

DELIVERED BY

William Hill Jordan, efore the two Literary Societies of Wake For rest College, June 10th, 1847.

The design of Education is to devel culties and discipline them to a healthy and igorous action—to enlarge the mind—to elvate the sentiments, and to fashion the whole naracter to its due shape of moral beauty, einer by imparting information directly, or by raining the faculties to those intellectual opeations by which it is acquired. It is the meunwledge. And as knowledge relates to du- strengthened by education. as well as truth, education-either by comhem, is necessary to the knowledge, and conness of man. Deprived, therefore, of edution, we must be deprived of all these bene-, which it is its design to impart. Such a vation must, of necessity, operate as an incontemplation of the uncultivated mind. wind and every grain of sand upon which scene of carnage and of blood. treads-in every cloud that floats over his great degree be sealed. Stinted, for battle of God and Truth. nt of knowledge, which is its proper food, must suffer a necessary deterioration .- blood, er such an influence, the mind must sink grovel. Or, if it contain an ethereal which will not permit it to grovel in the t, it feels at least, that it is imprisoned and ined-forbidden to walk abroad through tair fields of knowledge, or soar into the on of intellectual light and liberty. esides these advantages, of which an unated man is deprived, the want of educa--or in other words ignorance, exerts a ively vicious influence upon his charac-

he cause of this may be easily explained. enever the dominion of reason is abridged power and sway of passion are increased e faculties of the understanding are not gthened, the mind is left exposed to to the ads of delusion. Hence, uneducated perwill be found very frequently, and in a ee peculiar to themselves, to be subjected e power of prejudice; to be the devotees perstition; the subjects of a wild enthusiand the tools of faction.

w often is it seen to be the case, that one under the influence of low and vulgar rdice, becomes offended with another, out being able to assign any good reason ch a conduct. The dress of one person not please him. The manners of anothanother, with regard to what respects and be quite as agreeable to you." and manners, but the malignity of the ffence consists in this: that for no better who loves bacon, might quarrel with another who prefers beef. Thus blinded and envenomed, prejudice can see nothing that is good -nothing that is deserving-in the unfortunate victim upon whom she has fixed her jaundiced eye. His very virtues become vilignant distemper of the prejudiced mind.

ces. That which in others is a just subject of Lally, on its route up, than we have yet admiration, in him who serves only to provoke to increased ulceration and pruffency the ma-There is no hope for him. Like the unhappy victum in the hands of the inexorable inquisitor, on the 10th, 12th, 15th and 19th of August, the heritic must die. Superstition, too, is a monster that loves the with a loss, in the aggregate, of more than 80 dark. Like the nightshade, and other nox- men. Twelve were killed and several of the ious plants, it flourishes in the deep shadows wounded afterwards died. Major Lally reof the wild and uncultivated forest, where the ceived a ball on the 19th, when near Jalapa, interlocked boughs allow not the beams of through his neck. Capt Caldwell, of the heaven to penetrate. True, that Religion, in Voltigeurs, and Capt Cummings, of the 11th taking her throne in the heart, has witnessed Infantry, both from Virginia, and Captain its subjection to the supremacy of Revelation; Clark, of North Carolina, were severely but superstition will not object to the Bible, wounded, the first in the head, and the second provided the imagination may only be per- in the leg. Lieutenants Adams, of the Mamitted to mingle with its sacred truths her rine Corps, Winder and Cramer, of the new dreams and her visions. The uncultivated Regiments, were also very badly wounded. mind, too, is often charmed, more with the il- Little hopes were entertained of the recovery lusions of the imagination than with the less of Lieuts Adams and Winder. With these sons of Religion; and finds more pleasure in exceptions all the wounded were doing well abandoning itself to wander over unknown and considered out of danger. Captain G. C. and fairy land, than in being confined to the Hunter, who, as we mentioned some time sober walks of reality. The antidote to this ium, by which we come to the possession of poison is reason, purified by religion, and

The enthusiast indulges in most arbitrary unicating facts-or by elevating the mind to and unwarantable no ions concerning his dust and enlarged conceptions in relation to ty, and promises himself certain success in New York and South Carolina the course, however eccentric and wild, which equently to the practice, of duty. It is a he conceives Heaven to have prescribed his hief source of the power which one mind ex- obedience. These suggestion of a heated reises over another. It multiplies the means, mind and a distempered imagination he substitutes as the rule of his conduct, in the stitutes as the rule of his conduct, in the stitutes as the rule of his conduct, in the Regiments were commanded by Brig. Gen. ponding one towards his right flank, gaining changed front to the right by a flank move- number taken at that place 260, which, with and greatly increases the sources of our happi-place of the sure declaration of the oracles of Shields. His Report to Maj. General Pierce, ground faster than I could, owing to the hearmented the Division, for the interests who commended the Division, for the interests who commended the Division. For the interests who commended the Division for the the last that place 260, which, with vidently calculated in a very great degree, to Heaven. Unfortunate is it, for the interests who commanded the Division, (or to the companied the Division, (or to the companied the Division, (or to the companied the Division, owing to the near ment, and brought the enemy, in both their the 127 with a whole it fells under the influence positions, as they advanced from cover, under of 387. nprove the character and promote the hapof this fierce and untractabe spirit. Religion, port of the South Carolina Regiment, will be rated to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the continuate is it, it is they advanced from cover, under of 387.

Who commanded the Division, as they advanced from cover, under of 387.

I should be unjust to the officers of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the linear to the cover of the Hacienda determined to attack him upon his linear to the cover of the linear to the linear to the cover of the linear to the cover of the linear to the linea of this fierce and untractabe spirit. Religion, port of the South Carolina Regiment, will be and then retreated. Col. Butler perceiving Regiment and to my own feelings, were I to solace of life--the ornament of society-the inst., by David Johnson, Esq., Glen Springs, true source of improvement—the bond of S. C., and first published in "The Spartan," union, and the safe-guard of order. But, en- printed at Spartansburgh. These two regi-The riches of science are all locked from thusiasm, assuming her name and usurping ments suffered a greater loss in proportion to her banner, bursts asunder the bonds which their numbers than any others in the field. ture displays all her beauty and munifiture displays all her beauty and munifiture displays all her beauty and munifiture displays after the battles.

It will be observed that Gen. Shields' Report that Gen. Shields' Report that regard were raw and inexperienced; upce to eyes sealed in darkness. The won- cord; tramples under foot all laws, human is dated Aug. 24th, four days after the battles. s contained in every leaf that trembles in and divine, and triumphs in one universal He speaks of Col. Burnett as severely woun-

, and every vapor that ascends from be- be easy to see, that ignorant men, however his death. We have great hopes that we th his feet- are all hidden from the admi- good they may be, are greatly exposed to the shall soon hear that he is out of danger. on of that mind upon which ignorance has dangers of faction. For superstition and end her seal. The beauty of the rich land- thusiasm are, of themselves, two of the most pe-the blue Heavens and the deep sea- powerful elements of faction. They have onth, with all its furniture of fruit and flower ly to take a political direction, and the deed he chastened radiance and wondrous is at once effected. How great is the danger auty of the nocturnal skies-all waste their to such persons (and the more conscientious General, commanding this division, I march- into the very gates of the city. reetness and lavish their riches upon the they are, the greater frequently will the dan- ed from this place with the New York and In this terrible battle, in which a strongly Commandants, three Captains, and four Lieu- had scarcely taken his position in the line of and whose perceptions have not been form- ger be) of becoming the dupes and tools of in- South Carolina Regiments of Volunteers, to- fortified enemy fought behind his works, un- tenants. Our own loss in the action, from battle near the colors, when he received a by the hand of Taste, to a just appreciation triguing and aspiring demagogues, who seek, wards the battle field of Contreras. On reder the walls of his capital, our loss is necest the random fire of the enemy, was one Ser- wound on the left side of his head which innatural beauty and sublimity. All the by all the means which they can press into porting to the Commander-in-Chief, who oc- sarily severe; the loss, I regret to say, has geantseverely wounded, and one private slight- stantaneously terminated his life. As you eat principles of knowledge-in whatever their service, to accomplish the designs of a cupied on my arrival a position which over- fallen most severely upon my command. In ly. artment-if understood at all, are but fee- r ckless ambition! Such men, wherever they looked the field, he described to me in a few the two regiments of my own Brigade, numand indistinctly apprehended by an igno- go, are blowing the flames of discord, and words the position of the contending forces, bering about six hundred in the fight, the loss it man. The operations of his mind are belching the fires of faction-perhaps without pointed out the route of my command, and is reported 240 killed and wounded. Pierce's ide and immature. Unpractised in the just unpropriety I might say, the fires of hell - briefly instructed me as to the dispositions Brigade, under my command in this action, prived of communion with those objects, men, as a means of seducing them to the acth purify and exalt them, the affections complishment of his nefarious designs. Their the march, and joined Brig. Gen Smith in the every praise is due. Col. Burnett was severest languish and descend to degenerate asso- religion itself becomes the means of accom- village already alluded to.

Their deleterious influence, upon both the character and happiness of man, is most evi- and a large force of his Cavalry on the left. dent. Volumes would be necessery to display their full extent and malignity. We mention them now. only as a man would warn his fellow of a serpent in his path, by simply calling his name. By its tendency to arrest these evils, and to deliver the character from their malign influence, as well as to enlarge and elevate the mind-to assist the affections to rise to their proper objects-to impart energy and efficiency to human actiono refine the taste and fashion the manners, the genius of education disemprisons the spirit of Religion, and sends her forth, on strong and buoyant wing, to dispense her benefits in the world.

Choice of Evils.

quant anecdote:-

"A very fashionable lady of rank, in Paris, lately drove to the residence of a fascinating actress of the Vaudeville theatre. and endeavoffensive; and thus, without being able ored by alternate threat and persuasion to inve to his own satisfaction even, that such duce her to cease the encouragements of the s are, in these respects, less right than attention of a certain young Marquis. The or indeed, that there is anything resible in their conduct, his mind becomes mark, 'Well then, Mademoiselle, since you lered with the most virulent prejudice, must needs spread your fascinations over some difficulty in this case is—not that one per. one in my circle, will you please to let it be my nay not lawfully differ in his opinions husband? The conquest would cost me less n than such a difference, he allows him-day?" The doctor shook his head and said

Major Lally's Command.

The Lynchburg Virginian refers to a let-United States army, dated Jalapa, August 26, which gives more partiulars of the adventures of the train commanded by Major

"The train was more harrassed than any other, in consequence of the belief that it had a large amount of specie. It met the enemy ago, on the strength of an article in the Union, highly distinguished himself, was in command of all the troops-about 1200-at Ja-

REGIMENTS.

ded. Had he not been living at the date of From the foregoing considerations it will the despatch, Gen. S. would have announced

> Jour. of Com. HEADQUARTERS, 1st BRIGADE. St. Augustine, Mexico, Aug 24th, 1847.

ercise of its powers, the mind easily be- Their work is especially among the weak- which would render my force the most servi- lost a considerable number in killed and wounnes the dupe, either of its own delusions or the credulous-the conscientious. Tyrants, cable. Directing my march upon the village | ded, amongst the latter was the gallant Col. designs of others. Incapable of high re- they tell them, are grasping their liberties -- near Contreras, the troops had to pass over Morgan of the 15th. His command having ve or elevated moral sentiment, the man They will soon be slaves. The rich are tak- ground covered with rocks and crags, and fil- rejoined its division immediately after the omed to ignorance, feels nothing of those ing the government all into their own hands. led with chasms, which rendered the route action, I have as yet received no official receptions of duty which impel noble minds Their religion is in danger. They will soon almost impassable. A deep ravine, along the port of its loss. A particular and detailed acth an irresistible energy to those deeds of be subjected to tribute. They will be com- bed of which rolled a rapid stream, was pass- count of the loss, as also of the prisoners capblimest virtue which are alike the crown of pelled to build churches, and pay salaries to ed after dark with great difficulty and exer- tured by he command, accompanies this rem who performs, and a blessing to the world impostors and hypocrites. We—they antion; and to rest the wearied troops after crost port. In this last engagement my command whom they are achieved; which shed such nounce to them, are the chosen instruments of sing, I directed them to be upon their arms uncaptured 380 prisoners, including 60 officers; glory upon our common nature. The influ-ce of mind upon mind, which is so great an init no longer to the imposition. You are tion, two strong pickets, thrown out by my orement of power, can exist in but a very lim- unworthy of the name of Freemen, if you ders, discovered and fired upon and drove head was found the notorious O'Riley, who and imperfect degree, with an uneduca- tamely bow your necks to the yoke. Your back a body of Mexican Infantry, moving had fought against the troops at Monterey and man. For the mind must possess power unborn children will curse your memory if through the fields in a direction from their poelsewhere. In closing this report I beg to ofntains of rational enjoyment—of intellectutheir hands. Unsheathe your swords. Ral- that an attempt had, in like manner, been my command, for their zealous and fearless and moral pleasure must, of course, in a ly under the banner of liberty, and fight the made by the enemy to pass the position on support during the conflict. To Col. Burnett the main road, occupied by the 1st Regiment and the Lieut. Col. of the New York Volun-Often has the heartless factionist thus play- of Artillery, and with a like want of success, teers—to Lieut. Col. Dickinson and Major mind must dwindle to a dwarfish size.— ed upon the feelings of good but credulous thus being foiled in his effort to retire during Gladden of the South Carolina Volunteers, as ions. Restricted from that course of virplishing the crimes which they most abhor, Gen. Smith previous to my arrival had iment, and bearing gallantly forward the colin which a most liberal and enlarged aphension of duty would propel us the share and against which they would defend their made most judicious arrangements for turning ors of his corps. My thanks are due the hension of duty would propel us, the char-er must suffer a necessary deterioration — and against which they would defend their linear most judicious arrangements for turning ors of his corps. My thanks are defend their and surprising the Mexican position about Medical Staff of the command: Drs. Halstead enemy's Artillery and Infantry on the right,

About day-break the enemy opened a brisk obligation to Capt. R. E. Lee, as also to my fire of grape & round shot upon the church & particular staff, Capt. F. N. Page, A. A. village in which my brigade was posted, and Lieut. R. P. Hammond, 3d Artillery, A. D. also upon a part of our own troops, displayed C., and Lieut. T. Davis, of Illinois, acting as to divert him on his right and front, evidently aid, for their gallant services and fearless exunaware of the movement in progress to turn posure in encouraging the troops and conveyhis position by the left and rear, which was delivered with such terrrible effect, the whole ments. Lieut. Bone, commanding the How-Mexican force was thrown into the utmost itzer Battery, deserves great credit for the Regiment of my landsome manner in which he brought his Regiment of my command to throw them- guns into action, and continued to serve them. selves on the main road, by which the enemy I beg respectfully, through the General of must retire, to intercept & cut off his retreat; division, to ask for these gentlemen the favoraand although officers and men had suffered ble notice of the Commander-in-Chief, and to severely during the march of the night, and recommend them to the President. Lieut.

ravine, deployed on both sides of the road, and commander. Whilst thus enjoying the pleathe N. Y. Regiment brought in lower down with pride, to recollect the gallant dead. Lt.s and on the road side, delivered its fire with Adams and Williams of the S. C. Regiment, like effect. At this point many of the enemy and Lieut. Chandler, of the N. Y. Regiment were killed and wounded, and some 365 cap- are of these gallant dead. By yielding their right, already mentioned, commenced firing, gagement. The Field and Staff officers between of the the latter was Gen. Nicholas Mendosa.

position during the morning, moved down towards us in good order as if to attach a large morning and the design and the desi In the mean time the energy's cavalry about death. wards us in good order as if to attack. I immediately recalled the infantry to place in pothe hardships of the head Regiment; he line, they were to advance within either easy him, and my admiration for his very gallant sition to meet the threatening more than the combat, with his devoted Regiment; he line, they were to advance within either easy him, and my admiration for his very gallant sition to meet the threatening movement, but survived the conflict of the morning to lead musket range of the road, or to charge as he bearing during the engagement, soon the cavalry changed its direction. sooon the cavalry changed its direction, and his command; victory again awaited it, alconceive the most implacable opposition st an unoffending person. With about "What" The doctor shook his head and said retired towards the capital. I now received the shot under him, he still continued to press on- did not interfere with the formation of the shot under him, he still continued to press on- did not interfere with the formation of the shot under him, he still continued to press on- did not interfere with the formation of the shot under him, he still continued to press on- did not interfere with the formation of the shot under him, he still continued to press onist an unoffending person. With about uch justice and good feeling one man, over it?"

you must now prepare for the worst."

What," iaid the husband, "is she likely to get over it?"

words mis need and said retired towards the capital. I how received the did not interfere with the formation of the worst of the fatal ball terminated his life.

Thow received the shot under him, he still continued to press on other battation, it was permitted to continue other battation, it was permitted to continue of the fatal ball terminated his life.

As soon, however, as one or two companies of the fatal ball terminated his life.

unteers, and Capt. Taylor's Company, New the 2d and 3d divisions, already en route on heroes. the main road. On this march we were joined by the General-in-Chief, who assumed the command of the whole; and the march continued uninterrupted until we arrived before Churubusco. Here the enemy was found strongly fortified and posted with his main force, probably near 25,000. The engagement was commenced by the 2d division, un-Howitzer Battery, and ordered to gain a posi ly wounded whilst in the command of his reg-

It affords me pleasure, (and I but perform my duties too) in acknowledging my great was executed in good order and with rapidi- his native State. and fought in its ranks and tured, of whom 25 were officers, and among lives to achieve this glorious victory, they have won the soldier's fame with a soldier's tention to have made our battalion the base tains of Companies, whenever the noise of the The noble and gallant Colonel of the S. C.

The gallant soldier in his youth, has won the New York Regiment appeared marching (Signed,) J. A. SHIELDS. Brigadier General, Commanding 1st Brigade. Volunteer Division.

COL DICKINSON'S REPORT. HEAD QUARTES, S. C. Regt. Vols., SAN AUGUSTINE, Aug. 23d, 1847.

beyond the Hacienda, I discovered the road by which the enemy must retire from Churuby which the enemy must retire from Churutime, they were unable to escape beyond our they supported nearly to the suburbs of the cibusco, and found his reserve of about 4,000 in- reach until every gun in the Battalion had ty, until they were recalled. fantry occupied it, just in the rear of the town.

As my command arrived, I established the ever, had broken into an open field opposite, with his command at this place, reports to me right upon a point recommended by Captain which only the more exposed them to our fire. that soon after the battalion had left the church Lee, in whose skill and management I had Through this field in full musket range of where the prisoners were placed under his the utmost confidence, and commenced a our position, mingled groups of their cavalry charge, finding himself destitute of provisions, movement to the left, to flank the enemy on and infantry continued to pass. Shortly, how- sent a detachment of his company to forage his right, and throw my troops between him ever, we perceived large masses forming in for fruit and green corn; this detachment surand the city. But finding his right supported line of battle, under cover of the stone wall, prised a party of Mexican soldiers engaged in by a heavy body of Cavalry, some three thou- already mentioned—and that a large body the same pursuit. They killed one and cap-In the battles of the 19th and 20th ult. near sand strong and seeing that with his Infant- was advancing from the orchard, on our right tured 43, whom they brought back and deliv-Mexico, the South Carolina and New York ry he answered to my movement by a coorres- flank and rear. Col. Butler immediately ered to their Captain. This makes the total broken ranks. As we reached the road, the of cavalry, appearing in our rear. Of the en-the afternoon, pursuant to the orders of the with his Cavalry, who tollowed the routed foe _One General Officer, two Staff Officers, his leg, he accompanied the Regiment in its two Colonels, three Lieut. Colonels, four subsequent advance upon the field. Here he were placed in a Church, and the Regiment | 1 have already stated that the occasion resoon after took up its line of march on the quired of every officer, a fearless example to road to Mexico. About noon the Regiment his command, and that it was fully met by was ordered to make a detour to the left, and all. A few instances of gallantry falling acstrike upon the same road a short distance be- cidentally under my immediate notice, I will yond the enemy's works at Cheraposa, to cut | mention; not as making invidious distinctions, off their retreat, as it was reported that the but as a conduct characteristic of the whole works had been carried by our troops. On corps of officers: Maj. Gladden attracted my arriving on the field after the subsequent ac- attention by his usual regard for regularitytion, we found that the New York Regiment, disorder, however partial, seemed to give him in consequence of numbers of horsemen and concern. He was always at his post and dua small corps of the Howitzer battery having ty. Capts. Sumter and Dunovant of the flank inrruded themselves betwixt us, were some Companies, exhibited that promptness and orthree hundred yards in advance of us, and der so necessary on the flank; never once the 9th infantry attached, for the time being, did I see either corps in broken order, or beto our Brigade, nearly the same distance in hind its time, upon the line or in the advance our rear; at the proper point we proceeded the first lost its flower in that fight, and ended bre it can exert it. To such an one, the you suffer now, the chains to be fastened on sition towards the city. I have since learned fer my thanks to the many gallant officers of to form the line of battle, and as soon as the the engagement without enough to bury its two right flank companies were in line, we dead and bear its wounded to the Hospital. were ordered to advance-despatch in reach- In the deployment upon the color Company, ing the road to cut off retreat being consider- (Captain Walber's,) that and Capt. Dessaused of more importance than a regular advance, sure's, which I formed the first upon it, were Before, however, one half of the Companies nearly annihilated; the first, after the line were in line, we found the New York Regi- was formed, having but four men left, and ment retiring under cover of the hacienda, to the other, (the largest Company in the Regiour right, and as soon as our line was un- ment,) leaving but 24. I was near Captain masked by this Regiment, we found ourselves Desaussure, and saw his clothing literally rid exposed to a heavy fire from the road, which dled with bullets. He stood on the right and and surprising the Mexican position about day-break, and with which I could not wish and M'Kebbin of the New York, and Drs. as also the hacienda to the left of the cool courage that not one of his men wavered, Such are some of the evils—both of a per- to interfere. This cast upon my command Clark and Bland of the S. C. Regiment; as field we occupied, and immediately on the though the foot of each was bathed in the sonal and social character, resulting from ignorance, even when associated with piety.—

Their deleter is deleter in the necessity of holding the position evacual that necessity of holding the necessity of holding the necessity of holding the necessity of hold stated, very imperfect order, in our line of ing, of Company F, and Lieut. Wm. C. Mobattle, was obtained; and as that appared ragne, commanding Company D, bore their now indispensable, we were ordered to march | Companies' flags on the right flanks of their by the right flank, as we reached the left Companies during the heaviest of the fire ;flank of the New York Regiment. As the the latter received his from the dying hands Hacienda did not possess sufficient breadth to of his gallant subaltern, Lieut. D. L. Adams, the obstrusion of miscellaneous troops belong- Blanding, of the Staff. being dismounted, and ing to different arms of the service; this was the command small, attached himself to the incessant rain until day-break, this movement attached himself to the Paimetto Regiment of attached himself to the Paimetto Regiment of ed. The line continued to the was order.

As the firing had already commenced, and

York Volunteers' in charge of the prisoners in his death upon the field of battle, fame up the right, the order was given to charge, and wounded, I moved off with the remain- for himself and his Regiment, and added an-The Lynchburg Virginian releas to a and wounded, I moved off with the remainter in its posession from an officer in the der of my forces, and joined the positions of other name to the roll of Carolina's departed by Maj. Gladden, then in command of the Regiment. The Colonel had been killed directly after our fire had been opened, and the Lieut. Colonel severely wounded a few minutes before the charge. Our line of battle numbered, at the commencement, 3 field officers, 2 staff officers, 7 Captains, 24 Lieutenants, 22 Sergeants, 273 rank and file; after the battle, the number who were unwounded, on the 10th, 12th, 15th and 15th and 15th and 15th and 15th and cut its way through in every instance, and cut its way through in every instance, and cut its way through in every instance, der Twiggs, soon joined by the 1st, under 20th inst., Col. Butler, in pursuance of your tains, 18 Lieutenants, 12 Sergeants, 169 rank General-Early on the morning of the for duty, was I field officer, (Major.) 4 Cap-Worth, and was becoming general when I orders, marched his command from the road and file. The total of our loss in the engagewas directed by the Commander-in-Chief with running to the South of his quarters, by which ment in killed and wounded, was 136. The my two Regiments, and Pierce's Brigade, the it was reported many Mexicans were retreat-9th and 12th and 19th, with the mounted ing from the field of Contreras to the city of position of the enemy, he found that they had Mexico. Owing to the thick patches of ma- abandoned it and were in full retreat for the tion if possible to attack the enemy's rear and guey & a rugged ravine, he could not reach city; several companies were in pursuit and his position until several hundred of the ene- the others formed as a reserve in the road -Leaving Loonco, by a left hand road and my had passed. As the Regiment emerged by the Canaral but in consequence of the moving about a mile upon it, I moved thence from the ravine into a field, extending to the by the General, but in consequence of the with my command towards the right through a heavy corn-field, and gained an open but swampy field, in which is situated the Haciand de les Berteles; on the above field, gald.

Irem the ravine into a field, extending to the road and ento him, the battalion was soon ordered back closing an orchard.) we discovered large to the hacienda, now converted into a hospital. The three companies sent in pursuit enda de las Portales; on the edge of this field masses of the enemy in the road before us; tal. The three companies sent in pursuit that others of the enemy were passing through close this report without acknowledging the I selected the Palmetto Regiment as the the field, in our front, left a few files to guard | gallant manner in which all the grades of ofbase of my line, and this gallant Regiment our rear-formed again on the road, and ficers performed their duty, and sustained the moved forward firmly and rapidly, under a maintained a steady fire upon the enemy, honor of their flag. Until the engagement of fire of musketry as terrible perhaps as any who continued to pass for about twenty-min- the evening, our Regiment had been in no which saldiers ever faced. The New York utes-large bodies of Mexicans then came very dangerous position, and the troops in and the 9th on the left, and the whole advance Butler, who, seeing other bodies still coming, on that occasion each officer had to lead his opening their fire as they came up, and mo- remained upon the road with three compan- command, and their number in killed and ving steadily forward, the enemy began to ies, while the rest of the Regiment, in pursu- wounded show how faithfully they met the waver, and when my order to charge was gi- ance of an order from the General, retired be- necessity. Our noble and unfortunate comven, the men rushed upon and scattered his youd the ravine to appose a very large body mander had his horse shot under him, at the advance of Worth's command appeared, dri- emy one hundred and twenty-seven were gagement; a short time after, he received a ving the enemy from the strong hold of Chu- killed and wounded, and two hundred and wound in the leg, and yielded the command rubusco. I took command of the front and seventeen taken prisoners. Among the latto his next in rank. Finding, however, that Sir—On the 19th inst., about 3 o'clock in continued in pursuit until passed by Harney ter were the following officers of rank, to wit: the wound, although serious, had not broken witnessed yourself, his gallant bearer, I will Capt. Marshall with his Company, (E) only add that he was not only a brave officer, was left as a guard over the prisoners, who but a guardian father to his Regiment.

protect the flanks in forming line of hattle in who fell with it in his hands; and the former its rear, the Battalion was ordered to form by from his color Sergeant (Hicks,) who also fell Companies, and to march in column to the wounded. Capt Moffat, of Company C, reline, in advance of the Hacienda, and a little ceived a severe wound in the leg, but remainto the left, upon which the General in person ed on duty till a rapid advance left him behad placed himself; there they were ordered hind. Lieut. J R. Clark, commanding Comto deploy upon the Color Company. The pany G, was attracting my attention by giv-Companies of the left wing formed in regular ing some orders in his usual quiet and temorder, but some Companies of the right perate manner, when he received what I fear wing were thrown into confused masses by will prove, a mortal wound. Capt. J. D. The Home Journal relates the following pi ty. The Palmetto Regiment crossing a deep is spoken of handsomely in the report of its General, about 150 yards, when they were James Canty, in the latter part of the action, opened a most destructive fire upon the mirg sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of bestowing my commendation upon the led masses of the infenter and sure of best and sure led masses of the infantry and cavalry, and living, I turn with feelings of sorrow, though but directly they halted the Control to the Deiscole Staff position in line of battle, and at this time the having lost his horse, attached himself to Comsquad of mixed troops upon our extreme pany E, where he did duty throughout the en-

> Very respectfully yours, &c., J. P. DICKINSON, Lieut. Com'dg So. Ca. Regiment, To Brig. General SHIELDS, Com'dg Brig. Vol. Division.

and the battalion supposing the order given, ing all dismounted, Capt. Hammond of the opened its fire. It was understood by the Brigade Staff, at my request, communicated field efficers to have been the General's in-