which have been used to land stores for the Turkish army and forward them to the front. The capture of these towns, not to mention the loss of the stores, places a serious difficulty in the path of Edhem Pasia. It is stated here that as soon as the Turkish commander-inchief heard of the news of the capture of Platamona and Katrina he dispatched 10,000 men to guard the coast of Macedonia, fearing a shank attack from the gulf of Salonica. The greek fleet in returning from the capture of Katrina, bombarded the port of Litchori.

A number of Greeks who were wounded at Gribovali and unable to follow the Greek retreat were shut up in a small church by the Turks, who set fire to the building and burned them to death. It is also reported that the Turkish troops will be withdrawn from Crete.
