Railroad Accident.

On last Friday at Greenlee's siding what might have been a very serious accident was prevented by the coolness and skill of engineer T. L. Fisher on the local freight. The latter's frain was going west and had the right of way. A through freight was to meet him there, going east, which fact ruled the through freight to take the siding. Engineer Fisher had stopped on the main line, according to orders, some ten or clow fever scare. The seat of twelve car lengths from the western end of the switch, in order that the east bound freight might have abundant room to go in on the sidetrack, and permit the local freight to proceed west. While the latter train was waiting the through freight hove in sight and The usual large crowd was the siding came rushing down the on circus day. Efforts were made to induce the oncoming train Find specimens of the Asian and to see the error it was making but too late to prevent a collision. Engineer Fisher had uncoupled from his train and seeing the crash would be greater on this account backed to his train, reversing his engine and remaining in his place to prevent his reversed engine from rushing the train back towards Marion where another Saniday night. November 6th, of his train. The engineer, Mr. slatewd, southern, homely, Beach, of the through freight, had practical, common sense reversed his engine and jumped, but it struck the receding local freight hard enough to break off the "cow catchers" of each engine and do some other small damage. On the rebound the engines came together a second time. Each engine was able to pull its train away afterwards. The local freight was run back some 300 feet. The few passengers on the local were

The negro boy Boyce, who so severely cut Mr. Mitchell some weeks ago and escaped, was caught in Asheville last week and brought here and taken before Magistrate O. H. Blocker. He was bound over to court in the sum of $200, and not being able to make the bond satisfactory to the magis trate, was sent to jail at Marion. The boy's brother later obtained a bond considered good and brought the boy home. The action of Justice Blocker in requiring an abso lutely good bond is in the line adopted by Judge Powell of the United States Court, and is greatly commended by all thinking men. It is said that the bond was made at Marion by the brother, John Boyce, giving a mortgage on his
