

The Messenger Prints the News and is sought after by the people of the South and other countries in Western North Carolina, and is there-fore a Good Advertising Medium. Rates furnished on application. Address: THE MESSENGER, Marion, N. C.

The Messenger

VOL. II. NO. 32. MARION, N. C., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1897. Price $1 Per Year, in Advance.

SEND ORDERS FOR JOB PRINTING TO THE MESSENGER, MARION, N. C. Promptness, Accuracy, Neatness and Good Book Guaranteed. Letter Heads, Note Heads, Bill Heads, Envelopes, Circulars, Cards, Posters, Pamphlets, and any kind of Printing.

LYNCHING PLATFORM.

Blackburn Makes It An Issue and Declares It WAS RIGHT IN THE SIXTIES.

As a historic dispatch says, the announcement of Benjamin M. Blackburn, editor of the Daily Commercial, of his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Congress to succeed C. L. Livingston, from the At- tainville district, brings out a new platform. After deluging himself in favor of the extreme interpretation of the lynch law, he holds his position as a Democrat having been elected in 1892, and I favor a great many things that I believe to be a good thing for the people. I believe that we should not be found in the lynch law. I believe that we should not be found in the lynch law. I believe that we should not be found in the lynch law.

PREACHERS AND MUSTACHES.

Different Effects of Beard Upon the Voice Described by a Specialist.

The Church Economist has been discussing the effect of a beard on the voice, and in a recent issue it quotes the following: "The effect will depend largely upon the individual. If the speaker has naturally a thick voice which he uses fully, a small amount of obstruction will make itself apparent. If he has a clear, penetrating voice, the effect of a moderate amount of obstruction may not be noticeable, although it would certainly exert some influence, greater or less, upon the carrying power and resonance of the tone. A mustache will interfere in proportion to the amount of space upon which it encroaches in the neighborhood of the mouth, or the nostrils. Thus, a mustache trimmed to the margin of the upper lip, or one rolled from the middle of the lip so as to be free of the margin of the lip, however long it might be at the ends, would not interfere. A drooping mustache, on the other hand, especially where it covers the middle of the mouth, is a great hindrance to the proper emission of sound. The presence of but a few hairs in this situation may materially modify the tone waves and impair their effect. "Anything better calculated to deflect the object of the speaker than a mustache would be a drooping mustache with the head bent downward, or a mustache that would hang over the mouth of the speaker. This is an admirable example for the minister to follow. When he sings he should have a mustache that would hang over his mouth, and his voice would say 'his lovely little mustache.' " "Strictly common sense should be the leading rule for a public speaker in this and other matters. One has little tolerance for the man, your neighbor at dinner, who addresses you with head bent over his plate, as if in conversation with his food. A minister who bends over his desk and addresses the floor should stand no better in the estimation of his hearers."

DESIGN FOR ARMOR PLATE PLANT.

The special navy board appointed to examine into the feasibility of constructing a plant for armor plate, details of which will be presented to Congress. It will cost more than three million dollars and will have a capacity of 6,000 tons of armor plate annually, which is about the estimated capacity of the two armor plate plants now supplying the navy.

THE MESSAGE COMPLETE.

The cabinet held a very short meeting last week. It took no matters from several of the departments. President McKinley informed the cabinet that his message was practically completed. He did not read any of it. It will probably be considered at the next meeting.

BAPTISTS CONDEMN FOOTBALL.

The Virginia Baptist Association, in session at Roanoke, recently resolved unanimously that the body recommending the formation of football from the sports of the school.

PEARLS OF THOUGHT.

When you say "I don't care," try to see that your tone of voice doesn't indicate that you do.

TRADE REPORT.

Some Cotton Planters Compelled to Sell at Loss to Meet Advances Made.

Bradstreet's commercial report for the past week says: There is a moderate improvement in staple prices, and in distribution of woolen goods, shirtings, hats and handkerchiefs in the region tributary to Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha. In South Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and Louisiana business is delayed by yellow fever quarantine. There is a moderate revival of demand from interior merchants, which report some of the business delayed by yellow fever quarantine. Trade reports from Georgia and Texas are quite irregular.

TRADE REPORT.

Some Cotton Planters Compelled to Sell at Loss to Meet Advances Made.

Bradstreet's commercial report for the past week says: There is a moderate improvement in staple prices, and in distribution of woolen goods, shirtings, hats and handkerchiefs in the region tributary to Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha. In South Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and Louisiana business is delayed by yellow fever quarantine. There is a moderate revival of demand from interior merchants, which report some of the business delayed by yellow fever quarantine. Trade reports from Georgia and Texas are quite irregular.

TRADE REPORT.

Some Cotton Planters Compelled to Sell at Loss to Meet Advances Made.

Bradstreet's commercial report for the past week says: There is a moderate improvement in staple prices, and in distribution of woolen goods, shirtings, hats and handkerchiefs in the region tributary to Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha. In South Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and Louisiana business is delayed by yellow fever quarantine. There is a moderate revival of demand from interior merchants, which report some of the business delayed by yellow fever quarantine. Trade reports from Georgia and Texas are quite irregular.

TRADE REPORT.

Some Cotton Planters Compelled to Sell at Loss to Meet Advances Made.

Bradstreet's commercial report for the past week says: There is a moderate improvement in staple prices, and in distribution of woolen goods, shirtings, hats and handkerchiefs in the region tributary to Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha. In South Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and Louisiana business is delayed by yellow fever quarantine. There is a moderate revival of demand from interior merchants, which report some of the business delayed by yellow fever quarantine. Trade reports from Georgia and Texas are quite irregular.

TRADE REPORT.

Some Cotton Planters Compelled to Sell at Loss to Meet Advances Made.

Bradstreet's commercial report for the past week says: There is a moderate improvement in staple prices, and in distribution of woolen goods, shirtings, hats and handkerchiefs in the region tributary to Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha. In South Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia and Louisiana business is delayed by yellow fever quarantine. There is a moderate revival of demand from interior merchants, which report some of the business delayed by yellow fever quarantine. Trade reports from Georgia and Texas are quite irregular.

TOLD IN A PARAGRAPH.

The South.

Three men were killed in a boiler explosion at Louisville, Miss.

David Gaston Worth, of the firm of Worth & Gaston, Wilmington, N. C., is dead.

Governor Ellerbe, of South Carolina, announces that he is a candidate for reelection.

C. Henry Oliver, 40 years old, of Norfolk, Va., shot and killed himself at his home.

A murder case, a light occurred at a party in which one man was killed and another wounded.

Ex-Governor Evans, of South Carolina, is to be married Dec. 15th to Miss Plume, of Connecticut.

During a fight among negroes while loading at Potosing, S. C., three were killed and two wounded.

North Carolina has eighty-six roller flouring mills, and a large majority of them are operated by water power.

Quarantine beds in the suburbs of New Orleans, La., have caused the partial abandonment of a large section.

The office of the internal revenue collector for the second district of Virginia has been moved from Richmond to Petersburg.

A handsome silver service was presented to the gunboat Nashville at the Norfolk navy yard by citizens of Nashville, Tenn.

The University of Virginia defeated the University of North Carolina, at Richmond, on Thanksgiving day, in a game of football, 12 to 0.

The State newspaper at Richmond, Va., was gone into a receiver's hands. The management hopes the suspension will be temporary.

Alexander, near Asheville, N. C., an attempt was made to wreck the automobile freight, but was detected just in time to prevent its success.

Governor Atkinson, of West Virginia, has ordered a loss of $100,000 in requisitions will be issued for any fugitives from the jurisdiction of the State's officials.

In Portsmouth, Va., Quong Tung, a Chinese laundryman, was assaulted in his shop and beaten to death with a club. A negro has been arrested on suspicion.

The receivers of the failed Western Carolina Bank, of Asheville, N. C., have a loss of $100,000, and in excess of liabilities, $29,532.63.

At Rockville church, in Webster county, Ky., Toy Allen, a young man, was arrested on suspicion of having committed a crime.

S. H. Fishplate, of Wilmington, N. C., has assigned. The assets estimated at $25,000, are said to exceed the liabilities. Preferences amount to $12,000 and $12,000.

A barrel of alcohol turned over on a lantern in the warehouse of the Ravenswood Distilling Company, St. Louis, Mo., has been destroyed, with insurance of about 75 per cent.

Henry Oliver, aged about 40 years, committed suicide at Richmond, Va., by placing a gun under his chin, blowing his head off. An Atlanta, Ga., man has been indicted for the murder of a woman.

Wilmington, N. C., has just organized a paid fire department modeled after that of Atlanta, which is one of the best in the South.

The National Evangelical Union will meet next year in Detroit, Mich.

The second trial of the alleged wife murderer, Luettgen, is now in progress at Chicago.

The Warwick Cycle Manufacturing Company, at Springfield, Mass., has been attached for $150,000.

John Denmark, a farmer, was killed by an assassin, who shot through a window, near Van Etan, N. Y.

During the forty hours devotion at the Centennial, at Danville, Va., Mrs. Michael Brazil recovered her sight after two years of blindness.

At Cincinnati, O., Capt. William P. Anderson died suddenly of heart failure. He was a leader of the Union League.

The Indiana Supreme Court has ruled that prosecuting attorneys may sue for wives and minor children and recover money lost in gambling.

The unknown man who committed suicide at Springfield, Mass., a fortnight ago, has been identified by the number of his watch, as H. S. Bains, of Buffalo, N. Y.

At Baltimore, on account of a motor-man disobeying orders, two electric cars collided, which resulted in killing two motormen and injuring several other persons.

At Hollydaysburg, Pa., two men are sentenced to hang for murder; a man in the Baltimore penitentiary, just before his suicide said he had committed the murder.

At Cleveland, Ohio, J. J. Shipperd has been arrested on a charge of embezzling nearly $200,000. E. D. Robinson, a receiver has been appointed for his firm, which is alleged to be insolvent and owing $2,000,000.

Miscellaneous.

Kentucky distillers have abandoned their plans to form a trust.

Dr. Thos. W. Evans, the famous American dentist, who died in Paris, left most of his fortune to charitable institutions, which is estimated at $15,000,000.

The Marine Hospital service, in the yellow fever districts, has closed its work and the fever is officially ended.

Liverpool will expend $2,500,000, and Bristol, England, $1,500,000, on dock and harbor improvements.

Earthquakes in the mountainous districts of Saxony Thuringia have seriously damaged the famous railroad viaduct of the Goethel valley.

Americanized and native-born Chinese will appeal to Congress for the right of suffrage and the repeal of the Geary anti-Chinese law.

The cost of the military operations of England is already estimated at $2,500,000,000 ($2,500,000,000) and these amounts will probably be doubled.

Dr. Deibel Quinn, at the head of the Greek Department of the Catholic University at Washington, and one of the most eminent Greek scholars in this country, has tendered his resignation.

The quarantine restrictions having been removed on account of the subsidence of the yellow fever, the Southern Railway has renewed the United States fast mail train service from Washington to New Orleans and the South, via Atlanta and Montgomery.

THE LEASE CASE AT COLUMBIA.

It Came Up On Questions of Contempt and Was Removed to Special Master Craige.

The North Carolina lease case was before Judge Simonton at Columbia, S. C., on the 29th. The proceedings were held upon the certifications of a number of witnesses to testify at the hearings had before him. A brief by Hon. C. Avery, Capt. W. H. Day and Col. Philip W. Axtell appeared for the Governor and the North Carolina Railroad and ex-Secretary John G. Carlisle and Mr. F. H. Busbee for the Southern Railway Company.

After a prolonged and bitter argument by Col. Axtell in favor of ordering the case to be removed to a special master, Judge Simonton held that it was impossible for him to pass upon the questions of contempt and competency unless the records of the whole case were before him. He thereupon ordered the case to be remanded to Mr. Craige, who will now hear the evidence of the Southern Railway, after which the parties changing front will be allowed to offer further evidence, and Judge Simonton will then hear the case. The defendants, Russell and others, claim this as a victory, and the case was before the people also reported as very well satisfied.

AN OUTRAGEOUS MURDER.

A Negro Arrested for Stealing a Mule Shot to Death by a Mob.

Jerry Johnson, a negro, was lynch by a mob near Sevier, Ga. He was in charge of officers and was being taken to jail at Jessup. A crowd of men rode in to the officers and demanded the prisoner. The negro was riddled with bullets. Johnson had been arrested for stealing a mule.

TOUGALOO UNIVERSITY BURNED.

A Negro College in Mississippi Destroyed by Fire.

Fire broke out in the dormitory of the Tougaloo Negro University at Tougaloo, Miss., and despite the heroic efforts of the students, the building was quickly burned to the ground. The fire was first discovered in the third story and it is supposed to have originated from a defective flue. Fortunately the students were all at prayer meeting, so no one was injured. Forty three students and six teachers lost their entire personal effects. The loss is estimated at $25,000. The amount of insurance is not known, as they were all placed from the office of the Missionary Association, in New York.

BRVAN IN POLITICS FOR LIFE.

Whether He Shall Again Run for Office is Unknown.

William Jennings Bryan intends to remain in politics until he dies. So long ago it was reported that Mr. Bryan was about to retire. Congressman Gaines, of Tennessee, heard the story and wrote Mr. Bryan about it. Mr. Bryan replied: "The newspaper item is not true. I expect to remain in politics all my life. Whether I shall ever run for office again, depends on circumstances."

FELL 105 FEET AND LIVES.

Is Only a Little Hurt—A Painter's Experience at Reidsville.

The Edna Cotton Mills, of Reidsville, N. C., is having its 125-foot smoke stack repaired by a young man named Cole, a professional stack painter of Greensboro. While engaged in this work Cole lost his hold, near the top of the stack, and fell a distance of 105 feet to the roof of the boiler room. There were no bones broken and he seems to be only a little hurt, saying he will get out and finish the work.

CONVICTED OF CRIMINAL ASSAULT.

Frank, alias Dal Meane, has been convicted at Newport, Ky., of criminally assaulting Mrs. Wm. Gleason, October 16th, and sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary. Gleason and Green have previously received the same sentence for the same offense, and all will, no doubt, receive twenty years each. The defendants belong to a gang of professional thieves, and the lynchings were averted only by the transfer of the prisoners to Maysville, Ky.

RESPIRE FOR JOHN EVANS.

Governor Russell Was Urged by Many and Council of State Advised It.

A special from Raleigh, N. C., says the council of State met on the evening of the 24th to consider what should be done regarding John Evans, colored, who was convicted at Rockingham a few days ago for rape. All the petitions and affidavits were laid before the council by the Governor and there was discussion. As a result of the conference the Governor resipitd Evans on Jan. 26.

The Governor gives the following reasons for resipitd Evans: "The case demands serious and thoughtful investigation. Out of four other like cases that have occurred in this State during the year, one of the culprits escaped before arrest, two were lynch by a mob, and one by a mob. In the two courts there was no reasonable doubt of guilt and the probabilities are that the mob was completely proven by the evidence, and the perpetrator ought to suffer death. There were excellent men on the jury, but no jury can expect to deliberate and coolly weigh evidence influenced by the spirit of the mob. It is possible that a jury of the character in a different community would have rendered a different verdict upon this same evidence, and it remains to be seen whether the jurors in this case may not change their opinion upon mature consideration, under quiet circumstances. Evidence directly material to the prisoner's guilt has been produced since the trial. It is urged that the identification of the prisoner was incomplete and unsatisfactory; that the mob was completely proven by the witnesses of both races, and that the admitted facts of the case strongly indicated that the perpetrator of the crime was familiar with the habits of the prisoner in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been there once in a while for a year and hence it is most unlikely that he should have known the precincts by heart. With her knowledge, as to the truth of these allegations, no opinion is expressed, but they come from sources so worthy of consideration as to demand time for close scrutiny, and thoughtful investigation. It is urged that there is a sentiment to the effect that aside from the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, it would be best for the county that the sentence of the court be at once executed. This sentence cannot be prevailing among just Christian people, except as a result of the conviction of the perpetrator of the crime by a post-mortem of this execution. The executive is sustained by the Council of State in walking along the certain path, and at that certain hour when the crime was committed, that the prisoner could not have known these things, because he was virtually a stranger in town; that he had been