

SEND ORDERS FOR JOB PRINTING
TO
THE MESSENGER,
Marion, N. C.
Promptness, Accuracy, Neatness
and Good Stock Guaranteed.
Letter Heads, Note Heads, Bill Heads,
Envelopes, Circulars, Cards, Posters, Pamphlets, and any Kind of Printing.

VOL. II. NO. 16

The Messenger.

MARION, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1898.

$1 Per Year in Advance.

The Messenger
Prints the News
and is sought after by the people of McDowell, Yancey, Buncombe, Rutherford, Burke and other counties in Western North Carolina, and is therefor a good advertising medium. Rates furnished on application. Address, THE MESSENGER, Marion, N. C.

STICK BY SPANIARDS.

The Americans Stood Their Ground Under a Withering Fire Without Flinching.

THE BATTLE WAS FOUGHT IN A RAGING TYPHOON.

During Lighting Flashes the Dead and Wounded Could Be Seen Lying in Blood-Red Water. Utah Battery Paured in a Destructive Erupling Fire. Spanish Scouts Were Seen Carrying Off their Dead and Wounded.

ADVISERS just received from Manila show that a severe engagement took place on July 1st, between the Spaniards and Americans near Manila. The latter were victorious, but had them killed and wounded.

A New York World cable dispatch from Manila gives the following particulars of the fighting near Malate on the night of July 1st. General Greene's force, numbering 1,000 men, had been advancing and retreating. The arrival of the third division filled the Spaniards with rage, and they determined to give battle before Camp Dew could be surrounded. The trenches extended from the beach and yards, to the left bank of the Tagus river. Sunday was the most violent day, and then left bank withdrew, leaving the Tagus right bank exposed. Companies A and E, of the Penn Yan, and Utah Battery, were ordered to reinforce the right bank.

In the midst of a raging typhoon, with a tremendous downpour of rain, the enemy's forces, estimated at 3,000 men, attempted to surprise the camp. The pickets were driven in and the trenches assaulted. The brave Penn Yan had never flinched, but stood their ground under a withering fire. The alarm spread, and the First California Regiment, with two companies of the Third Artillery, who fight with rifles, were sent up to reinforce the Pennsylvania men. The enemy were on top of the trenches when these reinforcements arrived. Our men ran up to the attacking Spaniards and mowed them down with regular volleys.

The Utah Battery, under Capt. Young, covered itself with glory. The men piled their guns through and across. Two guns were sent around in front and pointed in a destructive effect. The enemy was repulsed and retreated in disorder. Our infantry had exchanged its ammunition and did not follow the enemy.

Not an inch of ground was lost, but the scenes of the battles were some never to forget. During the lightning flashes the dead and wounded could be seen lying in blood-red water, but neither the elements of heaven nor the destructive power of man could wring a cry of protest from the wounded. They encouraged their comrades to fight, and handed over their cartridge belts. During the fight the Spanish scouts were seen carrying off the dead and wounded of the enemy.

The Spanish American Revolution. Advises received from Cozumel, Guatemala, Washington show that the revolutionary movement there has assumed a phase, which will not jeopardize the existing government, promises to involve foreign residents in great difficulty. The insurgents, under Morales, are believed to have received considerable support from the Mexican on the frontier, who are said to be charged, at least, with failing to serve neutrality. Some of the former residents already have suffered heavy taxation of money under forced levies by the insurgents, and it may be that strong representations on the subject will be required by the United States.

Further Update of the Tex-Tex War. Madrid, Spain. (By Cable.)—It is said that inasmuch as the American reply received from Sagasta will nominate peace commissioners, El Liberal says to the government receives also from England to mediate. The offer was favorably regarded, but was not accepted. El Liberal says further: "The presence of a large British squadron near Gibraltar is clear evidence of an understanding, if not an alliance, between England and the United States."

Accepted at Referendum. Madrid, Spain. (By Cable.)—The Liberal says: "The government accepts the United States' conditions of referendum, believing that it is not authorized to cede territory without the vote of the Cortes. If McKinley objects, the Cortes will be convened."

A Mob Under Fire. It was tried to rescue three members of the regular army, members of the Third Division, at San Juan, P. I., recently. A naval guard ordered them to leave, but the mob made fire on the gunners. A volley was pointed into the room of the upper story of the building, and several rounds were carried away by the gunners, and the raid was given up.

The national meet of the League of American Wheelmen met in Indianapolis recently.

Alaska. Alaska Party List. After received by the Alaska Committee, at San Francisco, on August 10th, says: "The meeting received here is to the effect that an entire party of 12 persons, including themselves, they claim, the Alaskan Company, together with G. Weber, a Moravian minister, his wife and two native sons, reside in the Mississippi river, have been captured by the American Indians, and are now in the hands of the Spaniards. The Alaskan Company, together with G. Weber, a Moravian minister, his wife and two native sons, reside in the Mississippi river, have been captured by the American Indians, and are now in the hands of the Spaniards. The Alaskan Company, together with G. Weber, a Moravian minister, his wife and two native sons, reside in the Mississippi river, have been captured by the American Indians, and are now in the hands of the Spaniards. The Alaskan Company, together with G. Weber, a Moravian minister, his wife and two native sons, reside in the Mississippi river, have been captured by the American Indians, and are now in the hands of the Spaniards. The Alaskan Company, together with G. Weber, a Moravian minister, his wife and two native sons, reside in the Mississippi river, have been captured by the American Indians, and are now in the hands of the Spaniards. The Alaskan Company, together with G. Weber, a Moravian minister, his wife and two native sons, reside in the Mississippi river, have

WAR NEWS EPITOMIZED.

News of interest briefly told for the hurried Reader.

The monitor Monterey has arrived at Manila.

All of the American troops in Porto Rico are in motion toward San Juan.

Two soldiers were instantly killed by lightning during a storm at Miami, Fla.

The Third Regiment of Mississippi Volunteers, Col. Banks in command, has been mustered in.

The Spanish hospital ship Alicante, with 800 of the Spanish prisoners at Santiago, has sailed for Spain.

The United States torpedo boat DuPont, in command of Lieut. Spencer, has arrived at the navy yard in Brooklyn.

The protest of Senator Bacon, of Georgia, against sending Col. Ray's immunes to Santiago is deprecated by the latter.

Two battalions of the Fifth Regiment, United States Volunteers (immunes), landed on the transport Rio Grande for Santiago.

The Eleventh and Nineteenth Regular Infantry Regiments and Troop B, of the Second Cavalry, have disembarked at Ponce.

The transports Miami, Matanzas and Virginia, loaded with United States troops, have sailed from Santiago, Cuba, on the 2nd of the month.

Despatches from the front announce the occupation of Gibara, on the north coast of the province of Santiago de Cuba by Gen. Garcia's troops.

Colonel Ulrici, commanding the Fifth Illinois Regiment, on board transport Cuban at Newport News, Va., has received orders to disband his men.

The transports Miami, Matanzas and Virginia, loaded with United States troops, have sailed from Santiago, Cuba, on the 2nd of the month.

As evidence of the fact that Great Britain appreciates the gravity of the situation the Associated Press learns that the admiralty is preparing for all emergencies, and that it will soon be ready to mobilize the entire fleet at the shortest notice. Every officer and man on furlough or on half pay has been assigned to a ship and instructed to be in readiness to join at the earliest moment. Therefore, practically every ship in the British navy, whether in or out of commission at the present moment has its full complement of officers and men ready to take her out to sea when the time arrives.

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon as the war is ended it will be obligatory upon me to return immediately to Spain, to account for my conduct, which must be judged as provided for by the law. Nevertheless, I shall not fail to carry through all my life the remembrance of such brave officers as Lieutenant Hobson and Will A. Foote, another guard. The life was passed and both shot and killed Hobson."

Admiral Cervera's reply.

Admiral Cervera in reply to an invitation from the citizens of Greensboro, Ala., Lieut. Hobson's home, to visit that city, said: "I would be greatly gratified to me to accept your invitation to visit Greensboro, where we both know the late Lieut. Richmond Pearson Hobson, but it will be impossible for me to do so, for as soon