LOCAL GLEANINGS.

The corn crops all over county are reported good.

—Important communications crowded out this week.

—Dr and Mrs. Landrum spent last Sunday at Old Fort.

—Roid, Taylor, of Asheville, is in town again this week.

—The heaviest rain during the season fell Tuesday morning.

—Mr. Sam M. McDowell, of Morganton, was in town Tuesday.

—Ed. Gilkey, of Asheville, is visiting his father, Mr. A. R. Gilkey.

—There was a wreck on the R. & D. near Alexander station Tuesday.

—It is reported that ex-Sheriff Neat will be deputy collector, if Mr. Burgin resigns.

—Mr. Greenwood, of Asheville, is over looking after some interests with L. L. McKay.

—Mrs. L. L. McKay and Miss Sollars are visiting friends and relatives in Asheville this week.

—Mr. James P. Morris, of Rutherford county, is in town visiting his uncle, Mayor Morris.

—The Confederate soldiers' reunion will take place today at Morganton, and last till Saturday.

—Mr. Frank Hubbard, of Lynchburg, who has been here on a visit to relatives, has returned home.

—Mrs. J. C. Brown, who has been a great sufferer for years, was able this week to visit friends up town.

—Mrs. Geo. E. Lee and children spent a few days in Old Fort this week visiting relatives and friends.

—Eck Kirkland, of Old Fort, was in town Monday. He is an independent candidate for Register of Deeds.

—Mrs. W. F. Craig, who has been ill, has about recovered, but Mr. Craig is still suffering from the injury he received.

—Mrs. D. O. Doggett, of Forest City, and Mrs. Sarah Doggett, of Gaffney City, S. C., are visiting at Rev. T. J. Rogers'.

—Mr. J. G. Grant spent a few days this week at his old home in the country, fishing, hunting and enjoying himself generally.

—Oliver Turner and Mrs. Ann Poter were married Tuesday evening at the bride's residence, Esq. Thomas Flemming officiating.

—Col. J. P. Morphew, Supt., visited the public school on Buck Creek, being brought by Sewell Brown, and reports the school in a flourishing condition.

—Mrs. E. A. Thomas will receive pupils in music. Special attention will be given to scales and technique. Terms, $1.00 per month, two lessons per week.

—Mr. Thomas Meid and wife left last Sunday for Philadelphia, New York and other cities, where Mr. Meid will select and purchase a large stock of goods.

—Don't forget the primary election. Watch the date and let all Democrats go to the polls, and place in the field a strong ticket of good Democrats, Sept. 19th is the day.

—See the card of Dr. Geo. I. White, who locates in Marion for the practice of medicine. He comes highly recommended as a physician and man, and we wish him success.

—A gentleman recently asked little Fay Morgan the four-year-old daughter of Mr. J. L. Morgan, what they asked her at Sunday school? "Ask me for pennies," was her quick reply.

—Geo. Turnbill raised the Record a sweet potato showed by Mrs. Phillip Anthony, of Burke, which is a daisy. It isn't quite as large as Eli Leonard's turtle, but it would feed a family several days.

—All the hotels had a good run during court. The Nichols House still has a few of its guests left, some of whom have never seen the capitol, and are thinking of taking a trip to Raleigh with Sheriff Gardin.

—Charlie McAllister, who has been to Baltimore Dr. Chisholm's Institute, to have his eyes treated, has returned home. The physicians could not do anything to help him see. He is a blind man. His wife accompanied him.

—E. A. Thomas sent Governor Tillman a present of a box of rattlesnakes last week. It is said one of them bit a Tillman spy who opened the box, and the snake died in 15 minutes afterward, from hydrophobia. The spy was not hurt.

—Capt. J. P. Norton showed us a fine watermelon Tuesday which weighed 57 pounds. It was one of a number raised by one of our farmers from a patch of pure Democratic watermelons sent him by Congresswoman C. Ward from Washington. Another farmer says he planted his patch with seed bought at the Third party store and they have never come up yet.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

—Rev. James Morris, a colored Baptist preacher, has had the misfortune to lose two daughters recently. One had been sick, and on last Thursday, at her request, they concluded to take her out to the creek and baptize her by immersion. The result was she died Sunday.

—In this issue appears the announcement of Mr. Wm. McCurry, as a candidate for Register of Deeds, subject to the Democratic primary election Sept. 19th. Mr. McCurry served this county as Register four years, and his record as a faithful and competent public servant is well-known to the public. He is a true Democrat, and an honest upright citizen.

—The Marion Public School will open on Tuesday next, the 4th of Sept. at 9 a. m., with Rev. Wm. H. White as Principal and Miss Eileen Crawford as Assistant Teacher. The school will continue about three months. The teachers and committee trust that they will have the active co-operation of all the patrons of the district in endeavoring to make the school successfully beneficial to all concerned. The patrons are asked to please note that the pupils may be fully supplied with books needed.

My boy was taken with a disease resembling bloody flux. The first thing I thought of was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Two doses of it settled the matter and cured him sound and well. I will answer any inquiries regarding it when stamp is enclosed. I refer to any county official as to my reliability. Wm. Roach, J. P., Primory, Campbell Co., Tenn. For sale by Morphew & Streetman.

Death of Mrs. Gardin.
Died on the 26th of August 1894, at her home, Mrs. Ellen Gardin, consort of Sheriff G. H. Gardin, and a daughter of Alexander Tate, of McDowell county.

From early childhood she had been the fond of feet around whom clustered the affections of parents and family and never was there a more worthy object. Endowed by nature with uncommon beauty and loveliness, with a sprightly and intellectual mind, and a heart throbbing with the tenderest sensibilities. She always shared deeply in the affections of those who knew her.

At an early age in the blushing springtime of life, while all was bright and gay around her, she gave her heart to God and for thirty-five years she has been a consistent member of the Methodist church. Were it not for this hope and assurance, how dark would be the gloom her death has cast over the hearts of those who mourn her loss. But the light of religion illumined her pathway to the grave, and the eye of faith beholds her amid the radiant throng, whose song unceasingly rolls over Heaven's wide expanse—and though hearts are bleeding from every pore and orphans are bereft of their nearest, dearest friend, yet there is rich consolation in that word which assures us that He who is "too wise to err and too good to do wrong" does not willingly afflict.

Her funeral was the largest the writer has ever seen in the county—another evidence of her universal popularity.

The services were conducted by Revs. Kaylor and Sorrels, both of whom paid beautiful tributes to her lovely Christian womanhood. After the services were concluded the long line of kindred and friends followed her remains, through the beautiful wood, where the tall pines were sighing with the breath of the passing breeze, to a little knoll in a beautiful valley where the violets and wild rose bloom together. There kind friends laid her to rest, in the old burying ground, whose brow at the foot of those beautiful mountains will share the kisses of every dawn and bathe in the glories of all sunsets. Farewell sainted one! Thy memory will long be embalm'd in our innermost hearts. Thy gentleness, thy loveliness and truth will live after thee.

Card of Thanks.
Having sold my interest in the drug firm of Morphew & Streetman, to Dr. Geo. I. White, and retiring from the drug business, I take this opportunity of thanking my friends and the public generally for the liberal patronage I have received since I have been in Marion.

I can most heartily recommend to you the new firm of Morphew & White. Both members are physicians of ability and thoroughly competent pharmacists. Trusting the good people of Marion and vicinity will bestow upon them the patronage they deserve.

I am respectfully,
J. W. STANFORD,
Aug. 27, 1894.

The finest line of clothing ever brought to Marion, and the lowest price on them for spot cash or good produce, ever offered at Blanton's.

BUSINESS PARAGRAPHS.

PARAGRAPHED FOR THE RECORD READERS.

A two-year-old filly named "The Butterflies" won $50,000 at Shoepstead Bay on the 25th in one race.

Senators Ransom and Jarvis will speak on every stump in North Carolina during the campaign in the interest of Democracy.

Capt. Natt Atkinson, a man to whom Asheville owes much of her prosperity, died suddenly in Salisbury last Sunday, where he had gone on a visit.

Secretary Carlise has offered a reward of $200 for the capture of the moonshiners who shot W. C. Lewis, a revenue raider, in Stokes county, recently.

Gen. Butler, of South Carolina, who is a candidate for U. S. Senator against Tillman, declares now that he will not abide by the result of the primaries.

A Washington special says Chas. L. Glasecock, of Statesville, has brought suit against his wife for a divorce, and makes sensational charges implicating a prominent U. S. Senator.

President Cleveland did not sign the tariff bill, but it is a law anyway. He says while the bill is a great improvement on McKinleyism it does not fully meet the expectations of tariff reformers.

The internal revenue receipts in the Fifth North Carolina district during the last fiscal year, under the different collectors, were Kope Elias $436,781.38; Samuel L. Rogers (acting) $411,041.11; M. E. Carter, $593,483.82.

China has succeeded in getting a good supply of war equipments with which to fight the Japs. The Chinese laundrymen in America would not have better weapons than hot water and smoothing irons, but they want guns "like ze melican man."

Capt. S. A. Ashe has announced himself a candidate for U. S. Senator to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Vance. Capt. Ashe has labored for the Democratic party all his life, and has never been remunerated. He is an old newspaper man, and one of the most brilliant writers in the state.

The sugar planters of Louisiana, have brought suit against the U. S. government for eleven million dollars, sugar bounty which has been cut off by the Democratic tariff bill. They claim that the law giving them a bounty provided for this bounty to the end of the year 1895, and the bounty amounts to about $11,000,000 this year.

It has been discovered at Sioux City, Iowa, that a firm has been slaughtering cheap ranch horses, the flesh of which is made into "dried beef." The product is all shipped to Jersey City. The proprietors say they have converted 1100 horses into "dried beef." They buy the horses for less money on the ranges than cows can be had for.

Mr. Bird Vindicated.
The many friends of Mr. J. L. C. Bird, who esteem him as an honest and upright gentleman, will read with pleasure the card re-produced in this issue in which Mr. Griffin apologizes for the use of certain language in regard to him in the Western Free Lance some months ago. Mr. Griffin apologizes, and the libel suit is withdrawn. He says the charges he made were based on facts which were misrepresented to him. The apology sets Mr. Bird right before the people. He is a young man and a public man, and could do nothing but prosecute a man for making such serious charges without fully investigating the facts, that are calculated to damage his good name and character as a citizen and lawyer. Now that it is all over, let past differences be forgotten.

When moving into our present home I found a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm left by a former tenant. On the label I found the statement that it was good for cuts and burns. I can testify to the truth of this. Nothing in all my experience has found its equal for treating blisters or burns. F. E. Barrett, manager Le Sueur Scented, Le Sueur, Minn. Pain Balm is also a sure cure for rheumatism. For sale by Morphew and Streetman, Druggists.

Notice.
We as a firm have dissolved, and will run separate businesses after November 1st, 1894, and all persons who are indebted to the present firm will save cost by settling with us at once.

Respectfully,
HENRILL & CLARK,
Marion, N. C. Aug 31-44

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The Superior Court last week passed off without any particularly noticeable event. Joe Patton, the negro who shot Jim Cowan at a negro dance at a cabin in Bondurant's addition to the Gallow's field last winter, was sent to the pen for one year. He appealed.

John S. Waters, for the pleasure of wearing out his pants pocket with a gun, paid $10 and costs.

A regular corn liquor racket occurred a few weeks ago, by Will Anderson, Adan Carver, Sevier McKinney, Jno. Biddix, Will Carver and another brother, assaulting Edward Nace in the northern part of the county Nace was acquitted. Will Carver and brother paid a fine of $5 each, and the other assailants were sent to jail from two to three months each.

"What Congress Has Done"
For some months the Plutocratic P. P. Dispensation Club, with headquarters on Main street, in Marion, has been exhibiting a little book entitled "What Congress Has Done." When you look inside the cover it is a blank cartridge. Now, another book is ready to be issued by the same title. Here are its contents:

"WHAT CONGRESS HAS DONE."
It has made all money equally taxable.
It has restored confidence in our currency and finances.
It has given to all our people the opportunity of living cheaper and better.
It has shattered the protected trusts of McKinleyism.
It has placed the burden of taxation upon the rich man's surplus as well as upon every man's needs.
It has restored the freedom of elections.
It has placed the transactions of the government and its methods of accounting upon a business basis.
It has greatly reduced the expenditures of the government.
For one solid year it has maintained an unrelenting fight against the trusts and monopolies which protection had created.
"It has fought the good fight, it has finished the course, it has kept the faith."
