For Congress W T. CRAWFORD, of Haywood. For Judge 10th District, W. B. COUNCIL, of Wautauga. For Solicitor, W. C. NEWLAND, of Caldwell, For the State Senate, 31st District, EDWIN J. JUSTICE, of McDowell, and C. EI LIS GARDNER, of Yate y.

THE Republican Senatorial convention meets to-day.

THE announcement of Capt. S. A. Ashe, of Raleigh, for successor to Vance's place in the U.S. Senate, has called forth editorials from the Western papers. It is the general opinion that it is rather presumptions on his part to desire the Sanatorship which rightfully belongs to the west. Mr. Ashe is a good man and is worthy of recognition at the hands of the Democratic party but the west is entitled to the place and there will no doubt be great dissatisfaction if we do not get it. There are plenty of men in the west that are oligi- If the fondness or false vanity of ble and who will make good Sona- father and mother has kept him tors and why should we not be represented in the Senate? If Capt. helped him out at his end of the does he not do as Jarvis doesfight Bansom for his place? That what was light fell to him, and blank is the right thing for him to do.

THEY call it "co-operation." They do not like the word "fusion" because fusion means a complete mingling of the parts; it means absorption, and neither the sly, wicked old party nor the light headed, susceptible new one wants to be suspected of having been absorbed by the other.
