CREWS, fusionist has succeeded in getting the seat in the legislature to which Lyons, of Granville, was elected. When the vote was reached in the house, it was decided upon strictly partisan lines. Every fusionist voted for Crews, and in Rom. Linney's slang Mr. Lyons was un-d.

IT seems now that the present Congress wil do nothing in the way of financial legislation. The defeated Carlisle bill has been revised and submitted to the President, but he has not indicated his opinion of it. The great question that puzzles nations and individuals is the financial question.

THE income tax appropriation bill has been passed and all the credit to us. But there is a gap citizens of Marion and other places to be filled in providing for the whose incomes exceed $4,000 per year will have to shell out the not effect the RECORD's interests.
