COMPARING the appropriations tative Sayers, of the committee on appropriations, finds a reduction of $45,341,418; and in comparing conduct itself upon a plan of amiof the fifty-second congress, he finds a reduction of $36,665,856. The appropriations made by the 547 by the fifty-second congress.

MAJ. HARVEY BINGHAM, a distinguished member of the Statesville bar, a man unsversally loved and admired for his many noble traits of character and in many respects a very remarkable man died at his home in Statesville last Tuesday. He was remarkable for having risen from poverty and obscurity against obstacles, before which any other than a hero would have trembled and finally yeilded in despair, to an eminence at the bar which it is not every lawyer's privileg to occupy and to a distinction polished college-bred gentleman might be proud. Maj. Bingham was perhaps more learned in the common law than any other perand will continue to live in the power and influence of the many young lawyers who received their instruction and noblest mapirations from him.

A MOTION has been made in the English house of commons that members receive pay for their services. The motion while finding some support yet has met with strong opposition from several able members. Mr. Goschen opposed the motion and said that the payment of members would lower the status the number of working men in the Commons. England is a country so rich and powerful that, it is said, the sun never sets on her domains. The United States is also a rich country, but her national debt is so large that it seems she will never be able to pay it off, and she is going in deht at the rate of fifty islative body on earth. If we were ta follow the example of England, the political schemer and swindler, the man who labors, not for love of country, but for love of money, would gradualty disappear, and our noble Republic would once more become the home of statesmen Clay and Webster.

Some Inventions That Were Unknown Fifty Years Ago.

The world keeps moving on. Could a man who died even twenty-five years ago rise from his grave to-day, what wonders would he behold! In this busy, stirring age we seldom pause long enough to realize just how rapidly we are advancing. It has probably occured to few persons to consider how many useful arts and industries of importance to-day were unknown fifteen years ago. The self-binding harvester is now doing the work that would require thousands of men; and the typewriter, put on the market in 1883, has found sales to the amount of $25,000,000. Who, in 1880, ever dreamed that night would be turned into day by electricity? that this mighty force of nature would be harnessed down by human ingenuity and be made to draw e rs, turn mills and pull plows before 1895? At that time the bicycle, commercially speaking was nnknown, and the telephone unheard of. What wonders the future has in store for us it would be difficult to conjecture.

Your Home Paper. Any man can take a newspaper. It is the cheapest thing he can buy. It costs no more than a postage stamp, it instructs you and your wife and teaches your children. It comes through rain or shine, calm or storm, bringing you the best news of the neighborhood. No matter what happens it enters your door as a welcome friend, full of sunshine, cheer and interest.

This was followed by notices to its they must not act as agents of the Southern Stock Mutual.

All this has but one meaning, and that is that a North Carolina Company must not compete with the Southeastern Tariff Association for North Carolina business under penality of its boycott. Its agents are to be coerced, if possible, and it only remains to be seen how many of them, who are agents for both, will submit to the coercoin. The method adopted of holding the North Carolina business as a scholar of which many a more for itself and driving the home competitors out of the competition, is a thoroughly characteristic trust proceeding, and it will be a sur-prise to those who think they know them well if the people of son in the State. A Sweeping Law.

Business and legal circles are much exercised over the following law which was passed by the late Fusion Legislature and was ratified an went into effect March 13.

An act to regulate assignments and other conveyances of like in North Carolina. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact: SECTION 1. That all conditional sales, assignments, mortgages or deeds in trust, which are executed to secure any debt, obligation note or bond which gives preferences to of parliament and taint the purity any creditor of the maker, shall creditors.

SEC. 2. That all laws in conflict with this act are hereby repealed. Upon its face this law declares every mortgage or other like instrument in valid as to all deb's the maker may owe at the time he executes the instrument. This substantially puts an end to the business of borrowing money upon million dollars a year, yet the the law prohibits mortgages and United States has the costliest leg- trust deeds of any character unless every debt due by the maker at the time of the execution of the instrument is included in its provisions.

Ex-Judge John Gray Bynum was fined $50 for contempt at Morganton court last Monday. The next day he refused to address the like Jefferson, Jackson, Calhoun, judge before addressing the jury, whereupon Judge Timberlake ordered him to take his seat.

What the Legislature did not do.

1. It did not decrease the salary of any officer in the State. 2. It did not decrease the fees of any officers.

3. It did not pass a law against trusts, but was the plant tool of corporate power. 4. It did not decrease appropriations. 5. It did not stop any abuse or expenditure anywhere.

6. It did not stop paying unsuccessful contestants or contestees.

7. It did not afford any relief in any way, shape or form to the toiling masses.

8. It did not declare for free coinage, but "indefinitely postponed" the resolution instructing Senators to vote for it.

THE Morganton Herald, a live, progressive, up-to-dr te newspaper, and one of which the old county of Burke should feel proud, has just entered upon its eleventh year.

A Pennsylvania Judge recently sentenced a chicken thief to ten years in the penitentiery for stealing ten dollars worth of chickens and two bank men looted a bank out of $112,000 in one year and went free. When the chicken thief saw that, he wept because he had not robbed a bank.

It was a particularly sad death, as the young man had a bright future before him. He was only twenty years of age. He was in the Railway Mail service between Washington and Charlotte. A peculiar circumstance connected with young Phifer's death, is that about two years ago, a first cousin of Phifer's, Alfred Avery, died of appendic tis at Durham, and Geo. Phifer often spoke of it, and expressed the fear that he might at some time have the same dread trouble. When he was first taken sick, at Charlotte, and before the doctors had diagnosed his case, he said that he had appendicitis.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Syrus Edson, "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic Coast and yet there are a great many cases of catarrh and co isumpion which have their origin in this neg lect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it."

HANDSOME, STYLISH, FAST and HIGH-BRED

MARION AND MORGANTON. OU can always sell the best. Breed no other kind. If you want to raise a fine saddler, breed to FOREST KING, for he goes all the saddle gaits; if you want a fine driver breed to him, for he is the finest; if you want a good farm horse breed your mare to King, for the Hambletonians make the best of farm horses. They are intelligent, durable, kind and quick. PEDIGREE:

FOREST KING WAS BRED IN LEXINGTON, KY., and is six years old. His sire is VETERAN, (a horse that can trot close to 2:20,) he by HAPPY MEDIUM, and a Half brother to the great Nancy Hanks 2:04,

(thus making KING a nephew of the greatest mare that ever lived, for whi hone hundred thousand dollars was refused last year by Mr. J. Malcomb Forbes, of Boston). Happy Medium, the grand-sire of King. sired 85 sons and daughters that trotted a mile in from 2:04 to 2:30. KING'S dam is LADY FOREST, a fast and fine mare now owned by Mr. R P. Hare, Louisville, Ky. She was sired by Edwin Forest, he by Mambrino Champion, he by Mambrino Patchen, he by Mambrino Chief and he by the world-renowned Old Hambletonian.

I guarantee this pedigree to be correct, and defy any trotting stallion in the State to show a better one. Can you afford to neglect this opportunity to breed to such a horse?

Blood will Telt. Every one of King's Colts is Fine.

TERMS:-Forest King will serve mares in Marion and Morganton this season at $10 each, and $2 must be paid cash and balance when colt is foaled. If a mare is traded after being bred, the man trading her becomes responsible, and the money becomes due and will be collected.

People in Burke can inquire at Ward & Goodson's stable, in Morganton, as to dates horse will be there, or write to me. I will offer good premiums on Forest King's colts, to be exhibited at Morganton Fair. Yours for better horses
