

MARION RECORD.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

J. C. LINNEY,
Editor and Proprietor.

Entered at the postoffice in Marion as second-class mail matter.

Mr. Walter H. Page, who recently resigned the editorship of the Forum on account of the difference with the owners as to its business management, is figuring on starting a new Review. Page's associate editor, a young Englishman named Keet, is in charge of the Forum, but the directing mind is still that of the president of the company, I. L. Rice, a rich lawyer and former college professor. He has a good deal of money in the enterprise, and has always held the magazine closely to the lines upon which he originally planned it when Metcalf was the editor. The Forum now represents a capital actually put up in money during its career of $125,000, and is worth a good deal more than that sum as a property at this time.—News and Observer.

Mr. Page, who is a native North Carolinian, enjoys an enviable reputation as a writer of periodical literature. Under his editorship the Forum has taken position in the very foremost rank of American journals.

There need be no necessity for people buying a bale of hay, a pound of meat or lard, or a can of canned fruits that is not produced within the borders of the State. We cannot be a prosperous people so long as we buy from the North and West more than we sell abroad. The merchant who would annually order $5,000 more of goods than he could sell would soon go to the wall and his stock into the hands of the sheriff. The same law that applies to the individual applies to a community or a people. If we produce a surplus which we cannot sell at a profit we are just as badly off as if we did not have it, because the surplus represents labor and capital that has been expended in its production, and, if there is no demand for it, it is so much capital locked up and of no benefit to any one.

The people of the South might and should be one of the most prosperous people on the face of the earth. They are favored by all the natural conditions necessary for such a happy consummation, and it lies within their power. And this condition will be reached when the people grasp and intelligently utilize their opportunities and natural advantages.

"Friend of the Farmer."

To the Editor of the News and Observer:

At the great Alliance picnic in Cary on Thursday, I carried a wagon load of watermelons, hoping to sell a few. As I am an Alliance man and a Populist, I thought it would be no harm to sell a few melons to those who pretend to be working in the interest of the farmers. After I had put my wagon load of melons in a good place, one of the managers told me that I must move off fifty yards—that they did not want the speaking disturbed. I moved away as directed. In a few minutes I saw that the managers, who had driven me away from the good position, permitted a milk shake table and a drink table to be put in the place from which I had been driven, and to be run by men who never saw a farm.

I have found that when the case is pressed closely upon them, those who talk so loudly about being friends of the poor farmers always go back on them in order to help some man who is not a farmer.

I do hope that my friends will remember this when the great political fight comes, and will meet them with the matter when they begin to spread themselves as the friends of the farmers.

A. H. Moody.

The Marion Record nominates Judge Armfield for Governor. We second the nomination, as we believe him to be one of the best and most brainy men in the State.—Watauga Democrat.

A Desire to Succeed Essential to Success.

A boy who wants to succeed in the law will probably do so. An encouraging thought, as far as it goes. But the power to want to do a thing is as much a talent as the power to do it well, and the two are very apt to go together. So that I am not offering encouragement, but stating the first inborn gift which the boy born for the law must have.—Judge Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr.

The News says that Mr. E. T. Nutt, of Mt. Airy, raised 164 bushels of onions on one acre.

Evangelist Gales at Old Fort.

CAPT. BLOCKER'S PARLOR A PLACE OF ATTRACTION.—MARION CAPTURES THE POINT.

Correspondence of the Record.

The spacious piazza and elegant parlor of O. H. Blocker, Esq., are just now the center of attraction for Old Fort's young gentlemen; a party of charming Floridian's being the power that draws them thither. The soft notes of the guitar accompanied by seemingly angel voices are softly borne upon the evening breeze while stalwart manhood sits entranced.

The meetings at the commodious Presbyterian church are well attended and the power of Evangelist Gales is felt more and more at each succeeding service. The morning hour of Praise and Prayer is well worth making an effort to attend. Our merchants close their stores from 11 to 12 m., and there is no excuse for any one remaining away. We hope that our country friends will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear the Bible read and explained in a manner that can not fail to benefit. Mr. Gales is probably the most earnest and forcible man that Old Fort people have ever had with them, and all should come to hear him.

We were glad to see the lovely faces and gallant forms of many of Marion's people in our town on Sunday last and sincerely hope they may come again, as their presence added much of grace and beauty to a bright Sunday. Among the ladies were Miss Lilly Yancey, the Misses Crawford, Miss Motz with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. C. Bird and Mrs. J. L. Morgan. Of the gentlemen were Messrs. Jno. and Sam Yancey, Hemphill, and Linney, of the Record. Possibly the lateness of the East bound train may have detained them longer than they wished but certainly not longer than we were pleased to have them. Sidney.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Caillette, Druggist, Beaverville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles I was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at Morpheus & White's Drug Store.

The Student's Prayer.

The following is the prayer made by Dr. Samuel Johnson, on the 26th of September, 1765, when about to enter upon the study of law:

Almighty God, the giver of wisdom, without whose help resolutions are vain, without whose blessings study is ineffectual, enable me to direct the doubtful and instruct the ignorant, to prevent wrong and terminate contentions, and grant that I may use that knowledge which I shall attain to Thy glory and my own salvation; for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

A Novel Incubator.

A gentleman from Peachland, Anson county, informs us that an old negro woman, named Charity Huntley, has performed a feat the like of which has not been before heard of in this country. A few days ago a setting hen quit her nest and Charity declared that "dem sibs hab to be hatched for dey done been spiled for eatin' purposes," and suiting the action to the word she gathered those eggs to her bosom and kept them there for three days and then she had the pleasure of seeing ten chickens hatched.—Monroe Enquirer.

The knitting mill at Valdese is to be moved to Newton.

The Populist clerk of Cumberland county last week appointed a negro justice of the peace.

The Newton Enterprise learns that a young man named Reil was going to Rock Springs camp-ground Sunday evening of last week and when near there came upon three negroes upon the road side who caught his horse's bridle and demanded his money. Reil told them he had no money but they persisted. His horse jumped and threw Reil out of the cart and the negroes seized him. He got out his knife and cut one in the throat and the others ran. The wounded negro is expected to die.

The Local Ministers' Conference, in session last week at Rutherford College, proposed the erection of a monument to the memory of the late Dr. Abernethy.

"I don't believe," writes Bill Arp, "that the ladies lace as much as they used to. I haven't seen but one girl in a long time who excited my fears, and I am still concerned for fear she will break in two, right at the coupling, or become uncoupled some of these days. A good healthy-sized waist is absolutely necessary to a healthy wife, and nobody but an idiot would marry a woman with a dirt-dauber body. Nevertheless, I like to see women fixed up nicely with corsets on. In fact, with anything on save Mother Hubbards."

A hack driver of Raleigh, Roger Kelley by name, has recently gone crazy over baseball playing, and has been taken to the colored insane asylum at Goldsboro. Poor fellow! If all the rest who have "gone crazy" from the same cause were put in the asylum with him, he would not be the least bit lonesome.

The hair, when not properly cared for, loses its lustre, becomes crisp, harsh, and dry, and falls out freely with every coming. To prevent this, the best dressing in the market is Ayer's Hair Vigor. It imparts that silky gloss so essential to perfect beauty.

Gov. Carr ordered a special term of Forsyth court to begin last Monday for the completion of the trial of the negroes who participated in the riot in Winston-Sunday before last. The trial is in progress and the testimony as given in by the leading citizens of Winston, is very damaging against the rioters.

A fatal shooting and cutting affray occurred on Bull Creek, Madison county, Tuesday night of last week. Zeb R. Whitt was shot and instantly killed, while Jeff Mace, who, it is said, killed Whitt, was cut so badly that he will die. A little distilled spirits of hell fire, passing under the "non de plume" of "corn jigger" was the cause of the trouble.

Dr. C. D. Yonker, a well known druggist of Bowling Green, Ohio, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I take pleasure in recommending it to my customers, for I am certain that it will always please them. I sell more of it than all other kinds put together." For sale by Morpheus & White, Druggists.

The Franklin Press has at last declared its position on the financial question. Here is its platform: "We have been asked repeatedly how we stand on the money question. We are in favor of gold dollars, silver dollars, greenback dollars all being received on subscriptions at this office at 100 cents in the dollar. We also favor 16 to 1, that is our subscribers paying us $16 to where they have been paying us $1."

Cigarette Smoking.

Dr. C. A. Clinton, of the San Francisco Board of Education, has made a special study of the effect of cigarette smoking among the public school children of that city, and expresses himself in the following unmistakable language:

"A good deal has been said about the evils of cigarette smoking, but one-half the truth has never been told. I have watched this thing for a long time, and I can say calmly and deliberately that I believe cigarette smoking is as bad a habit as opium smoking. I am talking now of boys, remember. The effect upon grown men is, of course, not so marked."

"A cigarette fiend will lie and steal just as a morphine or opium fiend will lie and steal. Cigarette smoking blunts the whole moral nature. It has an appalling effect upon the system. It first stimulates and then stupefies the nerves. It sends boys into consumption. It gives them enlargement of the heart, and it sends them to the insane asylum. I am physician to several boys' schools, and I am often called in to prescribe for palpitation of the heart. In nine cases out of ten it is caused by the cigarette habit. Every physician knows the cigarette habit. I have seen bright boys turned into dunces, and straightforward honest boys made into miserable cowards, by cigarette smoking. I am not exaggerating. I am speaking the truth, that every physician and nearly every teacher knows."—Selected.

The Standard says that "Aunt Betsy Freeman," a one-legged woman, lives alone, a few miles from Concord. A hen and her chickens were under the house last Sunday night and a black snake got among them. "Aunt Betsy" raised a plank and took from the nest all the chickens except the hen. She returned for the hen after safely placing the chickens in a basket and to her surprise a black snake, about four feet long, was coiled about the hen. She lifted the hen out and as she did so the serpent coiled its cold form around Aunt Betsy's neck. She did not scream, but jerked the snake off her neck and placed her chickens in safety before finishing the battle.

A Good Sunday Sermon.

Elder P. D. Gold in Zion's Landmark: I advise Primitive Baptists to "study to be quiet, keep out of grog-shops, mind their own business, labor with their own hands, pay their debts, stay at home and labor, except when going to preaching, or required to be away from home, buy only what they need, or would profit them, shun foolish and extravagant fashions, keep their children at home more, and teach them to labor, and trust the Lord in keeping His commandments."

This advice might be taken with profit by all.

Boyhood's Delights.

I'd like to be a boy again with-out a wee or care, with freckles scattered on my face, and hayseed in my hair. I'd like to rise at 4 o'clock and do a hundred chores, and saw the wood and feed the hogs and lock the stable doors; and herd the hens and watch the bees and take the mules to drink, and teach the turkeys how to swim, so that they wouldn't sink; and milk about a hundred cows and bring the wood to burn, and stand out in the sun all day and churn and churn and churn; and wear my brother's cast off clothes and walk four miles to school, and get a licking every day for breaking some old rule, and then get home again at night and do the chores once more, and milk the cows and feed the hogs and carry mules galore, and then crawl wearily up stairs to seek my little bed, and hear dad say, "That worthless boy! He isn't worth his bread!" I'd like to be a boy again—a boy has so much fun. His life is just a round of mirth from rise to set of sun. I guess there's nothing pleasanter than closing stable doors, and herding hens and chasing bees and doing evening chores.—Washington News.

Conscience.

In the majority of cases, conscience is an elastic and very flexible article, which will bear a deal of stretching and adapt itself to a great variety of circumstances. Some people by prudent management and leaving it off piece by piece, like a flannel waistcoat in warm weather, even contrive, in time, to dispense with it altogether; but there be others who can assume the garment and throw it off at pleasure, and this, being the greatest and most convenient improvement, is the one most in vogue.—Charles Dickens in Curiosity Shop.

Since 1878 there have been nine epidemics of dysentery in different parts of the country in which Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used with perfect success. Dysentery, when epidemic, is almost as severe and dangerous as Asiatic cholera. Heretofore the best efforts of the most skilled physicians have failed to check its ravages, this remedy, however, has cured the most malignant cases, both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions, which proves it to be the best medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by Morpheus & White, Druggists.

Definition of a Cigarette.

A cigarette is a roll of paper, tobacco and drugs, with a small fire at one end and a large fool at the other. Some of the chief enjoyments are condensed nightmare, fits, cancer of the lips and stomach, spinal meningitis, softening of the brain, funeral processions and families shrouded in gloom. There are plenty of subjects left, however, who are perfectly willing to undergo trials of such a trivial nature for the sake of putting on a certain amount of style.—Mammoth Spring Monitor.

Mr. Natanael Mortenson, a well-known citizen of Ishpeming, Mich., and editor Superior Posten, who, for a long time, suffered from the most excruciating pains of rheumatism, was cured, eight years ago, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, having never felt a twinge of it since.

Wilborn Childers, of Alexander county, comes out with a rattlesnake that's hard to beat. He killed it last week near his house and it required three shots to do it. The rattler wore 37 rattles and was eight feet long. The snake's hide was stuffed and it required one bushel, one peck and one gallon of brand to do this.

A car load of twenty-eight pupils came from Texas to attend Birmingham school at Asheville.

My little boy, when two years of age, was taken very ill with bloody flux. I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and luckily procured part of a bottle. I carefully read the directions and gave it accordingly. He was very low, but slowly and surely he began to improve, gradually recovered, and is now as stout and strong as ever. I feel sure it saved his life. I never can praise the Remedy half its worth. I am sorry every one in the world does not know how good it is, as I do.—Mrs. Lina S. Hinton, Grahamsville, Marion Co., Florida. For sale by Morpheus & White, Druggists.

Little Foxes.

Among my tender vines I spy
A little fox named—By-and-by.
Toen set upon him quick I say,
The swiftest young hunter—Right-away.
Around each tender vine I plant
I find the little fox—I can't.
Then, fast as ever hunter ran,
Chase him with bold and brave—I can.
No use in trying—legs and whines,
This fox a nong my tender vines.
Men drive him low and drive him high,
With this good hunter named—I'll try.
Among the vines in my small lot
Creeps in the young fox—I forgot.
Then hunt him out and to his den
With—I will not forget again.
A little fox is hidden there
Among my vines named—I don't care.
Then let me—sorry—hunt-tru—
Chase him afar from vines and you.
