Why can't you get up good clubs in every section? Are you going to wait 15 or 20 years just to see and then come sneaking in with a when you plaintively poured out those quarter to express your confidence in the permanent success of the paper? Do your duty. Work for the success of the paper that advocates your interests. Standing back to see if a paper is going to live before helping it to live is cowardly and miserly. Again we appeal to our friends, if we have any, to do their duty by the paper. Read it; work for it, and buy your goods from those merchants who advertise in it! This is very important. We desire to make advertising pay our patrons. You can look through our columns and see who of our business men are friendly to the paper. Liberal-minded merchants never refuse to patronize a paper on account of its politics. Others do. You can at least patronize our advertisers, if you can't do anything else for us. Will you do it? "My come more and more like God. So friend did I not hear you sing that same to study the lives of great men is hymn one night on the battle-field years ago?" The singer reflected a moment, and replied that he did remember to have sung it one night on picket duty. He had not heard from home for weeks; his heart was very heavy; and there as he stood alone under the heavens on that clear night, he sang to the Lover of his soul, that he might get comfort. The Confederate soldier for such he was-said, "Yes; that was when I heard you sing. I was a sharp-shooter. English historian and publicist: "For almost all that keeps up in us, permanently and effectually, the spirit of regard for liberty and the public good, we must look to the unshackled and independent energies of the press."

And this from Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton, one of the most acute intellects that ever lived:

"The newspaper is the chronicle of civilization. It is a daily and sleepless watchman that reports to you every danger which menaces the institutions of your country and its interests at home and abroad. It is a law book for the indolent, a sermon for the thoughtless, a library for the poor."

And this from Hunt: "The newspaper is the familiar of all men of all degrees, of all ocsaved in the singing of that hymn. When God's children are in the night and lonegown or scholastic rod to abash or control, but prepares itself and is admitted freely and at once to a world-wide intimacy with all kinds and conditions of people."

And this from the Right Honorable A. J. Balfour:

"In my judgment all the machinery used in communicating information to the public is not of really more importance to the community at large than the power of the people to communicate by advertisement and bring the buyer Lv. On less than six acres of land inside the corporate limits of Morganton Mr. John W. Campbell last year raised 1,300 bushels of sweet potatoes, which he sold at a net profit of a little over $600. He has erected in his potato patch, at a cost of $200, a house that keeps the potatoes perfect from October until May -Morganton Herald,

Arrangements have been made to move the old Bennett house in Durham, at which General Joe Johnson surrendered about thirty years ago, to the Atlanta exposition. It will be placed in a tent and an admission fee of 10 cents will be charged.

The Shelby Aurora says that on Sunday, 15th inst., at sunset as Mrs. Mahata Newton, an aged widow who lives near Casar, Cleveland county, was entering her house by a rear door she was seized by a negro and her money demanded. Mrs. Newton screamed loudly for help and her little granddaughter and companion ran towards a nearby house for assistance. The negro cut Mrs. Newton's throat in three places, besides inflicting other wounds on her hands and arms, and fled, having failed to get any money. Mrs. Newton's concition is critical and her recovery doubtful. Her assailant has not yet been apprehended.

CANCER CURED

LIFE SAVED By the Persistent Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."-Mrs. S. A. FIELDS, Bloomfield, Ia.
