

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Rev. J. B. and Mrs. Carpenter were in town Saturday. Mason's Fruit Jars at McCall & Conley's. E. J. Justice, Esq., and Miss Cutler left Tuesday to attend the marriage of M. H. Justice, Esq., of Rutherfordton, father to E. J. and Butler Justice.

Mr. W. W. Neal returned Wednesday evening from the Cotton States and International Exposition. He says that a great many of the exhibition buildings are not yet completed, and that many of the exhibits have not yet arrived.

Rev. T. J. Rodgers received a handsome poundage Tuesday night from members of his church. He is a good man and richly deserves the praise he gets. Preachers and editors are the best people living and both ought to be pouted much oftener than they are.

Mr. M. W. Neal returned Wednesday evening from the Cotton States and International Exposition. He says that a great many of the exhibition buildings are not yet completed, and that many of the exhibits have not yet arrived.

Mr. M. W. Neal returned Wednesday evening from the Cotton States and International Exposition. He says that a great many of the exhibition buildings are not yet completed, and that many of the exhibits have not yet arrived.

DO YOU... need a watch, and are you going to get one? If so we are interested, and will mention the fact that we have just received a new line for your inspection; fifty kinds at fifty prices and every watch suits the price. We will sell you a Stem wind, dust proof, screw case, Elgin for five dollars and fifty cents. Come and See 'em. Swindell's.

Rev. J. B. and Mrs. Carpenter were in town Saturday. Mason's Fruit Jars at McCall & Conley's.

Mr. W. W. Neal returned Wednesday evening from the Cotton States and International Exposition. He says that a great many of the exhibition buildings are not yet completed, and that many of the exhibits have not yet arrived.

Rev. T. J. Rodgers received a handsome poundage Tuesday night from members of his church. He is a good man and richly deserves the praise he gets.

Mr. M. W. Neal returned Wednesday evening from the Cotton States and International Exposition. He says that a great many of the exhibition buildings are not yet completed, and that many of the exhibits have not yet arrived.

Mr. M. W. Neal returned Wednesday evening from the Cotton States and International Exposition. He says that a great many of the exhibition buildings are not yet completed, and that many of the exhibits have not yet arrived.

DO YOU... need a watch, and are you going to get one? If so we are interested, and will mention the fact that we have just received a new line for your inspection; fifty kinds at fifty prices and every watch suits the price.