YACHTSMAN'S NOVEL FL.T.

Leffingwell of Chicago Club Will Try to Set Mark In Arctic Zone.

To have its emblem carried farther north than that of any other organization which makes a sport of sailing is to be the distinction of the Chicago Yacht Club, whose burgee will be flown from the truck of one of its member's boats during a three years' cruise in the waters of the Arctic zone.

The yachtsman who will carry out the novel feat is Ernest De Koven Leffingwell, geologist and member of the University of Chicago geographical department, who has been made an honorary member of the Chicago Yacht Club. Mr. Leffingwell recently went to Pa adena, Cal., to perfect his plans for the Alaskan trip.

His craft is to be a stanch auxiliary schooner, now being completed in Seattle, and when it is launched the pennant of the Chicago Yacht Club will fly from the main truck, ready to be carried where no vachting embl m has been will be furnished by a twenty-five horse power kerosene engine, which is thought to be safer for the purpose than one of the gasoline type.

Four sailors will be Mr. Leffingwell's companions during the trip, which is to start May 1. The first stop will be made at Nome and the second at Point Barrow, where is reated the last Hudson Bay trading po From that point a course will be laid for Flaxman Island 300 miles northeast, and Mr. Leffingwell then will take up the tak of making maps of the rivers that he discovered there upon his recent exploring trip.

CULT OF SOUL MATES.

Club of Both Sexes Is Studying a Sci ence of Symmetry.

A society having for its aim the cultivation of the human figure until it becomes absolutely symmetrical has been formed in Auburndale near Boston and has already extended its influence into the neighboring suburbs, the Newtons, Winthrop, Revere, Brookline, Lincoln and Dorchester.

The club is formed on the plan of having an equal number of men and women on the rolls, and so popular has the new less than 200 of both sexes attended a by Dr. Morphew. recent gathering. The creed of the cult is embodied in a book which has already been written and is ready for the printer. Its title is "The Human Limit," and it deals with affinity extensively, and especially the power to recognize affinities, so that soul mates

The founder and teacher of the new idea is Edward Chase Merrill, formerly his wife, he declares, have become ten years younger as the result of practising the precepts of the new science, which is asserted to be based on the philosophy of Froebel. The club is known as the Good Idea Club.

CY YOUNG THE CHAMPION.

Griffith Claims That Veteran Is Greatest Twirler In Baseball.

"You can talk about your Clarksons, your Rusies, your Radbourns and your Mathewsons," says Manager Clarke. Griffith of the Cincinnati Nationals, "but when it comes down to real figures, the greatest pitcher that ever lived is 'Cy' Young, who was turned over to at J. W. Streetman. Cleveland recently by the Boston club.

"Just think of it, that old boy will be forty-two years of age on March 29, has been pitching in fast company for nineteen years, and is just as clever in fooling batsmen now as ever he was.

"It has been whispered around that the Cleveland club made a foolish trade in giving Pitchers Chech and Ryan and a bonus of $10,000 for Young. Don't believe it. Why, Young will draw that $10,000 the first three games he pitches for the Naps- and he'll keep on winning, too, with that team behind him. "Young's a wonder. Any man that can win upward of 500 games in fast society is a marvel. And you can bet that the old boy has a lot of good base-. ball in his makeup yet. Watch him."

Honest Ball Player.

Here's a new one. The Secretary of the New Castle (Pa.) baseball team claims he has secured a contract from one of the candidates for a place on the toam which is unique, in that the player agrees that if he does not hit at a .250 cip for the season he will not ask for any pay for the final month of the season. I he sor retary will not give out the player's name, as he claims that if it were known every pitcher in the lengue would work overs me trying to beat the player out of that month's salary.

Opportunity.

Sometimes we hear people talk as if opportunity were so rare that by dropping asleep a minute we might miss it for ever. Instead life is all opportunity. There is not a moment that does not bring us some chance to be improved but sometimes, as we strain our eyes for the great opportunity, we miss the countless little ones all the time passing. -The Young Evange-
