The Old Church Choir.

I seem to hear the voices
And the songs they used to sing.
The sweet reverberation
"Jesus All to Thee I Bring."
I see the old choir in its place
Just as it used to be,
And safely through the years comes back
"Nearer, My God, to Thee."
And the voices, O, the voices
Of that happy long ago,
To my listening soul are singing
All the songs I used to know.
Comes an echo far and faintly
Of the world that is to be,
Like a benediction, saintly,
"Rock of Ages Cleft for Me."
Friends of other days, I see them,
Gathered in that holy place;
They are singing of my Saviour
"When I Meet Him Face to Face."
Still the melody is ringing,
Swelling to that old church dome,
Sweetest peace to me is bringing
"When We'll Be Gathered Home."
And my life though lone and friendless,
Sorrow's billows round me roll,
Yet they speak of joy that's endless,
"Jesus, Lover of My Soul."
Far across the gloom and shadows
Gleams a beacon fair and bright,
Pilot of my soul forever,
"Lead Thou Me, O Kindly Light."
Lead, and with Thy beams to guide me
I at last shall reach the goal,
Storms of life no more betide me,
"When the Surges Cease to Roll."

JAMES SMITH MANNING.—A Sketch.

Hon. James Smith Manning was born in Pittsboro, Chatham county, June 1st, 1859 and is a son of Hon. John Manning, who for eighteen years was Professor of Law at the University of North Carolina. His father was a native of Chowan county and his maternal great grandfather was Judge John Hall of Warren county, for many years Judge of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

Judge Manning was educated in the school of Prof. Merritt of Chatham county and at the University of North Carolina where he graduated in 1879. He read law under his father, who was then Professor of Law at the University, and was licensed to practice in 1881. He immediately began the practice of law in Durham—first with his father and then with H. A. Foushee—and by his ability and industry acquired a large practice, being recognized by the public and his fellow members of the bar as a lawyer of great ability, untiring industry and almost unerring judgement.

He was married December 12th, 1888, to Miss Julia Cain, daughter of James F. Cain of Durham county and niece of the late Judge Thomas Ruffin of Orange county, and he has an interesting family of four boys and two girls.

Judge Manning served six years as chairman of the Durham County Executive Committee and prior to his appointment as Judge had been for many years a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee. He was the Democratic nominee for Judge of the Superior Court in 1896, but was defeated along with the entire Democratic state ticket.

Judge Manning has always taken a leading part in the industrial and educational development of his section.

He was a member of the House of Representatives in 1907 and served as chairman of the Committee on Public Service Corporations. He was one of the leaders in that body and worked unceasingly in favor of securing relief to the people from excessive freight and passenger rates.

In 1908 Judge Manning was elected by a large majority to the State Senate where he served as chairman of the Judiciary Committee. When Judge Connor resigned in the spring of 1909, Governor Kitchin appointed him as Judge Connor's successor on the Supreme Court bench. Since then he has given his whole time and attention to the work of the court and is recognized as measuring up to the high requirements of that exalted position. His opinions are clear, cogent and concise and he has the esteem and has won the respect of the entire legal profession.

Judge Manning belongs to that class of men whose word is his bond. He has always stood for square to every wind that blew—outspoken, frank, sincere and manly—No one ever accused him of evasion. Warm hearted, genial, sincere, he numbers his friends by the score. A kind husband, a good father, a wise counselor and a learned lawyer he has made an ideal Judge and in honoring him, the Democratic party will honor itself.—The Durham Recorder.

The Cigarette Smoker's Finish in Ten Years.

Baldville Review.

Dr. Len Broughton, of Atlanta, preached a sermon in Baltimore the other day on "The Devil's Trap for Men." The doctor was temperate enough to say that any man, unless he was an exception to the rule, who smoked cigarettes for ten years would at the end of that time be a liar, a thief and a general menace to the public. He said the substance of cigarettes was injurious to the system and affected the moral tissues of the brain.

Commissioner's Sale of Land for Partition.

By virtue of an order of the Superior Court of McDowell county, North Carolina, to me directed in the Special Proceedings of Sallie W. Atwell and husband W. C. Atwell, et al., vs. Arthur Elliott, et al., I will sell at Public Auction to the highest bidder for cash, at the Court House door in Marion, N. C., on Saturday at 3 p. m. July 9th, 1910, a certain tract or parcel of land, with dwelling house and orchard thereon, lying and being near the town of Marion, N. C. described as follows, to-wit: This being a reservation of three acres of land as mentioned in a deed by W. H. Wakefield and wife Mary Wakefield, of McDowell County, N. C., to M. V. Islar, of same state and county, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of McDowell County, N. C., D. B. 18, page 348 "A certain tract or parcel of land in Marion township, McDowell County, N. C., adjoining the lands of Sinclair, Mrs. Martin, the Greenlee heirs, Dr. J. H. Gilkey and others, bounded as follows, viz: on the west side by lands of P. J. Sinclair, on the South by lands of Mrs. Sofia Martin, on the East by the lands of the Greenlee heirs, with the following reservation, viz: THREE ACRES near the center of said tract of land, it being the lot where the dwelling house and out buildings stand, said tract after the foregoing reservation is said to contain 65 acres more or less, this being a part of the Old Hawkins 100 acre tract, lying and being on a branch known as Hawkins branch."

Mrs. Henry Schwenk writes: "I had eczema on my face for over four years. We tried about a half dozen doctors but never found any cure. I have been taking Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea for about three months and it has done me more good than all the doctor's medicine." J. W. Streetman.

Mr. J. K. Craig May Be Candidate for Register of Deeds.

Nebo, June 4.

Editor MARION PROGRESS.
I noticed in your paper of May 26 that Mr. Fiddler, who writes up the Nebo Notes, had seen fit to put in quite a complimentary sketch which was very gratifying to me; therefore, if you have space, I would be pleased to express my gratitude toward him for the nice way he brought my name before the public as a prospective candidate for the office of Register of Deeds for McDowell county, and the expressed confidence he has in me to serve the good people in that capacity. But before I can say that I am a candidate I must know that Mr. J. A. Langhridge is not a candidate for re-election to this office and then I must know that it is agreeable with the party for me to run. I would consider it a great honor to be nominated to succeed a man whose name will go down in history as one of McDowell's best Registers. Wisely was it said by Fiddler that our offices should be filled with our best men. This the good people of McDowell are going to continue to do. Our county offices are now filled with as good men as there are anywhere from the least to the greatest regardless of party affiliations. This we should all feel proud to know that our county is thus blessed.

McDowell is a grand old county in many respects, being named, as it was, in honor of one of our greatest Generals; bounded on the west by the Blue Ridge with her beautiful valleys spread out toward the East which is dotted with beautiful cottages filled with true North Carolinians; a county that has sent out men, yes, women, worthy of her name. When this is all recalled to our memory we feel prouder still of our Western North Carolina home in the land of the sky where men and women drink pure water, breathe fresh air and look rosy until they die. While it is true there are some of us not so fortunate as to live in these beautiful valleys or in houses called beautiful cottages, but in houses with the framing run the wrong way and mud used in places besides the chimneys, some of us are kindly like the poor old Hindoo—done the best we can do—almost wear our skin for britches and make that do—yet we are all good people, especially about election times. Hunt up people that we never knew and ask them to vote for us. Some of us, after having been in office for 30 years, when we hear of some other worthy man asking for an office will say that won't do, that I am the man to be honored. This we would call big I and little u, or the tale of the Hindoo.

So you can see that if Mr. Langhridge is not a candidate I am, and running, too. While it is true dear old McDowell has furnished her share of the brave and free and still within her borders are found the head waters of the Great Pee Dee, and well I am aware that there will be other candidates as well as myself, to all the good people I pledge my honor as a man that if I am nominated and elected that I will fill the office with as much honor and as much credit to myself as any man that ever placed himself at the Register's desk.

Yours very truly,
JNO. K. CRAIG.
