ANGLERS' FLIES.

The Earth Ransacked for Feathers and Hairs to Make Them.

There are trout and salmon fishers who pay several thousand dollars a year for the "flies" alone.

The business done in mouse whiskers is considerable, for they are used in the making of a wonderful fly, the "gray knat," and they are expensive, costing nearly 2 cents a whisker.

Trout rise much better at mouse whisker flies than at the same "gnat" dressed in junglecock hackles, which look much like them.

Bears' eyebrows, being stiff and exactly the right shade, are used in a fly that has killed quantities of salmon. These eyebrows come from the Himalayan brown bear and cost about $1.50 a set.

There are agents all over the world searching tropical forests for the right birds to supply fly hackles. One of the most sought after skins is that of the rare "green screamer," an African bird about the size of a hen, which has a tiny bunch of feathers on each shoulder that is worth $15 a bunch to the fly maker.

There is no limit to the enthusiasm of an artistic fly tier, who will use hair from his own eyelashes to finish off an "extra special" fly.

It takes an expert only fifteen minutes to turn out a fly which consists of a tiny hook with wings of Egyptian dove feather, legs of fox hair and a body of mouse fur wound around with a thread of yellow silk.

Teething children have more or less diarrhoea, which can be controlled by Irving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Until a short while ago a Denver lawyer and his wife had spent all their married life in a flat.

SHOWS IN LONDON

Crowds That Gather to Secure Seats in the Pit.

A LONG WAIT FOR TICKETS.

The Line, Orderly and Well Dressed, Begins to Form as Early as 5 o'Clock in the Afternoon and in Case of a Popular Play Even Earlier.

In the better London theaters it costs 2s. 6d. to go into the pit, which, relatively speaking, is a good sum to pay, for a half dollar in New York isn't much better than a shilling in London when it comes to purchasing value.

The pit crowd begins to assemble as early as 5 o'clock in the afternoon and in cases of a great success even earlier than that.

"I'll 'old your place for you, sir," he repeated. "What time 'll you be back?"

"I'll be all right, sir," he said in his cheerful cockney way. "Is the lady coming too? Me and me friend 'll stand in line, and all you'll have to do will be to change places with us when you come around tonight.

"No, no," answered the druggist, looking closely at the man's face; "no, not a shave—merely a hair cut."

The world's most successful medicine for bowel complaints is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

DO IT NOW.

Marion People Should Not Wait Until It is Too Late.

The appalling death-rate from kidney disease is due in most cases to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious.

If you suffer from backache, head aches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they cure where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them.

Here is one of many cases in this vicinity. G. L. Wilson, Green St., Rutherfordton, N. C., says: "My son suffered from weak kidneys for a long time.

At last," said the literary young man, "I have succeeded in having my poetry taken seriously."

Recognition. "At last," said the literary young man, "I have succeeded in having my poetry taken seriously."

Man's Memory. A man forgets his good luck next day, but remembers his bad luck until next year.

A Pain Remedy. Both internal and external is needed daily by almost every family. Keep a bottle of Dr. Bell's Anti-Pain Good for all kinds of bowel troubles.

Up in the Air. "He's a rainbow chaser." "Is that why he bought an airship?"

Work 24 Hours a Day. The busiest little things ever made are Dr. King's New Life Pills.

A Popular Exhibit. The government stamp collection at Washington is visited each year by 1,000,000 men.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of J. C. Ayer & Co.
