HOUSE PASSES FREE LIST BILL

Republicans Filibuster Vainly to Prevent a Vote.

Washington, May 8.—After nine hours of continuous hounding at the hands of the Republican minority the house failed to make any changes in the Democratic tariff bill, placing agricultural implements, meats and other articles on the free list and passed the measure 236 to 109. All the Democrats and 24 Republicans voted for it. One hundred amendments, offered by the Republicans, were rejected, being thrown out as not permissible under the house rules, demonstrating the efficiency of the Democratic rules in regard to amendments.

The Republican leaders denounced the Democrats for denying freedom in debate. Payne asserted that the Democrats would be discredited before the country for arbitrary exercise of the majority power.

"Hobble and harem skirts will not be tolerated this year," said Chairman Soben of the association. "They have been forgotten long ago by the manufacturers."

Those Pretty Toes.

Mack's National Monthly. A bachelor was riding in a Pullman sleeper. The opposite berth was occupied by a pretty little woman and her two year old boy. Early in the morning mother and child were laughing and playing together, and the good-natured bachelor, smiling serenely as he arose to dress, felt that he would like to join in their fun. Suddenly a little foot peeped out from between the curtains of the opposite berth, and, with a merry twinkle in his eye, the bachelor grabbed the plump toes and began: "This little pig went to market. This little—

"That is my foot sir," said the indignant woman.

The bachelor hastily grabbed for all his belongings and completed his trip in the seclusion of the smoking compartment of the car.
