Mrs. McCall Hostess.

One of the most charming of the pre-nuptial events of the Crawford-Carson wedding, which will occur October 17th, was a party given Friday afternoon by Mrs. William McCall, sister of the bride-to-be. The game "42" was played at six tables. A beautiful two-course luncheon was served at six o'clock, the ices being daintily encased in white roses with green stems. The favors were cornucopias filled with pink roses, the guest of honor's being an immense one of white and green filled with white bride's roses.

Those present were Mesdames Kirby, Hudgins, Decker, Pless, Ashworth, Thomas, Justice, McCall, Craig, Blanton, Reid and Winborne; Misses Laura Crawford, Stanford, Neal, Decker, Crawford, Hudgins, Morgan and Morpew.
