If Canada finds herself a little lonely and neglected it is entirely her own fault.

He who thinks that every other place is better than his own home is not fit to have a home.

Catawba Valley News.

Catawba Valley, Oct. 16.—Well, Old Jack Frost hasn't made his appearance yet.

Miss Maggie Marsh has returned to Round Hill after a short visit with homefolks.

Robert Dowl of Thermal City was visiting "friends" here Saturday and Sunday.

A few of our young people enjoyed a candy stew at the home of J. W. Marsh Saturday night. Those present were Misses Maggie Marsh, Alice, Ethel, Bertha and Lottie Padgett, Emma and Laura Pendergrass, Hattie Pendergrass, Mary Lou Moody and Cordelia Erwin; Messrs. John Marsh, Robert Dowl, Henry McCall, Fred Pendergrass, Marion Padgett, Edward, Fred, Lawrence, Guy and Troy Moody, Claude Erwin, Garland Pendergrass and Carl Eppely. Willis Early and Beecher Hudgins. Pleasant conversation and sociable games were enjoyed. The guests departed at a late hour and a jolly time was declared.

Well, the Fair is about here. Is everybody ready to enjoy it?

HIAWATHA.

Garden City Tidings.

Theo. Gowan of Raleigh visited his mother, Mrs. J. P. Gowan, for several days and returned home Sunday.

Mr. Peoples and wife returned to their home in Tennessee after having visited their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Ray, for some time.

Mrs. Carrie Yancey and Mrs. James Morris of Marion were the guests of Mrs. J. P. Gowan, Friday week.

Miss Bessie Holland and brother Robert of Marion visited their aunt, Mrs. L. A. Chapman, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gibbs of Oregon are visiting the former's brother, H. A. Gibbs.

Misses Myrtle and Pearl Austin of Gibbs are visiting their grandfather, L. A. Chapman.

The graded road of Buck Creek is progressing very fast. The chain gang is in about one mile and a half from the Club House.

DINAH.

Nebo Happenings.

Nebo, Oct. 17.—Most all of our exhibit for the fair is complete and we are contemplating an enjoyable time Friday and Saturday. We get Friday as a holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brown visited at the home of Joe Padgett Sunday.

Miss Donnie McGimsey and Fletcher Simmons spent the latter part of the week in Morganton.

Miss Eufola Ledbetter visited her brother, Otis Ledbetter, in Marion last Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Lillian Lonon, Edith Lonon, Madge Brown, Eddie Young, Dora Souther, Fae Conley, Arrie Hicks and Mattie Hicks were shopping in Marion Saturday.

Messrs. Billie Wilson and Thurman Ledbetter visited their sisters in Nebo Sunday.

Our advertising columns constitute an interesting and attractive part of the paper. Don't fail to read each one carefully.

The Post says a cannon ball, 12 inches long, 6 inches in diameter and weighing 25 pounds, was unearthed by a street repair gang in Salisbury a few days ago. It is believed the ball was fired by Stoneman's troops when they were in charge of Salisbury in April, 1865.

Here is one from the Durham Herald that hits the nail on the head, drives it home and clinches it: "There should be sufficient sentiment in any community in favor of law enforcement to insure adequate punishment when one is convicted of violating the prohibition laws."
