Miss Mary Decker Passes.

The entire community was saddened Monday morning when it was known that Miss Mary Decker had passed peacefully away Sunday night at 10:30 o'clock. A few weeks ago she had been stricken with a very mild case of typhoid fever and her illness had been such that there had been no thought or fear regarding her return to health until a week ago when complications brought a critical situation and no hopes were given for her recovery.

Miss Decker, with her mother, came here fourteen years ago from Gibson, Pa., where she was born, to make their home with her half brothers—Messrs. John E. and C. E. Decker—residing in the home of C. E. Decker.

Miss Decker was a devoted Christian woman; her faith was not without many beautiful works. For years she was always in the Sunday School and organist in the church. Her kind, gentle, patient disposition won her many friends who gave evidence of their love and friendship in the profusion of beautiful flowers that completely covered her casket and grave. She was at all times filled with a tender sympathy for the sick or any in affliction or distress and gladly gave in charity to the needy.

The funeral services were held at the residence at 11 a. m. Tuesday conducted by the Rev. Ira Erwin and Rev. Edward Long. Mr. Erwin spoke many words of great comfort to the bereaved family, especially to her dear devoted mother whose strong faith and Christian fortitude gave her such submission in giving up her only child from whom she had never been separated. The choir sang three of her favorite hymns—"Nearer My God to Thee," "Peace, Perfect Peace," and "Asleep in Jesus."

Yea, she has worthily entered into that sleep of "peace that passeth all understanding."

"The golden sunset brightens in the west, Soon, soon to the faithful cometh perfect rest, Sweet is the calm of paradise the blest."

Reception and Banquet.

The Marion Club has sent out invitations reading as follows:

Marion Club
Opening Reception and Banquet
Friday night, November tenth nineteen hundred eleven eight to eleven

The Club was recently organized with S. H. Yancey president, D. F. Giles, vice-president, and E. C. Guy, secretary and treasurer.

Mrs. H. W. Dysart entertained the Friday Club on Friday p. m. last at her home on Park Hill. The house was effectively decorated in large bowls of white chrysanthemums and potted ferns, a cluster of beautiful chrysanthemums being given each guest as a souvenir of a delightful afternoon. Twelve ladies accepted Mrs. Dysart's hospitality. Tea was served at small tables in the dining room at 5 o'clock.

Rev. Ira Erwin and Rev. J. L. Smith left Tuesday for Statesville to attend the Western North Carolina Conference. The report of Mr. Erwin for Marion Methodist church shows marked progress for the year just closing. The church now has a membership of 261. The accessions during the year were 17. Enrollment in Sunday School 404.

Go to the Eagle Hotel this evening for a good supper. Oysters, ice cream, cake, etc., served as you like it.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to extend thanks to the many friends for their kindness shown my husband and myself during his illness and death.

MRS. WILLIAM GIBBS.
