

SUPPLEMENT TO MARION PROGRESS

MARION, N. C., NOV 23, 1911.

Rutherfordton News.

Rutherfordton, Nov. 20 — "The days of our years are three score years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be four score years, yet is their strength labor and sorrow," etc. In the passing of Mr. Charles Yelton, Rutherfordton lost one of her citizens whose days were four score years and seven, thus showing that God's word is true. Mr. Yelton was the father of our townsman, Mr. Archy Yelton, treasurer of Rutherford county, and doubtless father and son are remembered by readers of Marion Progress.

Rev. R. H. Herring, pastor of the Baptist church here, has the sympathy of friends, having a few days ago, carried his wife to the Rutherford Hospital where she underwent an operation. It will be recalled that Bro. Herring lost his first wife in March 1910, at that institution, however, no blame was laid on the management.

The writer learns that Rev. L. E. Stacey, the retiring pastor of the Rutherfordton Methodist church, will with his family, move this week to Shelby, and it is expected that the new pastor, Rev. R. E. Hunt, of Randleman, will arrive in this city the latter part of the week. The officers and leading members of that church, will no doubt give Bro. Hunt a hearty welcome as pastor.

The temperance workers of Rutherford county, will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Effie M. Lamberth, national lecturer of the W. C. T. U. will deliver an address at the court house here next Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. It is understood that she has lectured in twenty-two states and is prepared to recite and give chalk talks to schools.

Members of the Presbyterian congregation here anxiously await the decision of Rev. F. B. Rankin, of Hamlet, who was recently called to the pastorate of that church, having had different ministers, but had no pastor for two years.

GORDON.

Sugar Hill News.

Sugar Hill, Nov. 20 — Vick Harris of Otter Creek was a pleasant visitor here last week.

Quite a crowd from here attended the P. S. O. of A. association at White Pine last week and reported a fine time, and plenty of good dinner.

I. C. Crawford was in Marion on business last week.

It seems as if "Isaac" will freeze yet.
