President Opposed to Government Owning Telegraph.

President Taft last Thursday informed Congress that he did not approve of Postmaster General Hitchcock's suggestion that the government buy and operate all telegraph lines as an adjunct of the postal system. Mr. Taft said that if it could be shown that the public would benefit by receiving service at a less price than it now paid he might think differently of the plan, but that he was not convinced such would be the effect.

The Pupils Knew.

"These kids I teach aren't a bit slow," observed a school teacher recently. "In fact, I'm afraid they read the papers. The other day I proposed the following problem to my arithmetic class:

"A rich man dies and leaves $1,000,000. One fifth is to go to his wife, one-sixth to his son, one-eighth to his brother and the rest to foreign missions. What does each get?"

"A lawyer," said the smallest boy in the class promptly."—Case and Comment.

The Prettiest One.

The prettiest woman that I ever see, I'll tell you the truth, just between you and me; She isn't no dazler, and some fellows might Not stop to look twice, but she's my choice all right. She's not so blamed strong for the thing the call style, She don't wear her hair in a half-bushel pile, The beauty shops never make much off'n her, She don't have her gowns made in Paris. No, sir! She don't strut around like a peacock and pose, She don't keep a dabbin' white stuff on her nose, I have heard of the beauties of Spain and France, But with me they would not stand a ghost of a chance. I have gazed upon paintings of world's famous queens, And I've seen a good many made-up actresses, But the woman who used to bounce me on her knee, She's the prettiest woman that I ever see. —Pearson's Weekly.

A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

Dr. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgment.

This "Discovery" is a pure, glyceric extract of American medical roots, absolutely free from alcohol and all injurious, habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on its wrappers.
