Mrs. J. A. Sinclair and daughter, Edith, of Asheville, are visiting Mrs. Geo. I. White.

Walter Laughridge has been off duty at the postoffice for several days on account of sickness.

There will be a good program at the Savoy Theatre tonight (Thursday), including "Northern Hearts," a great story of the Northwest in winter.

J. D. Jimison was called to Morganton last week by the death of his mother, Mrs. J. D. Jimison, who died Tuesday from an attack of lagrippe.

Farmers from different sections of the county report that wheat is looking fine and that the prospects at this time are encouraging for a good wheat crop.

Mrs. E. C. Guy, of Hendersonville, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Landis. She returned Monday accompanied by Mr. Guy, who spent Sunday here.

S. W. Cannon, of Hankins, while cutting timber last Friday, struck his foot with an ax, cutting an artery and inflicting an ugly wound. He came to town Saturday and had the wound dressed.

Dr. P. D. Sinclair, of Marion, has rented rooms in the second story of the Lyman building on Union street and will open a dental office the first of next month. —Morganton News-Herald.

D. F. Giles left yesterday for Chicago, Ill., and other points on a business trip. He was accompanied by Mrs. Giles and daughter to St. Louis, Mo., where they will spend several weeks with relatives.

W. W. Neal of Marion has been appointed by Governor Craig a director of the North Carolina School for the Deaf and Dumb at Morganton for a term of six years. His father held this position for a number of years.

Cake Sale.

Miss Annie Little, who recently underwent an operation in Asheville, returned home last week and her friends will rejoice to learn that she is improving.

Mrs. J. W. Kirby received from a friend in Florida a few days ago a coconut by parcel post. It came without wrapper or tag, the address being written on the external rind on which the necessary postage was stamped, amounting to 23 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carson of Rutherfordton returned home Thursday. Mrs. Carson has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Crawford, during the absence of the former, who has been in Raleigh for two months, where he had gone as a state senator.

Have you seen the proposed new graded school building now on exhibit in J. S. Hopper's store window? If not, take a look at it and see if you don't think it's the kind of school building Marion needs and should have. The present conditions demand it.

R. L. Greenlee has been elected city engineer of Gastonia and left Monday for Gastonia to assume his new duties. Mr. Greenlee was recently employed at Statesville where he had charge of the laying of the bitulithic streets, concrete sidewalks and other improvements.

The regular fifth Sunday meeting of the Green River Association will be held with the Round Hill Baptist church at Union Mills beginning Friday night, March 28, and continuing through Sunday. An interesting program has been arranged and an enthusiastic meeting is expected.

There will be services on Good Friday at 4 p. m. at St. John's, Marion, also on Easter Day at 11 a. m. and 4 p. m. and at St. Gabriel's, Old Fort, at 7:30 p. m. Easter day. Sunday School and Bible class every Sunday at St. John's, Marion, at 10 a. m. All are cordially invited.

Marion and vicinity was visited by a severe electric storm last Thursday night. Lightning played all sorts of pranks for a while and the thunder was the hardest heard for some time at this season of the year. The hardest rain of the season fell during the night and Friday. Muddy Creek and other streams were the highest they have been this winter.

Easter services will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday. A special program of Easter music has been arranged by the choir, and the pastor will preach a sermon at 11 a. m. on "The Resurrection." At night a special sermon will be delivered on "The Dignity of Manual Labor." The public is most cordially invited to attend both these services.

Attorney and Mrs. J. W. Winborne will occupy the dwelling formerly occupied by T. L. Epley, on Logan street, as soon as a number of improvements are made on the house. Mr. Winborne will have the house moved back several feet, repainted and otherwise improved. The comfort and appearance of the place will be much improved when the changes are completed. T. A. White has the contract for moving the building and has begun work.

Friends of Mr. J. W. McCall, superintendent of Henrietta Graded School, will be pleased to learn that one of his pupils won the declaimer's medal at the county commencement at Rutherfordton on March 14. The medal was hotly contested for and that the Henrietta boy won speaks well for the school and is evidence that Mr. McCall is doing good work. Mr. McCall is a native of this county and has taught in the McDowell schools, his last work being at Old Fort.
