"Working" the Papers.

Raleigh News and Observer.

A few days ago the News and Observer had a few words to say about the impositions practised upon the newspapers of the State, referring especially to the country papers, by those who do all they can to obtain free advertising of one kind or another, sometimes in the matter of business, sometimes in matters of a more personal kind.

That editorial has been given increased publicity by a number of papers in the State. Concerning this the New Bern Sun-Journal, in speaking of the matter, says: "The News and Observer declares that the weekly papers are worked to death by the free space grabbers. The News and Observer is right, but it should have extended its scope and taken in the daily newspapers also. Some people seem to think that newspapers are run on hot air and never once consider coming across for any space which they secure from the press."

Saying that this paper in its remarks about "working" the papers "preaches a very timely editorial sermon," the Greenville Reflector republishes it, and in part says concerning the views of this paper: "It speaks especially of the country newspaper, but our opinion is that the News and Observer itself has been victimized more than once. The Reflector pleads guilty as a sufferer, but has plenty of company. It is a hard matter to convince some people that a newspaper is other than a medium for free publication of everything or that it really needs money to live upon."

The News and Observer knows full well that the daily papers are "worked" in a more or less degree by the free advertising crowd, but this to a far less extent than formerly, for the reason that stricter business methods are now in vogue with daily papers. It is that we might, as far as we could, impress the need for this upon the newspapermen of the State that we first spoke of the matter. It will be found that when all these free advertising efforts are reduced to business methods that the papers will be far more appreciated, that the men in charge will be rid of nuisances, and their receipts increased, this latter enabling them to furnish their patrons a better paper and to care for their own interests at the same time.

The Business of Life.

The art of saying much in a short space is not possessed by many writers. This art to a fine degree makes Norman Hapgood of Harper's Weekly one of the country's great editors. Here is an expression of it from Mr. Hapgood's pen: Jesus said, "A man's life consisteth not in the abundance of things which he possesseth." Perhaps of all the truths in the Bible none is more needed in this age. A missionary said, "My business is to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ; I cobble shoes we need to pay expenses, but the business of life should be the forwarding of truth, the putting of it in practice, the raising of ourselves, the community and those who have need of us."

The North Carolina Baracophilathea organization will hold its state meeting at Goldsboro April 27-30. Dr. Chas. D. Bulla, of Nashville, Tenn., superintendent of the Wesley Adult Class Department of the M. E. Church, South, will be one of the principal speakers.

Fire at Spray, Rockingham county, Wednesday, destroyed a business building and caused a total loss of about $20,000, partially covered by insurance.

ANOTHER MARION CASE

It Proves That There's A Way Out for Many Suffering Marion Folks.

Just another report of a case in Marion. Another typical case. Kidney ailments relieved in Marion with Doan's Kidney Pills.

J. F. Williams, mgr. Telephone Co., Johnson St., Marion, says: "I was all run down from kidney trouble and the best doctors in the state held out no hope for my recovery. I had rheumatic twinges throughout my body, was extremely nervous and didn't sleep well. The kidney secretions were scanty and scalded in passage. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Streetman's Drug Store and they cured me." (Statement given February 10th, 1911.)

Over Three Years Later Mr. Williams said: "Since I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills, I have had no sign of kidney trouble. I think they saved my life."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Williams has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Big Fire in Nashville.

Nashville, Tenn., March 22.—A small ball of yarn, lighted and thrown by a boy into dry grass in a vacant lot started a conflagration in Nashville at noon today which was not under control late this afternoon, after thirty-five residence blocks had been swept by the fire. The loss is estimated at $1,500,000.

A wind driving at fifty miles an hour fanned the burning grass into a torrent of flames which quickly caught a planing mill and leaped from building to building until at least 600 residences had been destroyed, the East Nashville sub-postoffice burned down, the big Warner public school in ruins and several churches consumed.

NATIONAL SLOGAN SUGGESTED BY PROMINENT MEMPHIS DRUGGIST

Would Remind the Public to Prevent Sickness by Removing the Cause

T. D. BALLARD

a prominent druggist of Memphis says: "Much sickness could and would be prevented if the public would only remember that constipation is one of the first causes. As a reminder, I would suggest the slogan,

"Rexall Orderlies, the laxative tablet with the pleasant taste."

"I suggest Rexall Orderlies as I know their formula and believe they are the best remedy for relieving constipation. They can be used by men, women or children."

We have the exclusive selling rights for this great laxative.
