A Puzzler.

"Now, sir," demanded the crossexamining lawyer, "did you or did you not, on the date in question or at any other time, say to the defendant or any one else that the statement imputed to you and denied by the plaintiff was a matter of no moment or otherwise? Answer me, yes or no."

The witness looked bewildered. 'Yes or no what?" he finally managed to gasp out.

Farmers and Dudelets.

"Oh, he's just a farmer out here in the country."

We stood on a street corner the other day and heard that remark passed by one of the "brilliant" young masculine striplings of our town as he "bummed" the makings from a friend.

The farmer, to be sure, was just a farmer "out here in the country." He wore overalls and drove his wagon into town, but at home his automobile rested snugly in the garage. He owns one of the most valuable farms in this whole section of the state. His home life is ideal and his wife and children have everything they desire. His simple word is as good as a check. and his check would be honored for a sum that might stagger you.

He is a man, a real man, a man whom other men acknowledge to be a man among men, even if he is "just a farmer out here in the country."

But what of the stripling, what of the dudelet?

He is just one of that numerous class who always know everything and never do anything, who amount to nothing and are worth less. He is just a dudelet, and it is doubtful if he ever attains to the "dignity" Send us your Garments and have of being a real dude.

Yes, he is "just a farmer out here in the country," but he is our friend, he is everybody's friend, and time may prove him to be the "friend in need" of the poor, vapid, brainless dudelet.

We need a thousand more just like him-this man who is "just a farmer out here in the country" and whom we are proud to know as our friend.

Poor, deluded dudelet! May he never be worse!

NORTH CAROLINA NEWS BRIEFS.

There are several Goldsboro "boys" belonging to Uncle Sam's regular army who are doing service just now on the Mexican border, among them being Lieutenant Broadhurst, Eighth United States Cavalry, son of Capt. and Mrs. D. J. Broadhurst, of Goldsboro. Up to the present time no messages have ben sent home by any of the Goldsboro men at the front that would in any way corroborate the alarming reports which are daily sent out from the border.

Miss Mary B. Palmer of Charlotte. president of the North Carolina Library Association has announced the program for the convention in Gastonia, April 12 and 13.
