Tragic Death of Plato Glenn.

About 1 o'clock last Friday afternoon Plato Glenn slipped and fell into a vat of boiling water at the Gilkey veneer plant, where he was employed, and his entire body was scalded. He was quickly rescued by friends and after being given every attention possible by local physicians was rushed to the hospital at Rutherfordton, where he died at 9 o'clock Friday night.

Mr. Glenn was a son of D. M. Glenn of Little Switzerland and a brother to Mrs. C. W. Buchanan of this place. He was 21 years old and well known here, having graduated from the Marion graded school two years ago.

The remains were met by relatives here Saturday and taken to Little Switzerland for interment.

Three Men Killed in Freight Train Wreck Last Saturday.

Eastbound freight train No. 88 was wrecked at the 97 mile post three miles east of Marion at 3:30 o'clock last Saturday morning. The train crew escaped without injury but two men and a boy riding the freight were killed outright, and a fourth man slightly injured. The dead were identified as John Williams, of Morganton, Charles Grady, of Drexel, and Garland Epley, aged 15, of Glen Alpine. The injured man was J. H. Britton, of Eufola. Mr. Britton sustained injuries about the head and back.

Seven carloads of coal and two box cars left the track. At 7:30 Division Trainmaster King with his wrecking crew began the work of rescuing the dead bodies and clearing the track. The track was soon cleared but all trains were held up until the bodies had all been recovered. Passenger train No. 36 was detained here about three hours and No. 15 delayed about one hour.

A MATTER OF BUSINESS.

It is poor business to neglect your health. Your health depends mostly on the condition of your teeth.

Aside from the pain of toothache, neuralgia, a foul breath and bad appearance, you are incapacitated for any kind of work or business.

It is a matter of good or bad business judgement whether you have your teeth attended to by the old slip shod and unsanitary methods, or in an up-to-date scientific manner.
