TO ERADICATE QUACK GRASS

Young Plants Are Easily Killed If Attacked Before They Have Formed Underground Stems.

Young quack-grass plants, if attacked before they have formed underground stems, are as easily killed as plants of wheat or other grains of the same age.

Manure containing quack-grass seed may be applied on plowed ground before preparing the soil for a cultivated crop. The seed will grow the same season and the young plants will be killed in the preparation of the seed-bed and the cultivation of the crop.

Digging by hand and removing from the field all portions of the plant, smothering with tar paper, and spraying with a solution of sodium arsenite are best for the complete eradication of quack grass on small spots.

All methods of eradication on large fields are based on thorough tillage.

CHEAPEST GAINS ON PASTURE

Feed Cost for Brood Sow With Litter Cut in Two by Turning Them on Alfalfa or Clover.

Pigs make the cheapest gains on pasture. Trials at the North Dakota experiment station indicate that brood sows running on good pasture and nursing litters will do as well when receiving one to one and a half pounds of grain per 100 pounds live weight of sow as sows in dry lot receiving two and a half pounds grain per day per each 100 pounds live weight. The pasture just about cuts the feed cost in two. The pasture alone does not furnish enough feed for either the brood sow with litter or for the weaned pigs. They should be fed some grain, so as to make a rapid growth. In this way the spring pig can be ready for market before real cold weather sets in.

Alfalfa, clover, broilous and winter rye make the earliest pastures. When these have not been provided, early spring seeding of such grains as oats and barley or rape are the next best thing.

Equalization.

Professor Brander Matthews was overheard once talking with Mr. Carnegie.

"I notice, Mr. Carnegie," he said, "that you don't lip."

"And why should I?" asked the philanthropist.

"Well," slowly answered the professor, "maybe they pull them alternately."

FOR COMMISSIONER OF LABOR AND PRINTING

David P. Dellinger, Former Legislator From Gaston County, Announces His Candidacy, Subject to the Democratic Primary June 3, 1916.

Mr. David P. Dellinger, of Gaston county, announces that he is a candidate for the office of Commissioner of Labor and Printing.

Mr. Dellinger's whole life has been spent in close touch with and in the interest of the working man. He has had large experience in legislation and was prominent in the House in 1913, when a particularly hard fight was made on the subject of labor legislation.

His knowledge of the printing business is thorough, having been gained through actual experience in the printing business. He advocates the policy of the State furnishing text books free to the children of the public free schools, and believes it can be done for less than one-half the cost to the public under the present system.

His record in the legislatures of 1909, 1913 and 1915 commend him to the confidence and support of all the people. It

Voting in the Primary.

There is some complaint that the primary law disfranchises the independent voter; that unless one is a party man—a Democrat or a Republican and so declares—he can't vote in the primary and is, therefore, disfranchised. The primary law was of course made for political parties—to enable the voters of a party to select the candidates for the party; and being a party affair it was not expected that voters who claim no party allegiance would seek the privilege of helping to name candidates for a party. All voters, of course, have the privilege of voting for whom they please at the regular election. But in the primary affair—to name candidates to represent the party—the voting is supposed to be the peculiar privilege of the party members.

In North Carolina a good many voters vote the Democratic State and county tickets but vote for Republicans in national elections. As Attorney General Bickett interprets the primary law, a voter who votes the Democratic State and county ticket can vote in the State and county boxes in the Democratic primary, regardless of his national party affiliation; but he can't vote a mixed ticket in the primary—for both Democrats and Republicans—because the primary is a party affair and the law is made for the convenience of members of parties—simply provides a method for selecting party candidates.—Statesville Landmark.

McConnell Flies Over German Lines

Paris, May 17.—Corporal J. R. McConnell, of Carthage, N. C., today took part in the first aerial expedition which the American aviators in the service of the French army have made over the German lines since the Franco-American flying corps was organized as a separate unit. Though Corporal McConnell was flying at a height of twelve thousand feet the German shells were bursting all around him, showing that the range of the German anti-aircraft guns has been lengthened.

As the corps recrossed the front they were subjected to a particularly heavy shelling, but all escaped uninjured.

A Symbol of Health.

The Pythagorians of Ancient Greece ate simple food, practiced temperance and purity. As a badge they used the five pointed star which they regarded as a symbol of health. A red five pointed star appears on each package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and still fulfils its ancient mission as a symbol of health. If you are troubled with indigestion, biliousness or constipation, get a package of these tablets from your druggist. You will be surprised at the quick relief which they afford. Obtainable everywhere.

A few years ago it was not thought that automobiles would be used extensively except on paved streets and boulevards around the cities. Now they use the things to drive up the cows and go 'bossum hunting.

WHAT CATARRH IS

It has been said that every third person has catarrh in some form.

Science has shown that nasal catarrh often indicates a general weakness of the body; and local treatments in the form of snuffs and vapors do little, if any good.

To correct catarrh you should treat its cause by enriching your blood with the oil-food in Scott's Emulsion which is a medicinal food and a building-tonic, free from alcohol or any harmful drugs. Try it. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.
