Coins to be Cast in New Designs.
Washington, May 31.—Dimes, quarters and half dollars of new design will be minted after July 1, Secretary McAdoo announced today. For the first time since 1891, a change will be effected in these pieces. The announcement disclosed that the half dollar has fallen practically into disuse. The new design was selected with hope of restoring it to more general circulation, it was indicated. Under the new coinage each piece will be of different design. The half dollar and dime models were made by Adolph A. Weinman and the new quarter dollar by Herman A. MacNeil. Both are sculptors of note. The face of the new half dollar bears a full length figure of Liberty, with a background of the American flag flying to the breeze. The goddess is striding toward the dawn of a new day, carrying laurel and oak branches, symbolic of civil and military glory. The reverse side shows an eagle perched high upon a mountain crag, wings unfolded. Growing from a rift in the rock is a sapling of mountain pine, symbolic of America. The design of the twenty-five cent piece is intended to typify the awakening of the country to its own protection, Secretary McAdoo's announcement stated. Liberty, a full length figure, is shown stepping toward the country's gate way, bearing upraised a shield from which the covering is being drawn. The right hand bears an olive branch of peace. Above the head is the word "Liberty" and below the feet, 1916." The reverse bears a figure of an eagle in full flight, wings extended, and the inscriptions "United States of America" and "E Pluribus Unum."

Both the half dollar and quarter bear the phrase "In God We Trust."
The design of the dime is simple. Liberty with a winged cap is shown on the fore side and on the reverse is a design of a bundle of rods and a battle axe, symbol of unity, "wherein lies the nation's strength."

Typhoid Vaccination Found Effective.
The efficacy of typhoid vaccination as a means of rendering immunization to typhoid fever has again been tested. This time it was by the health department of New York City. According to figures given out by that department, 8,101 persons had been directly exposed to this disease and only 534 of the number accepted the immunizing treatment, receiving two or three doses. This left a remainder of 7,567 who either refused to become immunized or received the first dose only. Of the 534 who took the immunizing treatment, not one contracted typhoid fever, but of the 7,567 who did not take the treatment, 161, or over 2 per cent, took fever. "These figures," says the State Board of Health, "reveal several interesting facts regarding anti-typhoid vaccination. In the first place, they strikingly show to what degree vaccination—three complete doses—is a protection in case of direct exposure to typhoid. Not one of the number exposed who took the three treatments took the disease. In the second place, it shows to what extent vaccination may prevent institutional outbreaks, or epidemics, of typhoid; and again, it all the more emphasizes the important point that if vaccination will protect where infection is known to exist, how much more it will protect from insidious carriers and where infection is not known to exist. "While it is exceedingly advisable," says the Board, "to be vaccinated against this disease on hav-
