

CALOMEL IS MERCURY! IT SICKENS! ACTS ON LIVER LIKE DYNAMITE

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Starts Your Liver
Better Than Calomel and Doesn't
Salivate or Make You Sick.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work! Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone on my guarantee.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick. I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

Mexico.

Charlotte Observer.

At the present time and for days to come Mexico will be a subject of vital interest to the average American home and information about the country to which our soldiers are going will be eagerly sought and discussed. Our people know in a general way that Mexico is a country of desert and cactus, of heat and of sand storms, a country abounding in conditions of hardships to an invading army, and those who hold to the idea that war with Mexico means play, may as well be now undecieved. There can be no doubt of the issue of the struggle. The United States will be the conquerer, but the cost is going to be heavy. The line dividing the United States from Mexico is nearly 2,000 miles long. It separates four American border States and one territory. There are 250 "markers" for the boundary line, Mexico and the United States having jointly contributed to the cost. The markers are six feet tall, are of cast iron and set in cement. They cost $150 each. The soldiers are going to encounter blistering heat by day and chilling air by night. There will be deserts to cross and mountains to scale. Our troops are going into country that will try their mettle. There are many hardships that they cannot hope to avoid, but one good thing which could be wished for them would be few experiences with the desert sand storm. The Observer finds an entertaining account in a letter by the National Geographical Society of an encounter with a sand storm in a valley west of the Pozo Verde Mountains, 200 miles east of the Colorado River, by the surveying party which erected the markers. They described the storm as one which in severity rivals the torrid tempests of the Sahara Desert. Reporting their experience the members of the party said that about 4 o'clock in the afternoon a dense, dark-brown cloud was seen rising in the south, which presented a singularity threatening appearance. The sun, which until then had been shining brightly, was soon overcast, and in a few moments after cloud was first noticed the storm burst in all its fury, filling the atmosphere to a height of several hundred feet with the loose soil of the valley. In ten or fifteen minutes after the storm burst it became as black as midnight, respiration was almost impossible, and it was only by breathing through a handkerchief held in front of the mouth that suffocation was avoided. In about half an hour the wind began to subside and the darkness to diminish, and finally, in a little over two hours after the storm commenced, the setting sun shone faintly through the particles of dust which filled the air.
