MISSES DAVIS

Attention!

All realize that this section has suffered from flood conditions and while the demand for feed stuffs will be great the people have not so much money, therefore with this in view we are prepared to do our part by furnishing a fine line of

Flour, Feeds and Hay

at prices that will please you and save you money. If you are interested in getting the most for your money don't fail to see us.

MARION CASH FEED COMPANY

FORGET IT!

By JUDD MORTIMER LEWIS.
 The Christmas tree is all alight between us and the trenches; beyond it lies a greivous fight and suffering and stench; this side of it are all things good, and little folks are singing, and over field and stream and wood their joyous tones are winging. So let us pull the curtain down on periscopes and dying, and spread our smiles all over town, and cut out sobs and sighing. The little folks know naught of war, and little folks are happy; they have no notion what it's for nor why the kings are scrappy; and we know no more than they do of the outlandish reason; so let us sing: "The skies are blue, it is the Christmas season!" So let us bring the turkey in and tote in wood for mother, and polish up our Christmas grin and try to love our brother. The world is full of friendships yet, the world is filled with loving, and love outshines a coronet, and sympathy beats shoving. So let us load the Christmas tree and let us wear a posy and join the children in their glee at ring-around-a-rosy!—Houston Post.

Truth Is Paramount.

God promised the people of Jerusalem that he would save the city from destruction if they should find "a man that executeth judgment and seeketh the truth." Each of us in our individual capacity may be the saving power of all our associates. "It behooves us to seek the truth, and, after learning it, to execute judgment in putting into effect that truth. As we approach Christmas time, we are looking for the coming of him who will save the world."

Be careful you don't overlook our big club of four magazines which we are sending our subscribers this year.
