

How to Keep Baby Smiling and Well

See that the daily functions are regular and normal

YOU can't expect the little ones to be happy and playful when the head feels dull and the stomach bloated. The normal habit of children is to be happy and when you notice them cross and fretful you will usually find constipation is responsible.

Perhaps they have missed that daily function so necessary to comfort and health. Look at the tongue and see if the breath is bad. Watch for belching. These are the tell-tale symptoms of constipation. Tonight give a little of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which you can buy at any drug store, and it will act in the morning and the troublesome symptoms promptly disappear.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. Unlike the harsher physics it acts gently and without griping so that while grownups can use it freely it can also be given to a tiny baby with perfect safety. Thousands of American families would not think of being without a bottle in the house for the emergency arises almost daily when it is needed.

In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it. If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 511 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

DISCARDED AS DANGEROUS

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money. If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It is harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

M'ADOO'S INTEREST IS IN HIS COUNTRY ONLY

He Is Not Interested In His Own or Anybody Else's Political Fortunes.

A letter from William G. McAdoo asserting that while he was not interested in the political fortunes of any man, least of all himself, the welfare of the American people alone should determine the choice of the next President, has been made public by John McMurray, secretary of the metal trades council of Brooklyn.

"We must adopt a rational policy with respect to our material resources and development which will preserve the welfare and prosperity of our own peoples," he said, "while at the same time giving to the suffering peoples of other countries all of the help, moral and material, which we, as a generous, high-minded Christian people, should contribute to the restoration of peace and the protection of humanity against the recurrence and horrors of war."

Mr. McAdoo closed by urging all organizations of labor to "assert themselves energetically, intelligently and unitedly against the re-establishment of reaction and in favor of those progressive humane and powerful forces which truly express the interests of the mass of the people."

Mr. McAdoo's letter was written in reply to a communication from Mr. McMurray, inclosing a resolution adopted recently by the council endorsing the former secretary of the treasury for President and expressing faith that if elected he would give a square deal to every one and harmonize every element of the people into a united body.

After thanking the council for its indorsement, Mr. McAdoo asserted that the next administration faced tasks demanding "the highest order of statesmanship, the finest qualities of American patriotism and character, the noblest conceptions of Christian duty and a just regard for the rights of humanity at home and abroad."

Retroactive Taxes for Financing Soldier Relief Branded Unsound by Banker's Meeting

Delay in concluding a treaty of peace, either for individual or political reasons, was characterized as a "crime against civilization," in resolutions adopted by the executive council, American Bankers' association meeting at Pinehurst.

The bankers declared that the future well being of the United States as well as the welfare of the world, depended on the resumption, with all possible speed, of peace time conditions which cannot be accomplished until terms of the treaty have been agreed upon.

The association's attitude toward labor was described as being "a fair return for services rendered," but it was asserted that through present tactics, "labor, in effect is striking at itself and not at capital."

Legislation was urged which will prevent a well organized minority from interfering with the rights of the majority, profiteering being denounced as "an expression of a selfish minority that must be sternly checked."

The financing of the soldier relief program by retroactive taxes was declared to be unsound, in the opinion of the counsel, which recommended that payments to veterans should be made over a period of from two to 10 years.

Substitution of a specially devised sales tax, to replace the present excess profits tax, and early appointment of new members of the interstate commerce commission, so that railroad relief may be quickly secured under the Esch bill, were among other resolutions adopted.

"America must not be prevented from taking her rightful position as a world nation by little Americans, narrow-visioned men or peanut politicians," Francis H. Sisson, New York banker, declared in an address.

Mr. Sisson asserted that despite popular demand for a national merchant marine, one was impossible of creation under the present seaman's act. Enlarged foreign trade, he said, also was impossible without greater governmental encouragement in the way of trade information and adequate protection of American money invested abroad. America's industrial life, he told the bankers, cannot reach its full development without a more public spirited labor.

Wm. J. Christian, aged and influential citizen of Durham, visited his wife's grave a few days ago and died while there.
