SOCIAL AFFAIRS

On Tuesday of last week Mrs. J. F. Wilkerson entertained from four to six o'clock, p. m. with a "Linen Shower" in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Loma James. A circle of a round dozen of Miss James' girl friends gathered on the spacious front porch of the Wilkinson home and enjoyed merry chatter while Miss Edna Tate gave many sweet piano selections.

The hostess then asked that each girl should write a suggestion as to making "A Good Husband," furnishing each with paper and pencil. These suggestions were read aloud and were found so full of thought and wisdom that the judges could not make a decision as to which was best, so "lots were cast" and the prize, a box of stationery, fell to Miss Edna Tate. Later the guests were invited into the dining room, where a delicious salad course was served, followed by mints in dainty little baskets which were tied with yellow ribbon. The circular table represented a gorgeous sunflower, the petals of yellow crepe, and the center a bowl of goldenrod on a large mirror which was surrounded by tiny waxen candles. The shaded lights gave a softened effect to the whole.

After the young people had tried their fortunes by blowing out the candles, the door opened and two beautiful little girls, Dorothy Merrill Wilkinson, and Mary Miller Crawford, entered bearing two brimming baskets of gifts and laid them at the feet of the bride, and as she opened the dainty bundles she seemed to feel very happy in the love and interest of her friends.

Gov. T. W. Bickett will speak at the court house in Marion Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Hon. Cameron Morrison, Democratic nominee for Governor, is also scheduled to speak here October 5th at 7:30 p. m.
