TEACHERS WHO JUMP CONTRACTS HEADED FOR TROUBLE

State Superintendent of Public Instruction E. C. Brooks has notified all city and county superintendents that the State board will not recognize teachers who sign up with one school system and then break their contracts. There is no law against breaking these contracts, but the ruling of the board is that no salary fund for that particular teacher will be provided from the general educational funds of the State.

Should a teacher begin work for one city or one county and break that contract to go to another city or county, the school committee to which she goes will have to provide the pay for the full term, for the State will not provide money for teachers breaking their contracts. Prof. Brooks has sent notices to this effect to the city and county superintendents of the state, asking that they notify him immediately if a teacher breaks her contract and goes to some other city or county to teach.

LOVELACE CAPTURED.

Reports of the capture of Dennis Lovelace, who escaped from the penitentiary last week, was received at the governor's office Wednesday before publication of the $400 reward was made. Lovelace was captured in Winston-Salem. The escaped convict is serving 30 years for the murder of his father-in-law, the original death sentence of the lower court being commuted by the governor after consideration of it. Lovelace is a white man and has been with one of the road gangs since the commutation of his death sentence. In some manner, not made public, the prisoner escaped and the governor immediately authorized the reward for his capture.
