SOCIAL AFFAIRS

Mrs. B. L. Ashworth was hostess Thursday afternoon from four to six o'clock to the Dixie Club, honoring her three guests, Mrs. D. S. Thomas, of Statesville; Mrs. C. C. McBrayer, of Shelby, and Mrs. A. D. Stoner, of Biltmore. The occasion was one of the most charming social affairs of the autumn events.

Mrs. Ashworth's beautiful rooms were bright with cut flowers and autumn leaves. Nine tables were arranged for 108 and the game was played with enthusiasm for an hour and a half, after which a three-course salad luncheon was served. Mrs. Ashworth was assisted in serving by Mrs. W. T. Morgan, Miss Ellen Crawford, Mrs. C. S. Briggs, Mrs. W. R. Chambers and Mrs. J. L. Morgan.

On last Thursday afternoon the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church entertained for Mrs. Parker Holmes at the home of Mrs. J. E. Decker. Quite a number of members were present, and all thoroughly enjoyed the delightful piano and victrola selections by Mrs. Decker and Miss Decker. A special feature was the "good wishes" written upon cards by each member and exchanged, to be read by the different ladies. These were tender expressions evincing the loving regard in which Mrs. Holmes is held. Dainty refreshments were served. Potted plants and exquisite cut flowers decorated the hall, parlor and dining room, adding charm to the occasion. As a parting gift, Mrs. D. E. Hodgins, president of the Aid Society, presented Mrs. Holmes with a beautiful amethyst pin. The ladies will greatly miss Mrs. Holmes as a co-worker and friend.

The Bonerian Literary Society of Nebo High School entertained the N. H. N. Society at the girls' dormitory at Nebo last Friday night from 7:30 until 10 o'clock. The room was beautifully decorated with boughs from the surrounding autumn forests. Promptly at 7:30 the guests began to arrive and were cordially received by Misses McCall, Brown and Spencer. The young people of both societies spent the evening in vying with each other in games and contests. Misses Gaye Brown, Zula Stone and Betty Bowman, the most successful in the "Floral Love Tale" contest, were the recipients of a box of Hersheys. After enjoying a bountiful service of sandwiches, ice cream and cake, all separated declaring the Bonerians to be most excellent hosts.

Mr. Holmes has completed his fourth year as presiding elder of this district, and according to the rules of the conference must be transferred.

"Mrs. Fearless and Company," the play given at Glenwood High School on Saturday night, will be repeated at Clinchfield next Friday night, Oct. 22, and at Nebo on October 23. Miss Euphemia, the nervous old maid; Sarah Jane Lovejoy, who hasn't a nerve in her body, and "Just Lizzie," the ghost, are especially attractive characters.
