MEETING OF U. D. C. OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED

A most enjoyable meeting of the U. D. C. was held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Neal on Monday afternoon. Interesting accounts of the reunion of North Carolina veterans, which convened in Asheville last week, was given by Mrs. E. H. Dysart, Mrs. W. W. Neal and Mrs. D. F. Giles. As this was the time for election of officers, all the present officers were re-elected: Mrs. J. Q. Gilkey, president; Mrs. Minnie Blanton, first vice-president; Miss Pinkie Tate, second vice-president; Mrs. F. B. Gwin, secretary; Mrs. G. S. Kirby, treasurer; Mrs. B. G. Carr, historian; Mrs. E. B. Baber, registrar; Mrs. J. F. Jonas, chaplain; Mrs. J. W. Winborne, leader of childrens chapter.

Mrs. Gilkey has served the chapter a number of years as president and the members feel that they cannot dispense with her services, though she has tried at different times to have some one elected in her place. She is at all times most faithful and loyal to the cause and untiring in her efforts for the good of the chapter. Her place would be hard to fill.

The following delegates leave Monday evening in a special car provided for the Western North Carolina delegates for Wilmington to attend the state convention: Mesdames J. Q. Gilkey, Guy S. Kirby and H. F. Little.

REV. J. T. BOWDEN ELECTED MODERATOR BAPTIST ASSO.

The Green River Baptist Association met with the Round Hill church at Union Mills last Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The attendance was large and the churches were well represented by their delegates. A progressive spirit was manifest throughout the entire session. Rev. J. T. Bowden, pastor of the First Baptist church of Marion, was chosen moderator of the body to succeed M. L. Edwards, of Rutherfordton, who had been moderator three years. The next session will be held with Bethel church, near Glenwood on Friday before the second Sunday in October, 1923, continuing through Sunday as this year.

The Round Hill School came in for a fine boost and the churches subscribed more than $1500 to meet interest, bills and such like to keep the work going in good shape.
