JEANNE NANNEY BECOMES BRIDE OF GUY RABB

Miss Jeanne Nanney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Nanney of Marion, became the bride of Guy Rabb, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rabb of Pleasant Gardens, Saturday night in a ceremony performed at the First Methodist church here. The Rev. J. C. Cornett officiated.

White gladioli, snap dragons and ferns were used to decorate the altar which was flanked on either side by branched candelabra with lighted tapers.

A program of wedding music was furnished by Nelson Parker, organist. The selections included "To a Wild Rose," by MacDowell, and "Sweetest Story Ever Told," by Stults and the traditional Wagnerian processional and the recessional by Mendelssohn.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Horace F. Nanney. She wore a Molyneux suit of heavenly pink wool trimmed in fox. With it she wore navy accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

The bridegroom had as his best man Buster Miller of Marion. Ushers were Sam Nanney, brother of the bride, Clarence Rabb and Roy Rabb, brothers of the bridegroom, and R. L. James, Jr.

After the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Kentucky. On their return, they will make their home in Marion.

Mrs. Rabb is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace F. Nanney of Marion. She was graduated from Marion high school and attended Lees-McRae College at Banner Elk.

Mr. Rabb is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rabb of Pleasant Gardens. He attended Pleasant Gardens high school and Lees-McRae College. He is in business in Marion.

MRS. MOODY HONORED AT BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mrs. W. B. Moody was given a surprise birthday dinner last Sunday at her home on Morgan Road, near Clinchfield, by her children in honor of her 55th birthday. The table was decorated with March flowers.

Twenty-one guests were present. They were W. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hogan and daughter, Shelby Jean Hogan, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Worth Lawing and son, James, all of Marion; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rhodes, Anna Laura, Frank, Jr., and Donald Rhodes, of Skyland; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Galloway, Mark Galloway and son, James, Mr. and Mrs. James Underwood and Mrs. John Kenley of Waynesville.

MISS SPRATT WED TO WOODROW HARRIS

The marriage of Miss Jeanette Spratt of Marion to Woodrow Harris of Marion and Old Fort has been announced. The marriage vows were taken at the home of Rev. Glenn Felment, the bridegroom's cousin, in Converse, S. C., on March 10 with Rev. Mr. Felment officiating.

The bride was attired in a dusty pink dress with which she wore a navy coat and accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of sweetheart roses.

Following the ceremony the couple made a short wedding trip through Eastern North Carolina. They will make their home in Old Fort.

Mrs. Harris is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Spratt of Marion and a graduate of the Marion high school.

Mr. Harris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Harris of Old Fort. He attended the Old Fort schools and has been in business in Marion for the last several years.

MISS M'INTOSH ENTERTAINS CLUB AND GUESTS

Miss Carolyn McIntosh was hostess to her bridge club and several additional guests at a lovely party last Saturday afternoon at her home in Old Fort. A profusion of jonquils decorated the home where three tables were set up for contract bridge.

After a number of interesting progressions, Mrs. J. E. Neal, Jr., was given the high score prize and Miss Eunice Wilkinson the consolation. Guest prizes were given to Miss Nora Kirkland of Durham, houseguest of the hostess, and Mrs. Robert Hilt and Miss Edith Hilt of Philadelphia, houseguests of Mrs. D. M. McIntosh, Jr. A delicious salad and sweet course was served.
