NYA GIRLS AT OLD FORT SPONSOR MANY PROJECTS

Through religious, civic, welfare and social channels members of the girls' project of the National Youth Administration at Old Fort are establishing for themselves and their organization a definite place in the life of the town. Scarcely a public program of interest is without their assistance in some way. At a recent Farmers Federation picnic held in Old Fort and attended by 1200 people from all over the county, the NYA girls were awarded first place in the singing groups, and for a prize were presented twenty new song books. The girls were also invited to attend the annual Western North Carolina Federation picnic which is attended by thousands of people, and serve on the entertainment part of the program, as well as competing for the big prizes in singing. Girls who are off duty will attend.

During the month of August the NYA girls at Old Fort are sponsoring a series of square dances which are given at the Community building. The dances have been so popular that members of the Chamber of Commerce have requested a continuance of them through the fall months as a social feature in the life of the town.

Everything undertaken is not only an activity but a learning project, and is designed as a vocational guidance to later work. In the new three months' project proposal are given weekly lessons in Home-making, Sewing, and Salesmanship. Along with these, work in weaving, drafting new patterns for rugs and other handicraft is carried on. The foreman and three girls are planning to spend a day at the Penland Work Shop within the next two weeks.

They are learning much about how to live, how to conduct themselves as constructive citizens how to work together in harmony, observing always graciousness and friendliness in the treatment of each other, and are happy in doing it.

Sarah Ann's
Cooking Class

When serving salad be sure to use the dressing that goes with the salad. Broadly speaking, salad dressing may be considered under three heads. French dressing, mayonnaise, and the cooked dressing made without oil. It is well to make a quantity of each of these dressings, keeping them in tightly closed fruit jars in the refrigerator ready for immediate use.

French Dressing
1-4 teaspoon mustard
1 teaspoon powdered sugar
1-8 teaspoon black pepper
1-4 teaspoon salt
A dash of cayenne.
Put all of these in a salad bowl and set in cracked ice to become perfectly cold. Next add 2 tablespoons of vinegar, chilled and beating all the time with an egg beater. Add slowly 4 tablespoons of olive oil. This will give a very thick smooth dressing.

Parisienne Dressing
To 1 cup of French dressing add 1 mashed yolk of a hard boiled egg, 1 teaspoon each of finely minced parsley and tarragon vinegar, with paprika to make the whole quite red.

Volga Dressing
1 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon paprika
1 teaspoon mustard
3 tablespoons sugar
4 tablespoons butter
1-2 cup vinegar
2 eggs
1-2 cup milk or cream
Mix these ingredients, blending well with the butter. Add the milk or cream last, cook over hot water till thick, beating all the time. Remove from fire and fold in well beaten eggs. Serve hot for slaw, or cold for potato, salmon or other substantial salad.

Honey Dressing
1-2 cup honey
1-4 cup lemon juice
1-4 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons crushed pineapple
Stir lemon juice and honey together, add salt and crushed pineapple. Delicious with crisp head of lettuce or plain banana salad.

Honey Whipped Cream Dressing
1 cup heavy cream
2 tablespoons strained honey
Dash of salt
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Whip cream, gradually beat in honey and salt; add lemon juice. Serve with fruit salad.

Cucumber Dressing No. 1
To 1 cup of mayonnaise add 1-4 finely chopped peeled and seeded cucumber, and 3 tablespoons chopped toasted almonds. Serve with shrimp or salad salad.

Cucumber Dressing No. 2
Grate 1 well washed cucumber without paring it. Drain the pulp very dry, squeezing it in a cheese cloth slightly. Add 1-2 cup to 1 cup of stiffly-beaten cream. Season with salt, a few drops of lemon juice and paprika.

Sour Cream Dressing
1-2 cup thick sour cream
1 tablespoon sugar
1-4 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons vinegar
Pepper.
Beat cream stiff with Dover egg beater. Add salt, pepper and vinegar to which the sugar has been added, very slowly, continue the beating.

FARM POPULATION
"Perhaps it is not generally realized," Secretary Wallace told the Civil Liberties Committee investigating the farm-labor problem, "that our population is growing far more rapidly in rural areas than in the cities; and that our farms already are crowded with far more people than can hope to make a decent living out of agriculture. The working farm population is now growing at the rate of about 445,000 a year—and the increase is fastest in those very areas which already are poorest and most overcrowded. In the Southeastern states, for example, the farm population has doubled since the Civil War, although there actually is less land under cultivation in those states today than there was in 1860. Moreover, the land that is left has been so damaged by erosion that it is far less productive than it was in those days. As a result, more and more people have been crowded onto smaller and poorer farms, and the standard of living inevitably has fallen."—U. S. D. A.
