Kidneys Must Work Well-

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling.

Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

NOTICE OF SALE OF LAND

Take notice, that whereas on the twenty-fifth day of January, 1947, Worth Frady and his wife, Rachel Frady, executed and delivered to the undersigned trustee a deed of trust on the lands hereinafter described for the purpose of securing the payment of certain indebtedness in said deed of trust described, which said deed of trust has been duly registered and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of McDowell County, North Carolina, in Deed of Trust Book 62, at page 63; and whereas default has been made in the payment of said indebtedness, and demand has been made upon the said Worth Frady and wife, Rachel Frady for the payment of the same and payment has not been made; and whereas the holder of said indebtedness has requested the undersigned to sell the lands described in said deed of trust for the purpose of satisfying and paying said indebtedness,

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power of sale in said deed of trust contained, and in accordance with the terms of the same, and for the purpose of satisfying said indebtedness, I will, on Monday, January 24th, 1949, at eleven o'clock A. M., at the courthouse door in Marion, N. C., offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described tracts of land, to wit:

Lying and being in the Town of Marion, N. C.:

FIRST TRACT: Beginning on an iron stake in Surry Street, W. P. Elliott's beginning corner, and runs South along the East edge of Surry Street 41 feet to a stake and White Oak stump; thence S 61 E 64 feet to a stake; thence S 63 E 80 feet to William Finley's Southwest corner; thence N 20 W with Finley's line 185 feet to his Northwest corner; thence Northwest with W. P. Elliott's line 70 feet to the beginning.

SECOND TRACT: Beginning at a stake in Surry Street, in the east edge, and running N 71 E 120 and 1/4 feet to a stake in Finley's line; thence N 23 W 62 feet to a stake; thence S 71 W 90 feet to a stake on Surry Street at the east edge; thence S 10 W along Surry Street 70 feet to the beginning, let the same contain what it may.

This the 23rd day of December, 1948.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa:

What is an old maid? I thought that appellation went out of style about ten years ago, but someone spoke of me the other days as an old maid.

UNMARRIED—THIRTY

Tennessee

Answer:

An old maid is a prissy, narrow-minded person of any age from 12 to 60, married or unmarried. At least, that is my private opinion. Some of the worst old maids I have ever known were married women—those holier-than-thou kind—who expect little children to be angels and expect the worst of other women and men.

But some of the unmarried women of my acquaintance, who are well on their way towards the half century mark, could not, by any stretch of imagination, be termed old maids. They are too amusing and clever, they are too interested in things and people, and they are too broad-minded to be called anything but attractive women.

LOUISA

Dear Louisa:

I am going with a very fine boy but my parents refuse to believe that he is anything but a rowdy because all of the men in his family have a bad name about getting drunk and misbehaving.

This boy hates all that as much as I do, and has always behaved like a perfect gentleman. We are both old enough to get married but my parents are trying to break us up although the boy has a good job.

They say that they are sure he will be just like all the rest of the family.

What must I do?

Kansas

A. B. L.

Answer:

It is always well to look at a boy or girl's family before you marry into that family. As a usual thing, you can get a good picture of the kind of wife or husband you will get by looking at your intended's father or mother, I say, as a usual thing, but this does not always hold true. Occasionally in a family of no-goods, there will be one or two fine girls or boys who, instead of following in the footsteps of these erring elders, bend every effort to be different from them. Some of the finest men and women have come from apparently very poor stock. Some of the people who have done the most for humanity and for their own families were reared in poverty and had absolutely no background.

So we do wrong to condemn a young man because of the behavior of his family. If, in spite of their examples, he has behaved himself and done the best he could, he should be accorded more praise and consideration than the boy who has no such handicaps.

I don't think you will be wrong in sticking to such a young man.

Good luck to you.

LOUISA

WHEN you see the 1949 Chevrolets, a glance will be enough to tell you they're new—all new—in line and contour, in beauty and style. And when you look inside, and under the hood, and beneath the chassis, you'll see that their newness is not merely in outward appearance, but in design and engineering and construction as well.

But, to a lot of people, the 1949 Chevrolet is already old. They know what it will do, and how exceedingly well it will do it—they know all about its performance, its comfort, its power, safety, durability and economy. They are the engineers and technicians of the General Motors Proving Ground—the largest, most completely equipped, outdoor testing laboratory in the automobile world.

Here, before a single new 1949 Chevrolet went into production, experimental models were tested—made to show that they possess, in greater measure than ever, all those qualities on which Chevrolet has built its leadership.

In short, the General Motors Proving Ground tests are your assurance that your new-model Chevrolet has proved its worth through many months and many, many thousands of miles of rough handling.

Soon you will see the new Chevrolet—and when you do, you will see a car not only new, but tried and true.
