Local Musicians Attend Band Clinic

Five members of the local high school band were selected to represent Marion in the Western All-State Band Clinic held at Salisbury last Friday and Saturday, February 18 and 19. The band clinic is a yearly affair with students selected by a committee appointed by the North Carolina Bandmasters Association. Marion musicians participating in the clinic were: Hilda Goodman, flute, Sewell Laughridge, clarinet, Mary Belle Grayson-bass clarinet, Bobby Ricks, french horn, and Dean Seagle, trombone.

The Clinic Band was conducted by James Christian Pfohl, Director of Music at Davidson College. The two day clinic schedule called for some strenuous band rehearsals but also included a banquet on Friday night with a dance following at the Salisbury Youth Center. Saturday's activities included a clarinet demonstration by Allen Hadley Bone, Director of Band and Orchestra at Duke University, a very fine concert by the Davidson Band in the afternoon and a concert by the Clinic Band Saturday night.

Students report both an instructive and enjoyable trip. The students were accompanied to Salisbury by Bernard Hirsch, local band director.

Dobson Accepted At Emory University

Charles W. Dobson, route 2, Nebo, has been accepted by the Emory University School of Dentistry, according to an announcement by Dr. John E. Buhler, dean of the school. Dobson will be one of a class of 80 beginning next September. The group is made up entirely of students from the Southeastern area.

To qualify for acceptance, a student must have two years of pre-dental college training with a commendable record, and must take a series of aptitude tests similar to those given by the council on dental education of the American Dental Association.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil B. Dobson of Nebo.

Wildlife Club To Meet Friday

A call meeting of the McDowell County Wildlife club is slated for 7:30 p. m., Friday, in the court house, it is announced this week.

The meeting was called to consider certain legislation regarding wildlife laws and regulations which is pending in the current session of the State Legislature.

The discussion will be mainly concerned with laws regarding big game hunting, fishing licenses and trespassing.

It was pointed out that a bill is being proposed to the Assembly which would give land owners the right to protect their lands from trespassing. Land owners are urged to be present and express their opinions regarding this bill.

Hewitt Speaker At Rotary Meet
