

E. U. Lamb Dies After Long Illness

E. U. Lamb, 57, retired lumberman of McDowell county, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. H. E. Willis, Old Fort, Rt. 1, Wednesday morning after an extended illness.

Funeral services will be conducted at Clear Creek Baptist church at 4:30 Thursday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. Carson Brittain, assisted by Rev. J. R. Surratt, and burial will be in the church cemetery.

He is survived by one son and five daughters: Arthur A. Lamb of Asheville, Mrs. Cecil Willis of Newport News, Va., Mrs. H. E. Willis of Old Fort, Rt. 1; Mrs. John A. Hensley, Rosalie and Frances Lamb of Marion, and ten grandchildren; also survived by two half brothers and one half sister, Arthur Schism of Mt. Airy, Victor Schism of Sallada, and Mrs. Ed Long of Marion.

Edward R. Elliott Aboard USS Bexar

Edward R. Elliott, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mrs. Pearl Elliott of Cross Mill, Marion, participated in Atlantic Command Exercises while serving aboard the attack transport USS Bexar.

Elliott, who entered the Naval service Sept. 26, 1948, received his recruit training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

Before entering the Navy he attended East Marion High School.

Hall Qualifies As Rifle Marksman

Parris Island, S. C., April 11—Marine Private Harold D. Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hall, East Marion, qualified as a rifle marksman when he fired for record here on the rifle range recently.

A former student of Marion High School, Hall enlisted in the Marine Corps on February 4, 1949, for a period of three years and is currently undergoing recruit training with platoon 18 here at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot.

FIRST LEAGUE BASEBALL

(Continued from first page) bershhip, besides Marion include Hendersonville, Rutherford County Owls, Shelby, Lincolnton, Newton, Lenoir, and Morganton. If the Marauders grow stronger at the plate a tough dish will be given to all those who come into the Marion park.

Reddick, big rookie left-hander from Fletcher, will probably get the nod from Manager Lanning to start the game against Morganton Tuesday night, with Nat Yablon or Harry McKee on the deck ready for relief duty. Art Brickner or Ezio Bonetti will be on the receiving end of the battery staff. Others in the probable line-up will include: John Beam, first base; Floyd Brooks, second base; Harry Holt, short-stop; James Aragon, third base; Ray Yow, right field; Jack Triplett, center field; and Frank De Angelis, left field.

Manager Lanning and his boys have played several exhibition games to date, winning five and losing two. The losses went to games played with the Asheville Tourists and Clearwater Manufacturing company of Old Fort. Wins were chalked against: Lenoir Rhyne college, Beacon Manufacturing company (2) Granite Falls, and Western Carolina Teachers College.

Business Manager J. C. Rabb and his board of directors have been working hard to bring an excellent professional baseball team to Marion. Much time, effort and money have been spent to put the park, stands and box seats into good condition for the enjoyment and comfort of local fans. Everything is ready for the opening game including a grand prize which will be awarded during the game.

Home Schedule MARION GAMES

All games played in the Marion park will be called at 8:0 o'clock. Thursday, April 28, Lincolnton. Saturday, April 30, Newton. Tuesday, May 3, Hendersonville. Thursday, May 5, Rutherford County Owls.

ALLIED YOUTH

(Continued from first page) nett, Carl Snively. It is non-sectarian and non-political. Its aims are temperance education, recreation without alcohol, and character development. The Allied Youth monthly magazine, which is sent to all members, features in this month's issue the pictures and statements of 21 All-American football players who endorse Allied Youth, and abstinence from the use of alcoholic beverages. The cover is a picture of Charlie "Choo-choo" Justice, who makes the statement, "I have never taken a drink of beer, whiskey, or wine."

Stills Captured Over The Week-End

Sheriff C. M. Pool reported the capture of two stills over the week-end.

Friday, Pool with J. E. Kanipe, of Asheville, A. T. U. agent, and deputies Mark Toney and Paul Morgan, captured a copper outfit. The still was located at the head of Coxe's creek near Big Lynn. There was only one barrel of beer on the premises.

Pool and Carl Hall captured a 50-gallon steam outfit and destroyed two barrels of beer Saturday in Montford's Cove township.

Mrs. Cannon Dies After Brief Illness

Mrs. Annie Florence Cannon, age 86, widow of the late Peter F. Cannon, died at her residence, Marion route 2, Wednesday morning after a brief illness.

Funeral services will be conducted at Providence Methodist church at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. H. M. Wellman, and burial will be in the church cemetery.

She is survived by one son, Julius A. Cannon, and one daughter, Mrs. J. Woodfin McCurry of Marion, Route 2, and three grandchildren, Louise Cannon, Hazel and Ralph McCurry.

WILLIAM TISDALE

(Continued from page one) while working on a bridge in the Sugar Hill community.

Tisdale had been employed by the highway department for a number of years and resided on Route 1, Old Fort.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Ebenezer Methodist church and burial was in the church cemetery.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Geneva Allison Tisdale; two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth Evans of Black Mountain and Miss Mary Sue Tisdale, a teacher at Brevard College; his mother, Mrs. B. F. Tisdale of Old Fort; two sisters, Mrs. Hattie Allison and Miss Kate Tisdale of Old Fort; a brother, M. A. Tisdale of Bryson City, and one grandchild.

The state of Delaware ranks high in the production of tomatoes, strawberries and fruits.

NOTICE

North Carolina McDowell County

In the Superior Court Viola Hunter Taylor and husband, Albert J. Taylor; Florence Hunter Craig and husband, Charles R. Craig, Petitioners, vs. Katherine Hunter Brown, a widow, John Harvey Hunter, Jr., and wife, Joy Hunter; Irene Hunter Creech and husband, Grover Creech, Jr.; Charles T. Hunter and wife, Winifred Hunter; Katherine Hunter Cooper and husband, Garnet Cooper; Mildred Hunter Davis and husband, Earl F. Davis; William Robert Hunter and wife, Ada Garber Hunter; Charlie Mae Gibson and husband, William W. Gibson; Katherine Norris and husband, Johnie Norris, Jr.; Frances Conley, a single woman; Nettie Powell Hunter, a widow; and the Unknown and Unnamed Heirs at Law of Charles Joseph Hunter, deceased. Defendants.

The defendants Katherine Hunter Brown; John Harvey Hunter, Jr., and wife, Joy Hunter; William Robert Hunter and wife, Ada Garber Hunter; Charlie Mae Gibson and husband, William W. Gibson; Frances Conley, and the Unknown and Unnamed heirs at law of Charles Joseph Hunter, deceased, will take notice that a special proceeding entitled as above has been commenced against them in the Superior Court of McDowell County, North Carolina; that the purpose of said special proceeding is for the sale of the land described in the petition and division of the proceeds among the petitioners and the defendants in proportion to their respective interest as alleged in the petition.

And the said defendants will further take notice that they are required to appear at the Office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of McDowell County, North Carolina, and answer or demur to the petition in said special proceeding within ten days after the 26th day of May, 1949, or the petitioners will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said petition.

This 21st day of April, 1949. S. D. MARTIN, Clerk Superior Court McDowell County, North Carolina.

NOTICE

North Carolina McDowell County

The undersigned, having qualified as Administrator of the Estate of Z. C. Harris, deceased, late of McDowell County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against said Estate to present them to the undersigned, at Marion, North Carolina, on or before the 22nd day of April, 1950, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said Estate will please make immediate payment to the undersigned.

This 21st day of April, 1949. MAX HARRIS, Administrator of the Estate of Z. C. Harris, deceased.

Large Crowds

(Continued from first page) 50; A. M. Worship, 50.

Greenlee Baptist—Sunday School, 152; Youth Meeting, 79.

First Presbyterian — Sunday School, 130.

Glenwood Baptist — Sunday School, 103; A. M. Worship, 130; Youth Meeting, 33; P. M. 65.

First Baptist — Sunday School, 362; A. M. Workshop, 420; Youth Meeting, 137; P. M. 160.

Cross Mill Baptist—Sunday School, 329; A. M. Worship, 300; Youth Meeting, 118; P. M. 250.

East Marion Methodist—Sunday School, 115.

West Marion Baptist—Sunday School, 186; A. M. Worship, 200; Youth Meeting, 25; P. M. 75.

West Marion Baptist—Sunday School, 186; A. M. Worship, 200; Youth Meeting, 25; P. M. 75.

Cherry Springs Baptist—Sunday School, 77.

Sesame is an excellent oil-producing plant that will grow well in certain parts of the United States.

LIBRARY BOARD

(Continued from first page) grams of library service, stating in the same report, the library needs for the coming year.

The trustees discussed suggestions and recommendations and formulated plans for continuing county-wide service in McDowell.

Members of the Board are: Mrs. S. W. Blanton, Mrs. J. H. Beaman, I. L. Caplan, R. J. Noyes, Mrs. J. F. Jonas and Miss Ruth Greenlee.

ANNUAL W. M. U.

(Continued from first page)

Mrs. Lloyd Cuthbertson of Harmony Grove, prayer by D. L. Wood of East Marion, and special music by Miss Betty Bowman of Chapel Hill church.

Music will be led by Rev. C. C. Cross, pastor of East Marion Baptist church.

Other features of the program will include:

"Making Him Known Through Our Association," Rev. M. O. Owens, pastor Marion First Baptist church.

"Making Him Known Through

Our Young People," Mrs. Terry Smart, Forest City.

"The Urgency of Making Him Known Throughout the State," Miss Ruth Provenu of Raleigh.

Prayer by Rev. J. H. Henline, pastor West Court Baptist church.

Missionary message, Miss Irene Chambers of Memphis, Tenn.

Special music by Mrs. W. M. Dameron of Cross Mill.

Missionary message by Miss Alda Grayson, returned missionary from China.

Special music by the Y. W. A. girls of Cross Mill.

Election of officers.

Closing message by Rev. Carson Britton, pastor Clear Creek Baptist church.

Charles Cannon

(Continued from first page)

daughters, Mrs. R. Jennings White and Mrs. Russell Johnson of Conway; and Mrs. George V. McGimsey of Lenoir; two sons, Arthur of Swannanoa and Clyde E. Cannon of Marion; 13 grandchildren; and four sisters, Mrs. B. A. Morris of Portsmouth, Va., Mrs. Charles Talbot of Plotlach, Idaho, and Mrs. Laura Bright and Mrs. Gus Godfrey of Marion.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Methodist church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. James B. McLarty and interment was in Oak Grove cemetery.

Services at the grave were conducted by the Masonic Lodge and the members of the Guild of the church had charge of the flowers.

All Principals

(Continued from first page)

there will be any resignations. Teacher turn-over in McDowell county is usually small. While a few teachers have indicated that they will desire to change positions or go into new work, only a small number of vacancies is expected.

Schools are beginning to prepare for the commencement activities. These exercises will be given at intervals in a number of programs. The finals will take place during the week beginning May 20 and more than one hundred will be awarded diplomas.

The "CATCH" of the Day

A Refreshing Bottle of GOOD LUCK ..

Marion

Marauders

First Season Game

Tuesday Night, April 26---Be There

Coca-Cola Bottling Co.

MARION, N. C.