Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

NEWS HOLLYWOOD

When the Giant Friars' Frolic is presented at the Shrine Auditorium on April 16 for the benefit of the Motion Picture Relief Fund, Gene Kelly will do a musical number and his chorus "girls" will include Humphrey Bogart, Walter Pidgeon, Bob Montgomery, Ray Milland, Allan Ladd and Ronald Reagan. Al Jolson, Eddie Cantor and George Jessel are to do a blackface skit, while George Allen and Jack Benny will be "Burns and Allen," with Jack playing Gracie in costume. Practically all of the male stars in town will be in the show, which promises to be the greatest ever put on in Hollywood.

Betty Grable is scheduled to star in Twentieth Century-Fox's "Wabash Avenue." The story is based on the World's Fair of 1893 and will use all the old songs and costumes of the Gay Nineties.

Loretta Young was so good in "Come To The Stable," that Sam Eagle wants her for his comedy, "Spare The Rod." The male lead, that of a young, screwball psychiatrist, is still open.

Both Ingrid Bergman and Roberto Rossellini, the Italian director, who will make a picture together, speak three languages but, in their work, will have to use an interpreter. Miss Berman speaks English, Swedish, and Danish, while Rossellini speaks Italian, French and Spanish.

Now that Claude Jarman is getting to be a big boy, he will play a GI in "Battleground" in which Bob Taylor will be starred. The picture won't be made, however, until after Bob and his wife, Barbara Stanwyck, make a trip to Europe.

After John Wayne declared that he likes to work, RKO took him at his word and put him into "Black Canyon," another Western which takes place at the turn of the century. He'll play the role of a young attorney, who comes West to avenge the death of his parents, and learns that a six-shooter is more important than a law book.

Speaking of "Canyons," Paramount is ready to start "Copper Canyon," with Hedy Lamarr, MacDonald Carey and Ray Milland, and another studio is doing "Rey Canyon."

Florence Bates, fine character actress, has bought "Medal for Mom," which she plans to do as an independent picture. It's the story of a Gold Star mother who sees her son in every stray boy she comes across.

Warners is interested in the screen-play Agnes Moorehead is writing about her own experiences as a Wisconsin school teacher. The story is titled, "The Golden Land," and is about an earthy, unusual character which Aggie would like to portray on the screen.

Clifton Webb, who is so good in the "Mr. Belvidere" role and who loves the character, wanted a complete change of pace between his first film and "Mr. Belvidere Goes to College," and he will certainly get it. He will play a murderer in a picture now titled "21 Bow Street," the address of Scotland Yard. Clifton, by the way, gets a free trip abroad—plus a great acting part—something he's wanted for a long time.

Gloria Jean and Sandra Berkova, the 16-year-old violinist who played in the Hollywood Bowl last summer, will lead the cast in "Music for Happiness," Charles Previn, the boy music wonder, will be musical supervisor, with Peter Meremblum conducting Hollywood's Junior Symphony.

By loaning out his leading stars—Jennifer Jones, Gregory Peck, Jae Cotton, Shirley Temple, Louis Jourdan, and others for Warners pictures, David Selznick benefits financially to the tune of $1,500,000 and gets a year and a half of freedom to wander all over Europe, gathering ideas. When he returns, he will be ready to plunge into television with Bill Paley of CBS, with all his stars safe in the fold.

WHERE SILENCE FAILED

Professor Batt—I can hardly say I like this tooth powder you purchased this morning; it has a very disagreeable taste.

His Wife—What next? That isn't tooth powder.

Professor Batt—Dear me: what is it then?

His Wife—Insect powder.

4-H Clothing Program Shows Annual Increase

Nearly one-third of the 1,800,000 4-H Club members throughout the nation are expected to participate in the 1949 National 4-H Clothing Achievement program, according to the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. This prediction is based on the annual increase in enrollment during the last nine years. North Carolina reported 13,094 enrolled in the 1948 clothing program, and hopes to top that figure.

The economy of home sewing plus a plentiful supply of intriguing designs and fabrics will attract many more 4-H'ers to complete the 1949 clothing project. But not only are members taught to make new garments for a carefully planned wardrobe, but also learn to mend, alter and remake old ones. Many of the girls sew for the family as well as for themselves. They become adept at making hats, bags and other accessories. Demonstration of sewing skills is encouraged by their 4-H Club leaders.

Examples of outstanding achievements are the 1,440 garments made by last year's 12 national clothing winners. In addition, these girls restyled hundreds of worn dresses, suits and coats.

The 12 national 4-H scholarships have been increased from $200 to $300 by Spool Cotton Educational Bureau, donor of all clothing achievement awards. State winners will receive an all-expense trip to the 1949 National 4-H Club Congress, while a gold filled model of honor goes to county winners. The Cooperative Extension Service supervises the program.

North Carolina named 74 county winners last year. Betty Moore was a three-time winner, having been selected for Iredell county, State and national awards.

McDowell farmers are planting sericea lespedeza for hay, seed and erosion control.

R. V. Price, of Nebo Rt. No. 1, Bruce Cowan of Dysartsville, I. L. Knupp, and Clyde Gilliam of Crooked Creek are planting sericea lespedeza on their farms this spring. These farmers say they planted from 25 to 30 pounds of sacrificed sericea seed per acre on a good seed bed.

"Nitrate of soda surely will make pasture grass green," says W. J. Harris of Marion Rt. No. 1, "because I have tried it this spring." The grass is larger and greener where the soda was applied than where it was not, according to Mr. Harris.

A. C. Walker of Nebo Rt. 1, has a fine stand of Austrian winter peas in the field north of his home. Mr. Walker says he plans to turn them under as a green manure crop. Then as they decay they will help to make the soil richer, more spongy, and easier to work.
