Musical Program Is Featured At Kiwanis Club

The Marion Kiwanis Club held its regular weekly meeting in the community building Tuesday night. Roy W. Davis, president, presided, and T. R. Cline had charge of the program.

The club was entertained by the Utah Centennial Quartet under the auspices of The Church of Junior Latter Day Saints. The music was chosen so as to depict the activities of the pioneer days in the settling of the west. Additional color was added to the selections by several romantic numbers, as well as a selection of folk songs of the Old South.

An announcement was made that the hymn singing, which was scheduled for last night at the First Baptist Church, was postponed and would be given at a later date. Another announcement was made that due to conflicts with the high school commencement program, Ladies Night, which was previously scheduled for June 7, would be held on June 14.

In a short business session prior to the program, Immediate Past President Vernon Eckerd, and S. R. Perkins, vice president, were elected delegates to the International Convention, which will be held in Atlantic City, New Jersey, June 19 through June 26.
