Skipper Carl Miller Leading Hitting In Parade W. C. League

In the second release from Howe News Bureau Skipper Carl Miller of the Lincolnton Cardinals was leading the hitting parade. He has the outstanding records of .500 per cent, as the result of 23 hits out of 46 times at bat. Miller also claims the lead in the number of runs scored.

Chuck Rudisill, also of Lincolnton, Moore of Marion, as well as several others are hitting above the 400 mark and deserves special mention.

Rudisill is also coming to the forefront again this year in the stolen base department. He is tied for their honor with Manager Joe Borich of the Shelby Farmers. The lead in the number of home runs obtained is also a tie between Don Stafford of Newton-on-Conover and Noel Cashier of the Lenoir Red Sox.

MARAUDERS LOSE TO AGGIES HERE THURSDAY

In a game that was battled every inch of the way the Marion Marauders lost a heart-breaker Thursday night in their own back yard to the Morganton Aggies by a score of seven to four, with the exception of the fifth inning when the Aggies chalked up four markers either team was held to not more than one tally in any inning.

The Marauders received several of the so-called "breaks" of the game, but failed to capitalize on them. During the game two Aggie twirlers issued 14 free bases on balls and on two occasions filled the bases, but Skipper Johnny Lanning's cohorts could not hit in the pinches. Despite the fact that the visiting moundsmen were wild in getting the ball across home plate the Marauder batsmen were held to four bingles.

Big Red Reddick started the game for the local outfit and traveled through the sixth when Lanning called on Presnell to finish the game. The combined offerings of the Marion pitchers were touched for fourteen hits and the game.

Extra base hits were few during the game. Marion received none. The visiting players claimed four; Roberts and Sullivan each had one, and Bowles had two.

Line score:
Morganton - 001 140 100-7 14 1
Marion - 010 101 100-4 4 2
Batteries: Morganton - Sullivan, Goode (6) to Bowles; Marion, Reddick, Presnell (7) to St. George. Umpires: Swan and Butler.
