

HYMN SINGING IS FEATURED AT KIWANIS CLUB

The Marion Kiwanis club held its regular weekly dinner meeting Tuesday evening at the community building. A good attendance was reported and President Roy W. Davis presided.

Kiwanian Ray Cline was in charge of the program and announced that the club would spend the evening in hymn singing. This singing was led by Kiwanian J. L. Gourley and I. A. McLain.

The directors held a short business session immediately after the meeting to put finishing touches on the plans for Ladies Night which is scheduled to be held on June 14.

DR. JONAS

(Continued from first page) climbing a hill to reach a rural home to deliver a baby when he felt a slight heart pain. That night about 10 o'clock he became quite ill and was taken to the hospital the following day, being returned home Friday afternoon.

Dr. Jonas had served two terms on the Marion Board of Aldermen, during which time he was mayor pro tem. He at one time served as McDowell county coroner for 13 years.

Active In Church

At the time of his death, he was a member of the board of stewards of First Methodist church and had been for the past 35 years.

Dr. Jonas' chief hobby was fox hunting. He was a member of the Western North Carolina Fox Hunters Association. He went on a fox hunt Tuesday night but was not active. He had raised five ribbon-winning fox hunting dogs.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Marie Griffin Jonas; two sons, John Jr., a student at Temple University School of Medicine, and Dr. Karl Jonas, resident surgeon at Temple University Hospital; two sisters, Mrs. William Sain and Mrs. William Carswell, both of Vale; a step-daughter, Miss Marie Griffin; and three grandchildren.

Dr. Jonas was born in Lincoln county on March 23, 1873, the son of Philo and Mary Ledford Jonas, pioneer Lincoln residents.

He first attended old Rutherford College and then old Grant University, a medical school at Chattanooga. He received his M. D. degree from old Baltimore Medical College (now part of the University of Maryland) and took post-graduate work at New York Linn-In Hospital. He completed his work at Johns Hopkins in Baltimore.

For a number of years Dr. Jonas practiced at Thermal City in Rutherford county before coming here in 1909.

He married Miss Nora Crawford of McDowell county in 1908. The mother of his two sons, she died in 1936. He married Mrs. Marie Griffin in 1939.

Dr. Jonas was a general practitioner.

He was past president of McDowell County Medical Society, the Tri-county Medical Society, and the Tenth District Medical Society.

Honorary pallbearers were members of the church board of stewards and members of the county medical society.

Dr. Jonas was an original staff member of Marion General Hospital.

Francis Marion Removes Limitation On Membership

The Francis Marion club voted to amend its by-laws withdrawing the limitation on membership at its meeting in the community building last Thursday evening. Previously the membership had been limited to 50.

Members discussed a proposal to cooperate with other Marion civic clubs in the organization of a junior baseball team. The matter was referred to the finance committee for further consideration.

Responding to an appeal from the Marion High School for funds to purchase track uniforms, members made individual contributions and a total of $25 was contributed. H. T. Conley made a report on the Horse Show sponsored recently by the Francis Marion club. The financial report, however, was still incomplete.

In answer to an appeal from the Marion High School for a donation with which to purchase band uniforms, a committee was named to make plans for a fund-raising campaign.
