Mrs. Walker Blanton Entertains For Club

Mrs. S. W. Blanton entertained with a luncheon and bridge party at her home on South Main street last Wednesday for members of her bridge club, several visitors and a luncheon guest.

Guests arrived at one o'clock to find dainty covers laid for lunch at individual tables. The home was most attractive with arrangements of fall flowers complimenting the fundamental color scheme of the living room, dining room and halls. Wine dahlias and rose chrysanthemums were used very effectively in the living room.

A two course luncheon was enjoyed and three tables of bridge were in play afterwards.

Mrs. Neal Morris received club high score prize and Mrs. Otis Broyhill was winner of visitors high. Mrs. W. L. Morris, Sr., received slam prize and the hostess also remembered Mrs. W. L. Morris, Jr., luncheon guest with a gift.

Club members participating in the bridge game were: Mrs. C. Harry McCall, Mrs. Eugene Cross, Jr., Mrs. Paul Story, Mrs. Frank Goldsmith, Mrs. Joseph Noyes, Mrs. S. R. Cross, Mrs. Neal Morris, Mrs. E. P. Dameron and Mrs. Sam Yancey. Visitors playing included Mrs. Otis Broyhill, Mrs. R. W. Proctor and Mrs. Lester Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Cowan Given House Warming

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Cowan were delightedly surprised with a house warming party at their new home in Grandview Park last Monday evening, with Miss Ruby Byrd in charge of the party.

Miss Byrd received the guests at the door and directed them to the receiving line composed of Mrs. Mike Cowan, Mrs. C. A. Calloway, Mrs. J. S. Cowan and Mrs. B. T. Nichols.

After being shown through the new home the guests were served in the dining room by Miss Doris Hill and Miss Bonnie Hill. Refreshments consisted of Coca-Cola with dainty white cakes decorated with green leaves and the words "Cowan Cottage" in pink. A pink and green color scheme was also used in the sandwiches and mints.

Approximately 50 guests called between the hours of 7:30 to 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Sarah Decker Complimented At Tea

Mrs. R. I. Corbett entertained with a lovely informal tea at her home last Thursday afternoon, honoring her aunt, Mrs. Sarah Decker of Asheville, on her 85th birthday.

Mrs. Decker was charming in a purple dress, adorned with an orchid corsage, a gift from Rev. and Mrs. Corbett.

Mrs. J. F. Kanipe of Asheville assisted her mother, Mrs. Decker, and Mrs. Corbett in receiving 25 callers between the hours from three to five o'clock.

Mrs. Carl Hyatt, also of Asheville and granddaughter of Mrs. Decker, presided over the refreshment table and served tea, sandwiches and accessories to the guests.

The honoree was presented many beautiful gifts from the friends who called.

District Officers To Visit O. E. S.

Marion chapter No. 278, Order of the Eastern Star will hold a meeting Thursday evening, October 27, at 8 o'clock in the Masonic room, at which time Mrs. J. M. Mackey, District Deputy Grand Matron of the 19th District and George G. Robertson, D. D. G. P. will make their official visit to the Chapter.

Mrs. Landis Laughridge, Worthy Matron, will preside, assisted by Dysart Martin, Worthy Patron.

A program of especial interest has been prepared and all members of the Order are urged to attend this meeting.

Sherry McIntosh Celebrates Birthday

Little Miss Sherry McIntosh was guest of honor at a lovely birthday party, given last Wednesday afternoon, at her home, by her mother, Mrs. Archie McIntosh.

Approximately 40 small guests and 20 of their mothers assembled on the lawn and enjoyed activities suitable for a little lady's third birthday.

Refreshments carrying out the Hallowe'en motif were served. A lovely green and white birthday cake was served with ice cream and punch. Favors for the small guests also carried out the Hallowe'en motif.

Bride Elect Honored At Evans Home

Miss Marie Griffin, bride elect, was honored with a lovely party last Thursday evening when Mrs. J. E. Evans, Miss Doris Hill and Miss Bonnie Hill entertained at the Evans home on Monte Vista Avenue with a dessert bridge at 8 o'clock.

The house was decorated with roses and fall flowers and the bride elects place at the refreshment table was marked with a miniature nosegay with white satin streamers.

Miss Griffin was winner of high score bridge prize and second high score prize was awarded Mrs. Bruce Hildebrand. The hostesses also remembered the honoree with a gift of china.

The guest list for the evening included Miss Griffin, Mrs. Hildebrand, Mrs. Ernest Gore, Mrs. William Conley, Miss Wilma Snoddy, Mrs. W. R. Chambers, Mrs. W. Ray Smith, Jr., Mrs. C. A. Workman, Miss Elise Van Landingham, Mrs. Archie McIntosh, Mrs. Lloyd Miller, Miss Margaret Honeycutt, Miss Ann Hildebrand, Mrs. M. W. Dinner Bridge Party Held At Cross Home

Mrs. Eugene Cross, Jr., was hostess with a dinner and bridge party at her home last Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of gladiolas and dahlias.

Guests enjoyed a delicious two course dinner at a lovely appointed table with covers laid for ten guests.

Following dinner a bridge game was enjoyed and when scores were tallied Mrs. R. J. Noyes was awarded high score prize with second high and slam prizes going to Mrs. William B. Noyes.

The guest list included: Mrs. R. J. Noyes, Mrs. William B. Noyes, Mrs. T. L. Richie, Mrs. C. C. Bolch, Mrs. R. W. Proctor, Mrs. W. W. Gordon, guest for dinner, Mrs. William Chambers, Mrs. E. C. Carnes, Mrs. Albert Neal and Mrs. Lester Morris.

Mrs. Hewitt Hostess With Party For Son

Mrs. A. C. Hewitt, Jr., was hostess with a party last Wednesday afternoon, honoring her son Freddie on the occasion of his ninth birthday.

Decorations carrying out the Hallowe'en motif were used for the party.

Various games and contests were enjoyed during the afternoon and several clever prizes were awarded the winners.

Birthday cake, ice cream, and candy were served by the hostess and toy guns were given as favors.

Linda Laughridge Honored By Mother

Mrs. Phillip Laughridge was hostess to several members of the very young set last Saturday afternoon when she entertained with a party in honor of her daughter, Linda on her third birthday.

The young guests arrived at four o'clock and after presenting Linda with a variety of lovely gifts amused themselves by playing with toys and games provided by the hostess.

Delicious refreshments of birthday cake, decorated in the Hallowe'en motif, ice cream, and candies were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. W. Wyke. Tommy Wyke with his flash bulb camera amused the youngsters by snapping several pictures of the party.

The guest list included: Virginia Mae Jolly, Sherry McIntosh, Sarah Cannon, David Wyke, Petie and Bobby Moose, John Neal, Susan Gourley, Jimmy Neal, Cato Holler, Jr., Danny Davis, Sally Blane Martin and Harry Lee Tyler.
