Goods Produced In McDowell County Show Added Value

The value added by manufacture of goods produced in McDowell county has increased by approximately $7,912,000 since before the war, according to information received here from C. Parker Parsons, Regional Director of the U. S. Department of Commerce in Atlanta.

A Census Bureau report from its 1947 Census of Manufactures shows, Mr. Parsons said, that in 1939 the value added by manufacture of goods produced by manufacturers of McDowell county was $3,301,000 and that in 1947 it was $11,213,000. The term "value added by manufacture" means the value of manufactured goods in excess of the cost materials and supplies, the Commerce Department official explained.

Most branches of McDowell county's manufacturing industries have grown correspondingly in the eight year period, it was stated. The number of establishments engaged in manufacturing operations has increased from 25 in 1939 to 57 in 1947, the number of employees from 2467 to 3185, and salaries and wages paid from $1,605,150 to $5,452,000.

The Census Bureau report, copy of which are available at the United States Department of Commerce offices in Atlanta and Charleston, South Carolina, at 20 cents a copy, also reflects the rapid strides made by North Carolina industrially since before the war. For example, the value added by manufacture of goods produced in the State as a whole increased by more than a billion dollars since 1939, going from a valuation of $544,181,000 in that year to $1,646,673,000 in 1947. Also, the number of establishments engaged in manufacturing operations has grown from 3,225 in 1939 to 5,322 in 1947, the number of employees from 294,314 to 381,480, and salaries and wages paid from $246,834,206 to $758,895,000.

INSULT TO INJURY

McPherson was strolling down the street when he noticed what he thought was the familiar figure of a friend. Quickening his steps, he came up to the man and slapped him on the back. To his amazement and confusion he then saw that he had greeted an utter stranger. "Oh, I beg your pardon," he said apologetically, "I thought you were an old friend of mine, Mackintosh by name."

The stranger recovered his wind and replied with considerable heat; "And supposing I were McIntosh, do you have to hit me so hard?" "What do you care," retorted MacPherson, "how hard I hit Mackintosh?"
